HH Prince Regent Olympia Gellini

A luminary in the world of cultural exchange, Dr. Gellini's narrative takes a compelling turn with the founding of the Falcon International Film Festival in Dubai. This endeavor, fueled by the encouragement of industry leaders and the support of influential figures like Khalaf Ahmad Al Habtoor, became a catalyst for promoting Middle Eastern traditional cultures on the global stage.

The narrative gains momentum as Dr. Gellini observes the flourishing presence of Chinese people and businesses in Dubai during his 2023 visit. This observation sparks a brilliant idea – forging a sister city partnership between Dubai and Qingdao. This visionary initiative aims to introduce Arabic culture and products to China, marking a new chapter in cross-cultural collaboration.

At the heart of Dr. Gellini's contributions lies the World Film Institute, the Olympia Awards, and the Family Film Awards. As a staunch advocate of family-oriented entertainment, he has set standards in the film industry, promoting wholesome films and establishing a film rating system.

The Olympia Awards City of Light project, a groundbreaking endeavor overseen by the World Film Institute, emerges as a monumental venture. Spanning 400 acres, it is set to be the largest cultural arts project of the century. Dr. Gellini envisions this project as a beacon of cultural diplomacy, strengthening ties between the Middle East and China and creating a vibrant tapestry of artistic expressions from nations worldwide.

The collaborative efforts behind the Olympia Awards City of Light project involve governments, television networks, and film studios from the United States and China. With offices planned across various Chinese provinces and international collaborations, the project aims to create a global network of arts colleges and eco-friendly smart cities.

The Olympia Arts Awards, a grand event hosted every three years in a different country, becomes a platform for global unity through art. By showcasing the best artistic talent from around the world, it fosters connections, collaboration, and cultural exchange on an international scale.

Dr. Olympia Gellini's vision transcends the boundaries of nations, fostering global unity, mutual respect, and cultural appreciation. The Olympia Awards City of Light project stands as a testament to his commitment to creating a harmonious world where art and culture serve as bridges to connect people from diverse backgrounds. As we eagerly anticipate the realization of this remarkable initiative, Dr. Gellini's contributions continue to inspire and shape the landscape of cultural arts and education on a global scale.

Lenin Raghuvanshi

Renowned activist Lenin Raghuvanshi, hailing from a privileged Hindu background, has emerged as a stalwart combatant against India's deeply entrenched caste system. Infused with a legacy of social activism, his early encounters with caste discrimination fueled a fervent commitment to societal transformation.

Graduating in Ayurveda, Modern Medicine, and Surgery in 1994, Raghuvanshi initiated his activism by leading the UN Youth Organisation in Uttar Pradesh at 23. Recognizing the pervasive influence of casteism, he co-founded the People's Vigilance Committee on Human Rights in 1996, dedicated to amplifying the voices of the oppressed.

In 1999, he established Jan Mitra Nyas, fostering education in villages near Varanasi. His involvement in Voice of People's executive council in 2001 emphasized children's rights. Despite threats, he exposed bonded labor in 2002, introducing the 'Jan Mitra Gaon' project in 2004 to combat child labor.

A key player in the 2005 People's SAARC convention, Raghuvanshi advocates for a neo-Dalit movement, aiming to dismantle the caste system. His accolades include the 2021 Global Pluralism Award and recognition as a top Indian Human Rights Activist by India Times.

Beyond activism, Raghuvanshi contributes to publications and authored "Justice, Liberty, Equality: Dalits in Independent India." Mrs. Lakshmi Ravishankar

Mrs. Lakshmi Ravishankar's two-decade commitment to empowering individuals with disabilities is exemplified through her dedicated volunteer work with various organizations. In 2019, she founded the Inclusion Beyond Abilities Trust (IBAT), a transformative initiative focused on enhancing the lives of those with disabilities. IBAT not only provides improved access to wellness and recreational activities but also nurtures career aspirations through capabilities building and personality enrichment programs.

Even during the challenging times of lockdown in 2020, Mrs. Ravishankar and IBAT adapted by hosting wellness activities online, rejuvenating confidence for persons with disabilities and their families. Her noteworthy contributions during the pandemic earned her recognition with a COVID award.

IBAT's response to the dire circumstances faced by individuals with disabilities during the lockdown was commendable. By mobilizing support from government agencies and compassionate individuals, the trust ensured the daily needs of those in need were met. Mrs. Ravishankar expressed gratitude to state government officials for their cooperation and support.

Venturing into audiovisual storytelling, IBAT collaborated on a groundbreaking full-length audio film, co-produced with a visually impaired individual. Directed and scored by the visually impaired artist, this project showcased the talents of 40 individuals with disabilities—a pioneering achievement in cinema.

In essence, IBAT serves as a beacon of inclusion, tirelessly breaking barriers and creating opportunities for individuals with disabilities to thrive in all aspects of life.
