Re: Norment Law Firm – Intellectual Property Strategy Session.

Thank you for your interest in Norment Law Firm's Strategy Sessions.

About the Strategy Session

A Strategy Session (telephone call; up to 1 hour) with patent attorney Rashauna Norment includes:

- Discussion of your intellectual property (invention, product, brand, project, and/or work), current activities, goals, and business start-up/business expansion
- Overview of the patent application process, trademark application process, copyright application process, or other potential legal options for protecting intellectual property
- Anticipated fees and expenses
- Potential deadlines based on limited facts provided at the Strategy Session
- Preliminary recommendations for the next course(s) of action for protection and/or enforcement based on limited facts provided at the Strategy Session
- Discussion of potential applicable types of contracts/agreements such as, nondisclosure agreements, license agreements, work for hire agreements, copyright assignment agreements, manufacturing agreements, and distribution agreements that may also be needed
- Addressing potential client's questions, as applicable and available
- At end of Strategy Session, potential client has option to retain Attorney Norment's legal services

How to Schedule a Strategy Session ($450.00)

The Strategy Session fee ($450.00) must be paid online when scheduling your appointment to reserve your appointment time. The calendar link is available on our website: www.normentlawfirm.com.

Attorney Norment's current hourly rate is $450.00 for legal services outside a flat fee legal service. The Strategy Session fee is payment for the appointment and is separate from additional legal services

Note: The information discussed during the Strategy Session will be confidential. No attorney-client relationship is established until 1) after potential client signs a separate Engagement letter and pays the initial retainer fee, and 2) Norment Law Firm accepts engagement.
