

Frequently Asked Questions

Am I required to have a Wedding Coordinator?

- It is not required, but we highly recommend hiring one and can recommend great Day Of coordinators.

Can I use my own vendors for catering, music, and photography?

- We have a list of preferred vendors, however, you may contact and contract vendors from our list or yours. All vendors will require approval by Hidden Vista Ranch prior to the event.

Can I bring in my own alcohol?

- All alcohol must be served by a Texas Alcohol and Beverage Commission (TABC) licensed bartender. The bar must close at least one (1) hour before the end of the scheduled event.

Can I bring and display my own decorations?

- Yes, as long as there is no damage made to the venue. Certain restrictions apply (e.g. adhesive materials, nails, tacks, staples, confetti, rice, balloons, glitter, bird seed, candles and/or open flames).

Can we have the rehearsal the day before on the property?

- Yes, provided there are no other functions on the property during the rehearsal time. Fees may apply for any time longer than an hour.

Do you require a contract and a down payment to secure your date?

- Yes, we require a completed contract, liability release, special vent insurance, and a 50% deposit.

Is there sound equipment or visual equipment available?

- Yes, for an additional fee, we offer an audio package.

Are there accommodations nearby?

- Yes, we have two units available on site and there are hotels and Air B&B/VRBOs in the area. Please see our Accommodations list for more info.
