TUA shall have no obligation or liability with respect to any claim of infringement to the extent it is based, in whole or in part, upon the following (collectively, "Indemnity Exclusions") (i) the combination, operation or use of the Services with any hardware, software or other device supplied by a party other than TUA, and the claim would not have arisen but for such combination, operation or use; (ii) any modification of the Services by Merchant or its agents which is not pre-approved by TUA in writing; (iii) Merchant's failure to promptly update the Services (e.g., install a supported release) provided by TUA; (vi) use of the Services in breach of this Agreement; or (vii) Merchant's continued allegedly infringing activity after being notified thereof or of modifications that would have avoided the alleged infringement. TUA shall not be obligated or responsible for any settlement entered into without TUA's prior written consent. Should the Services become, or in TUA's opinion likely become the subject of an IP Claim, TUA, at its option, will, in addition to its other obligations hereunder, either (a) procure for Merchant the right to continue using the Services, (b) modify the Services to make it non-infringing provided the same functionality is maintained, or (c) terminate this Agreement as to the potentially infringing Services and refund Merchant the amortized fees paid under this Agreement for such potentially infringing Services.

- (d) Implied or Equitable Indemnity. No party to this Agreement will be entitled to any form of implied or equitable indemnification at any time, whether based on a theory of contract, torts (including negligence), strict liability or otherwise, and any right thereto is hereby irrevocably waived and disclaimed by each of the parties.

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York notwithstanding any conflict of law rules. Any dispute, claim or controversy arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach, termination, enforcement, interpretation or validity thereof, shall be determined by final and binding arbitration before one arbitrator. The place of arbitration shall be in the State of New York if Merchant is the claimant, and in State of New York, if TUA is the claimant. The arbitration shall be administered by Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services pursuant to its Comprehensive Arbitration Rules and Procedures and in accordance with the “Expedited Procedures” described therein. Judgment on the award may be entered by any court having jurisdiction. This clause shall not preclude parties from seeking provisional remedies in aid of arbitration from a court of appropriate jurisdiction. If for any reason this arbitration clause is deemed inapplicable or invalid, both Merchant and TUA waive, to the fullest extent allowed by law, any claims to recover punitive or exemplary damages and any right to pursue any claims on a class or consolidated basis or in a representative capacity.

(15) Force Majeure

Except for each party's payment obligations, neither party will be responsible for any failure or delay in performance due, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, to any contingency, delay, failure, or cause of any nature beyond its reasonable control, including, without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, fire, terrorism, epidemic, earthquake, storm, flood or other weather, unavailability of necessary utilities or raw materials, strike, lockout, unavailability of components, war, riot, acts of God, regulation, ordinance, or instructions of government or other public authorities, or judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction (not arising out of breach by such party of this Agreement) or other event that is traditionally recognized by California courts as an event of force majeure. In the event of the happening of such a cause, the party whose performance is so affected will give prompt, written notice to the other party, stating the period of time the same is expected to continue. Such delay will not be excused under this Section 15 for more than ninety (90) days.

(16) Assignment

Neither party may assign all or part of this Agreement without such assignment being considered a change to the Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such consent shall not be required in the case of an assignment in connection with the sale or transfer of all or substantially all the party's assets related to the business covered hereby, provided that the assigning party gives the non-assigning party written notice of such an assignment as soon as reasonably practicable following the close of the transaction giving rise to the assignment. Following any assignment permitted hereunder, the assignee shall have the same rights and obligations as the assignor and shall agree in writing to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(17) Term and Termination

- (a) Term. This Agreement shall take effect on the Effective Date and shall begin with a pilot period which shall last until thirty (30) days after Tua provides written notice of its desire to end the pilot ("Pilot Period"). During the Pilot Period, either Party may terminate this Agreement upon fifteen (15) Business Days' advance written notice to the other Party. No later than fourteen (14) days prior to the expiration of the Pilot Period, the Parties shall meet to determine whether any provisions of this Agreement should be amended. In the event it has not yet been terminated, following the expiration date of the Pilot Period ("Initial Term Start Date"), this Agreement shall automatically be extended and continue for a term of one (1) year from the Initial Term Start Date (“Initial Term”). Following the expiration of the Initial Term, this Agreement shall renew for successive additional terms of one (1) year each (each a “Renewal Term”), upon TUA’s written notification to the Merchant of its intent to renew no less than sixty (60) days prior to the end of the Initial Term or any Renewal Term (together, the “Term”).

- (b) Termination without Cause. After the Pilot Period, either party may terminate this Agreement (or any one or more Order Forms) without cause and without need for judicial or administrative action, award or resolution upon providing at least ninety (90) days' written notice to the other party.
- (c) Termination with Cause. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, either party may terminate this Agreement (or any one or more Order Forms) for a material breach by the other party that is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice by the non-breaching party or immediately upon notice of termination in the event of a material breach that by its nature cannot be remedied within thirty (30) days. - (e) Obligations Upon Termination. Termination will not release either party from financial obligations owed to the other party for services previously delivered or payments owed prior to termination, and the parties shall cooperate with each other to complete all outstanding obligations to Customers in a mutually agreed fashion. Further, upon termination of this Agreement, but subject to any continuation that is warranted by a transition period agreed upon by the parties in writing:
 - (i) All licenses granted by TUA will terminate and all rights shall revert to TUA. Licenses granted in this Agreement will extend to any Services for which Customer transactions have been accepted and for which Services will be delivered post-termination and for all Services that Merchant is in process of performing, except where termination is by TUA for Merchant’s uncured nonpayment.

(ii) Each party will immediately destroy or return to the other party, and upon request, certify such destruction of, all of the other's materials, documentation, data, and Confidential Information, including all related materials that were derived from such materials, documentation, data, and Confidential Information.

(iii) Each party shall immediately cease to represent itself as a partner of the other and cease its use of any of the other party's Marks. Such other party's name, logo and any other proprietary information related to this Agreement and Services will be removed immediately from each party's website, e-mail signature, marketing and promotional materials, offices and demonstration labs.

(f) Survival. No termination of this Agreement will release either party from any payment or other obligations owed to the other, or affect any rights or liabilities of either party with respect to any breach of this Agreement. Sections 8, 10, 12, 13, 14 and 17 shall survive termination of this Agreement until the obligations of those sections are completed.

18. Insurance

Such insurance shall be maintained with reputable and solvent insurance companies having, where available, an A.M. Best's insurance rating of A-VII or better or a comparable financial rating from a reputable rating bureau.

No later than the Effective Date, and on an annual basis thereafter, each party shall provide to the other party a certificate of insurance evidencing that each of them has procured and is maintaining insurance policy or policies conforming to the above requirements.

19. Notices

All notices or other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given if sent via electronic mail: (a) by Merchant to Care@tuafinancial.com (b) by TUA, to the electronic mail address submitted by Merchant on the most current Order Form between the parties, with a copy to [insert TUA's lawyers] for notices of breach, indemnification, or termination. Notices shall be deemed received one (1) Business Day after being sent by electronic mail.

20. Waiver

The failure of any party to enforce any of the terms and conditions of the Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of that party's right thereafter to enforce each and every term and condition of this Agreement.

21. Entire Agreement, Amendment, and Severability

This Agreement, including the Exhibits and all applicable Order Forms, constitutes the entire understanding and contract between the parties and supersedes all prior agreements (including any prior agreement entered into between the parties), understandings, arrangements, commitments or representations, oral or written, between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original instrument, but all of which shall constitute one and the same agreement. The terms and conditions of this Agreement will further supersede all pre-printed terms and conditions contained on any purchase order or other business form submitted by Merchant to TUA, or any terms of service or “shrink-wrap” and similar license agreements that may be contained within the Services or delivered as part of the TUA IP, from the Effective Date forward. TUA may amend or modify this Agreement at any time upon thirty (30) days advance notice to Merchant. Submission by Merchant of any transactions after such thirty (30) day notice period constitutes acceptance of the modified or amended terms as if set forth herein, whether or not Merchant has signed an amendment or acknowledgment of the new terms. In addition, TUA may amend, modify, and change this Agreement at any time without notice in the event of Lender demand or as required pursuant to applicable law.. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.
