SCIENTIFIC EXHIBITS

1. Exhibits are suggested at 40 feet maximum. This is the length of the tables in each row. If an exhibit longer than 40 feet is entered, the exhibitor must agree that the exhibit can go around a corner or from one row to another.
2. An exhibit consisting of several cases will be judged as one entry. Each exhibit is limited to entry in one scientific category. Each exhibit may be eligible for the National Museum of Natural History Award, the Conchologists of America Award, the DuPont Trophy, and the Florida Museum of Natural History Award. To be in competition for them, you must specify that you are eligible for the major awards. Check the rules to be sure.
3. Each exhibitor may enter as many categories as desired provided a separate exhibit is submitted for each category. We recommend that the same exhibit used in previous years not be entered again without visible changes, unless the exhibit is eligible for the Florida Museum Award. We like to present a new show to the public each year.
4. Do not put your name or picture in or on any exhibit. If a name/picture is on any exhibit before judging, the exhibit may be disqualified. Name cards will be provided by the show committee after judging is completed.

5. No shells may be removed or added to an exhibit after judging.
6. The eligibility committee reserves the right to refuse entry to any exhibit or to change an exhibit to another category, if in their opinion; it does not belong in the category in which it was entered.
7. A small star must be placed on the label of each self-collected shell in any category, other than #4 or #10, to be eligible for self-collected Shell of the Show. If all the shells in an individual case are self-collected, then a small sign must be placed in the case saying all are self-collected. Each case with eligible shells must indicate such with either stars or a sign.
8. Exhibitors must furnish attractive, secure display cases for their exhibits. See sizes under eligibility. Bring all supplies that you need when setting up your exhibit (Scissors, Screwdriver, Tape, Pens, Paper Towels, etc.).

ARTISTIC EXHIBITS

9. Artistic exhibitors and any other exhibitors must provide their own easels.
10. Artistic exhibits are limited to 2 entries per category. All exhibits will be displayed on a tabletop unless the exhibit chairman is notified in advance.

GENERAL RULES:

11. There shall be no sale or advertisement for sale of specimen shells or artistic exhibits on the floor of the show. All sales will be confined to the concession space leased to the dealers.
12. The St. Petersburg Shell Club and Suncoast Conchologists or the owners of the exhibit hall will not be responsible for damage or loss to any exhibit.
13. Exhibits may not be removed from the show before 3:00 PM on Saturday. All exhibitors must be present at 3:00 PM on Saturday to remove their exhibits. Neither the Shell Clubs nor the Recreation Center will be liable for exhibits left after 6 PM.

NOTE: ALL SHELL SHOW RULES WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED INCLUDING LENGTH, HEIGHT, AND WIDTH OF EXHIBIT.

CONCHOLOGISTS OF AMERICA AWARD:

- The COA award is presented by the judges to the exhibit of mollusks which the judges feel shows overall excellence and best advances the interest in shells and shell collecting.
- An exhibit by a shell dealer or professional malacologist is not eligible for the COA trophy unless the exhibit is made up of entirely self-collected shells.
- The trophy must be given to blue-ribbon winning exhibits only.
- It shall not be given to an exhibit receiving another major award at the same show during the same year. However, it may be given to an exhibit that has won another major award at a previous shell show anywhere and/or any previous year. (Major award is defined as The Museum of Natural History, COA, American Museum of Natural History, or the Dupont Award.)

- It may not be awarded twice to the same exhibit, but there is no limit to the number of times an exhibitor may win with different exhibits.

DUPONT TROPHY

- This award is presented by the Delaware Museum of Natural History for the most outstanding exhibit of the shell show. Exhibit must be the property of an amateur collector or group, which in the opinion of the judges, will be the most inspiring and instructive for its educational value, scientific accuracy, and attractiveness.
- It may only be awarded to a blue-ribbon winner and may not be awarded to any exhibit which has previously won it in this or any other shell show, or any commercial dealer or professional malacologist.

FLORIDA MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY PLATINUM AWARD

- This premium trophy, presented by the Florida Museum of Natural History in Gainesville, CAN ONLY BE awarded to an exhibit that has previously won a major award such as the COA Award, Dupont Trophy, National Museum of Natural History Award, or the American Museum of Natural History Award.
