

SCIENCE TRAVEL
ADVENTURES

ICELAND: FIRE AND ICE ADVENTURE

Day 1:

Head to airport for overnight flight to Iceland.

Day 2:

Arrive in Iceland early in the morning and meet your guide and driver. Start the day with a local breakfast and then take a long drive down the south coast of Iceland to our first hotel. If conditions are right, keep a lookout for Northern Lights.

Day 3:

Explore some ice caves and take a hike on a glacier. Visit Glacier Lagoon and the ocean beach nearby to see giant floating chunks of glacier.

Day 4:

Hike the largest canyon in Iceland and see some amazing waterfalls. Visit some other stunning natural destinations before checking into our hotel in Vik. Dinner is on your own tonight

Day 5:

We'll visit another amazing ice cave today with an off road adventure. After lunch attend a lava demonstration show with real lava. Stop by the black sand beaches to see the turbulent Atlantic and basalt rock formations. Visit another stunning waterfall.

Day 6:

Today's adventure will take us on a super jeep tour of Þórsmörk, named for the god of thunder. In the valley, we'll have a BBQ lunch. We'll continue our super jeep tour before returning to the hotel.

Day 7:

Tour the Golden Circle. Along the way, visit Geysir Hot Spring and a national park. Enjoy lunch in an amazing greenhouse restaurant and see a demonstration with their horses. We'll head to Reykjavik and check into our hotel.

Day 8:

Drive to the famous Blue Lagoon hot springs for a morning swim in the geothermal waters. After lunch, tour the Reykjanes peninsula and visit the bridge between two continents where the North American and European plates connect.

Day 9:

Enjoy some morning sites in town as time permits and then depart for the airport to return home. Lunch and dinner on your own today.

Day 10 and 11--Optional Extension:

Add two extra nights in Reykjavik and we can add optional daily activities. Activities might include: dogsledding, horse riding, snowmobiling, museum visits, cooking classes, other regional tours and more. Lunches and dinners are on your own these days.