

February 10, 2022: Vol. 2, #3: Along the Way

Sketch for Life; Baby Turtle

As we travel through this beautiful world, we sometimes may see in the big picture that this is a life journey opening before us, no matter where we find ourselves along the way.

We may be searching, looking within for meaning, or actively participating in discovering our purpose in life. This is sacred work.

I think this is what inspired the painting for today, titled Life; Baby Turtle.**
