

KENDRA GIESBRECHT

ABOUT ME

My name is Kendra Giesbrecht, a 19-year-old alpine ski racer from St. Albert, Alberta. I've been racing for 13 years and recently made my debut with the Canadian Alpine Ski Team – Development Team. This season, I was proud to represent Canada at the FIS Alpine World Junior Ski Championships, race in my first Europa Cup, and be crowned this season's Giant Slalom (GS) National Champion. Skiing has always been my passion, and these milestones reflect the dedication I bring to the mountain every day. I'm currently ranked among the top racers in the country, and my goal is clear: to compete on the World Cup circuit. With every turn and race, I'm getting closer — and I'm grateful for the journey.

MY GOALS

2025/26 RACE SEASON

- Qualify to represent Canada at the World Junior Alpine Ski Championships
- Podium performance on the Nor-Am Cup circuit
- Nor-Am Cup Overall Title
- Improve my international FIS ranking and points

LONG TERM

- Qualify for the Canadian National Women's Ski Team
- Compete on the World Cup circuit
- Qualify to compete in the Olympics
- Qualify to compete at the World Championships

WHAT IS THE CAST D-TEAM

The CAST D-Team is a new tier in the Canadian National Ski Team structure for Canada's top U21 and some U24 athletes with podium potential. The team's goal is to elevate and accelerate the development of these younger athletes to ensure succession at the World Cup and Olympic level. In the 2025-26 season, these athletes will be focusing on competing at the Nor-Am and Europa Cup level and World Junior Championships.

WHY YOUR SUPPORT

"Simply put, without development today there are no champions tomorrow". - Kelly VanderBeek (former ACA Team Member & Olympian)

WHERE DOES THE MONEY GO?

Breakdown of expenses

ACA TEAM FEES ($50,000.00)

- world class coaching
- travel support
- technician, physio, nutritionist
- training & race fees

EQUIPMENT
($10,000.00)

PERSONAL
TRAINING
($8,000.00)

TOTAL COSTS 2025/26: $68,000.00

Supporting elite athletes comes at a significant cost! While there are some avenues of subsidies, the remaining team fees, equipment costs and personal training costs that you see above are my sole responsibility. Any sponsorship or donations will go directly to off-set these expenses.

"3 out of 5 athletes are in debt and have a negative net income. Their expenses to train and compete for Canada are greater than their income from sponsorship, bursaries, prize money and work." CAN Fund, <https://canadianathletesnow.ca/can-fund-stats/>
