

HCR Home Care Names James Clark CFO

HCR Home Care Names James Clark CFO

ROCHESTER, N.Y., March 15, 2016 — HCR Home Care announced today the appointment of James W. Clark, Ed.D, as chief financial officer.

Clark brings more than 26 years of financial leadership to HCR, including experience in controls and compliance, strategic management, decision-making, and organizational and process development. Most recently, Clark served as senior vice president and CFO at St. John's of Rochester. He also held leadership positions at Pepsico, Frito-Lay and Bausch + Lomb, where he served as director of the finance supply chain and worldwide product planning.

James Clark earned a doctorate degree in Executive Leadership from St. John Fisher College, an MBA from Clarkson University, and a bachelor's degree in Economics from SUNY Geneseo.

He resides in Victor, N.Y.

posted on March 15, 2016