The Giormani London Study Tour

World-class talent, leading educational institutions, iconic architecture and its diverse cultural influences make London one of the leading design capitals of the world. With its blend of history and modernity, this cultural melting pot continually inspires.

A large, colorful globe sculpture is the central focus, positioned in front of a red brick building with blue-framed windows. The globe shows a map of the world with various countries highlighted in different colors like yellow, green, and purple. Labels for 'BRAZIL', 'BOLIVIA', 'PERU', 'CHILE', 'ARGENTINA', 'URUGUAY', 'PARAGUAY', 'VENEZUELA', 'COLOMBIA', 'ECUADOR', 'GUAYANA FRANCESA', 'GUYANA', 'SURINAME', 'GUATEMALA', 'EL SALVADOR', 'NICARAGUA', 'COSTA RICA', 'PANAMA', 'CUBA', 'HAITI', 'DOMINICANA', 'JAMAICA', 'BAHAMAS', 'CAYMANAS', 'CUBA', 'MEXICO', 'NORTH ATLANTIC OCEAN', and 'SOUTH PACIFIC OCEAN' are visible. The globe is partially obscured by large white and green text.

See first-hand: Get inspired

Specially chosen venues, exhibitions and artefacts will demonstrate the diverse culturally influenced art and design, both contemporary and historical, in the UK. Students will learn how to absorb, appreciate and evaluate the rich visual arts that surround them.

A top-down view of a person's hands drawing a still life on a clipboard. The drawing is done with colored pencils and shows a cup and saucer. The person is using a pencil to draw the cup. The clipboard is on a wooden desk. There are other items on the desk: a glass of water, a red pencil sharpener, and some other pencils.

Get hands-on: Experimentation

Study the historical evolution of furniture and product design through styling, textiles, joinery and manufacture, investigating and comparing how and why different techniques have evolved and the processes involved.

3. Real-world insights with industry mentors

Students will gain professional insight and reflection with explanation of real-world design, commerce, culture and technology as well as industry expectations and career guidance.

Examining and comparing artworks / designs by different creators

Evidencing sustained experimentation, exploration, manipulation and refinement of a variety of art-making/design activities

Unique student experiences

Build confidence outside of academic surroundings for life
beyond education

- Student immersion to document thoughts and evidence in their journals, exploring the diversity of the arts across time, place and cultures
- Promote lifelong engagement and enjoyment with the arts, becoming informed, reflective and critical practitioners

Unique student experiences

An opportunity for students to nurture an ability to take care of themselves

- Encouraged to take responsibility for preparing their own meals
- Build upon student confidence outside of academics through life-skills
