Message from The Master

Brethren,

Your master has attended the installation of officers at all of the lodges in the 57th Masonic District. On January 12th your Master joined with 7 members of our Lodge's Roadrunners and attended the stated meeting at West Point Lodge No. 238. This was the official visit of Right Worshipful William Sirman, DDGM for the 11th Masonic District. All seven lodges in District 11 were represented by at least one member. Unlike our meeting in January, the business meeting was quickly completed and RW Sirman's presentation was informative and entertaining after which he closed the lodge.

Our January meeting was very busy. We reinvested four officers with the badge of their office, opened a Lodge of Sorrow, recognized Worshipful Joe Langdale, Master of Williamsburg Lodge No. 6, and Wor. Brian Cooke Master of St. Tammany No 5 and Monitor No. 197, welcomed Worshipful Joe Grist to membership in Chickahominy Lodge No. 286 and read, for the first time, two petitions for the degrees and one application for membership. We heard from our new Lodge Education Officer, Bro. Eric Stauffer, who explained the definition and role of our "sideliners." Your Master gave a speech on membership and mentoring.

Our February meeting will introduce Right Worshipful Mark Kenton Brinkley, District Deputy Grand Master to the membership of Chickahominy Lodge No. 286. He will give a talk on the mission of the Grand Lodge of Virginia for the coming year.

Attending our stated meetings is the only real way for you to know how your lodge members are involved in our community and how you may find your comfortable place in our organization. Get involved and be a Mason and not just a member. I remind you that mentorship only ends when the fire of curiosity is ignited, and the engine of research propels the Mason to discover how he can become a better Mason and thereby a better man.

Fraternally,
E. Miles Riley, Jr.
Wor. Master
