

Heather Mowry, PT, DPT

Heather Mowry is an Assistant Professor at UT Southwestern Medical Center. She resides in Carrollton, TX with her husband and 11-year-old German Short Haired Pointer (GSP).

BOARD CERTIFICATIONS

- Physical Therapist (PT)
- Neurologic Certified Specialist (NCS)

CLINICAL EXPERTISE

Dr. Mowry has a wide range of experience treating patients with neurologic diagnoses. She has worked as a physical therapist in the outpatient setting for the past 9 years. Her clinical interests include: MS, Parkinson's Disease, ALS, lower extremity bracing and custom seating evaluations.

Other professional experience includes:

- Assistant Professor, UT Southwestern Medical Center DPT Program
- Clinic Director, OneRehab Dallas
- Faculty Associate, UT Southwestern Medical Center DPT Program
- Clinic Supervisor, Gait Disorders Clinic, UT Southwestern Medical Center
- Outpatient Residency Mentor, UT Southwestern Medical Center

PUBLICATIONS

Shearin SM, Bauzaite E, Hall H and McCain KJ. (2017) Application of Carbon Fiber Ankle Foot Orthoses to Enhance Gait Outcomes for Individuals with Neurologic Gait Dysfunction. Phys Med Rehabil Int.; 4(4): 1123.