MEDICINE & INDUSTRY

Changing Paradigms in Health Law, Policy & Ethics

Sunday September 28 & Monday September 29 2003

The International Academy of Law and Mental Health and Health Law Program of the Faculty of Law, University of Sydney, are pleased to invite you to participate in a special two-day symposium on the topic of Medicine and Industry. A distinguished gathering of Australian and international scholars from across several disciplines will present papers and engage in discussion on the legal and ethical implications of the commercialisation of medicine and research. The Academy is also pleased to honour The Hon. Justice Michael D. Kirby of the High Court of Australia as the recipient of this year's Prix Yves Pélicier and who will deliver the Pélicier Address.

The Academy is grateful for the support of the National Health and Medical Research Council and Centre for Applied Philosophy and Public Ethics, Charles Sturt University, towards the realisation of this symposium, and also for the collegial assistance of the Monash University Centre for Human Bioethics and Australian Institute of Health. Law and Ethics.

The Symposium on Medicine and Industry will be held at the Sofitel Wentworth Sydney, at 61 Phillip Street, Sydney, NSW.

This symposium will precede the 28th International Congress on Law and Mental Health to be held in Sydney (Sept 30 - Oct.3, 2003). Please consult the Sydney Congress web site for further details:

www.ialmh.org/Sydney2003/main.htm

We are also pleased to offer a Continuing Legal Education Seminar convened by the Health Law Program of the Faculty of Law at the University of Sydney, on 'Causation and Evidence in Health Litigation', on Wed. Oct. 1, 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.

- Danuta Mendelson, School of Law, Deakin University New Paradigms in the Australian Law of Causation
- Fiona Tito, Enduring Solutions, Canberra The Causes of Adverse Events: Root Cause Analysis and its Implications
- David Healy, University of Wales College of Medicine Legal Scientism - Cause and Effect in Adverse Effects Litigation
