

HCR Employees Give Generously This Holiday Season

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Dec. 22, 2015 — HCR Home Care employees came together during this holiday season to donate toys, clothing, and money to children and families in need.

Their generosity across the company's footprint in New York state included:

- Batavia - donated $650 worth of gift cards for a local family in need
- Canastota - donated more than 30 toys for Share a Caring Christmas, which helps brighten the holiday season for needy families
- Cobleskill - donated $650 in credit card gift cards for a local family in need
- Cortland County - held a coat drive for the Rural Services in Cincinnatus, which serves people in the rural areas of the county
- Delhi - collected more than 60 toys for Toys for Tots
- Hudson Falls - collected toys for Toys for Tots
- Plattsburgh - collected toys for the Clinton County Christmas Bureau, a nonprofit that provides Christmas for low-income families
- Rochester - collected four large boxes of gifts for Bivona Child Advocacy Center, a nonprofit that delivers child abuse response, healing and prevention
