

CONTENTS

Part One: Fact-finding
1	What Is Learning? 7
2	What Are Facts? 9
3	Having “a Built-in, Shock Proof Crap detector” 11 (Ernest Hemingway’s Formula for Success)
4	The Attitudes and Values of Skilled Fact-finders 13
5	Application of Higher Levels of Thinking (Bloom’s Taxonomy) 15 Critical Thinking Teasers 16-17
6	Fact-finding Resources. How to spot fake news (seven steps) 19 Primary Source Collection 22
7	Distinguishing Primary and Secondary Sources 24 Essay #1 Thumbs Down! 25 Essay #2 The Newspaper War That Should Never Have Happened 29 Essay #3 Lusitania’s Secret Cargo Revealed At Last. 31 Essay #4 What the Japanese Teach Today About the Pearl Harbor Event 34
8	Recognizing Propaganda Devices 37
Part Two: Bringing Back Science
9	What Is Science? 43 (First we had philosophers, then scientists)
10	The Scientific Method Process of Thinking and Questioning. 44 (5 step Learning Wheel)
11	“It Was Obvious” by Hans Christian Osterlund 46 Chart: Life Eras, Periods, Epochs on Earth 48
12	“Window on the Great Sweep of Prehistory and History”. 49
13	Collect, Describe, and Explaining & The 3’Rs 55 Citing Sources Styles 61 Applying the ‘The 3 Rs’ 62 Cultural Iceberg 64 Identifying words that are more Subjective in nature 63 Using the Carol Myers Writing an Essay Organization Outline 65
14	Mastering Numbers, Graphs, Charts, & Algorithms 66 The Metric System 68
15	The Critical Thinker’s Dictionary (Abridged Edition, 2017) 69 Visiting the Zooarchaeology / Forensics Lab 70
16	Three Samplers of Science-based, Critical Thinking Endeavors. 71 Scientific Study No. 1 “What Is Earth’s Circumference?” by Eratosthenes Scientific Study No. 2 “Notion of Nails at CA-TEH-2105H by Richard Burrill Scientific Study No. 3 “Which Boat Can Float?” by Colby Privett Certificate of Award 73
	Bibliography 75