Message from The Master

Brethren,

It is with great pleasure that I get to serve as master of the lodge and I truly grateful for the opportunity to serve you this year! March has come and gone and so has the first quarter of 2025. We have lots going on as a lodge and lots of opportunities to serve our community.

Another successful blood drive is in the books thanks to Cleve and many volunteers as well as our second bench finally installed by WATA in front of McLeans Grocery. Jack and the crew had a beautiful day to clean up our stretch of Route 60. We have lots on the schedule so check your calendar and join us for our stated meeting, old fashion country breakfast, degree work and weekly training, and lots more.

Brothers we need volunteers for stated meeting dinners. Please volunteer or join in with another brother to prepare or purchase dinner. We have many months available still.

Fraternally,
Sam Hay
Worshipful Master
