Support in the form of idle/underutilized site containers

Hello,

I hope you are doing well.

We are initiating a non-profit educational project called “Vishwakarma Ashram – Sthapatya Pandhari” for children of construction workers. In the initial phase, we are looking for builder / contractor support in the form of idle / underutilized site containers (for temporary classrooms and hostels for about 2–3 years).

If you have a reference or contact of any builder / developer / project head / contractor who may be open to supporting such an initiative, I would truly appreciate an introduction or contact share.

This is a purely social, non-commercial initiative, and even an initial reference would help us move forward.

Thank you in advance for your support.
