Message from The Master

Brethren,

First, I welcome our newest Master Masons, David Beaver, Austin Westbury, Richard Thompson and Ray Wright. If you think that the one-day conferral is all we have for you, let me assure you that you will be hearing from me regarding helping our lodge with several community and internal events I believe you can help us accomplish. You can expect lodge members to ask you about where you may fit into Chickahominy Lodge activities.

Second, your master traveled in Germany from April 19th through May 17th on family business. Yes, family events took your Master away from the One Day Conferral, the May Stated Meeting, and the Official Visit by Most Worshipful Donald Ellis Strehle. Your Master deeply regrets that had been the case. The trip was planned well in advance. Past Masters Night was scheduled for the May Stated Meeting, and Bro. Chris Wathen, Senior Warden, was informed that, in my absence, the operation of the Lodge would be in his capable hands. I really thought by traveling so early in the year, I would be present for those important district events.

While out of the country, your Master was in contact with our Lodge Secretary, RW Joe Rose, Lodge Instructor of Work, Wor. Bob Cosby, and our District Education Officer, Wor. Greg Johnson. I was informed that the April 29th One Day Conferral effort went extremely well and we congratulate Wor. Bob Cosby for coordinating the degree work with RW Kent Brinkley and the DDGM of District 14. Wor. Greg Johnson is working with Wor. Bob Cosby and the Mentors of our newest members to implement and execute the instruction the new members must receive.

We will be hosting the Williamsburg Area Meals on Wheels at our June Stated Meeting. They are a vital charitable group that has been helping people in the Williamsburg area for nearly 50 years.

At our Stated Meeting on July 11th, we will be hosting Most Worshipful Donald Ellis Strehle, Grand Master of Masons in Virginia. Your Master met with the Grand Master during the Grand Chapter Meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star in Harrisonburg and discussed the appropriate dress for receiving the Grand Master. He informed me that we could meet in Lodge Shirts and he would wear a coat and tie. We must inform him of our chosen attire so he won't show up over dressed. So, Lodge members will wear Lodge Shirts for the July Stated Meeting.

Also, we need volunteers to man the canteen for the June 15th blood drive at Stone House Presbyterian Church. The number of volunteers has been declining lately and we must support this very worthy charity with Lodge member time and effort. Contact RW Cleve Wright to inform him you will help man the canteen.

Fraternally,
E. Miles Riley, Jr.
Wor. Master
