

Karen Bonomo Named a Director of Nursing at HCR Home Care

Karen M. Bonomo, Rn, BSN, has joined HCR Home Care as a director of nursing in the company's licensed home care services agency division.

In this role, Bonomo supervises agency professional clinical and paraprofessional services to facilitate and assure the delivery of high quality patient care. She is responsible for the clinical quality and excellence of patient care, program compliance and operational management of the licensed home care services agency division.

Karen Bonomo previously served as a reimbursement specialist at Jewish Senior Life and as assistant director of patient services at Sibley Nursing Personnel Services Inc./Lifetime Care. She also held positions at Traditions in Caring, St. Ann's Community and Highlands of Brighton.

Karen Bonomo earned her bachelor's degree from Empire State College and her nursing diploma from the Arnot Ogden Medical School of Nursing. She resides in Hilton, N.Y.

posted on December 4, 2015