Dear Future Partner,

On behalf of Selle Rodeo Productions and Tom Horn Days Cowboy Rendezvous, we'd like to take this opportunity to make you aware of our upcoming event to be held August 11 – 13, 2023. Since August 2020, Tom Horn Days has taken place on a beautiful working ranch north of Laramie, WY in the Tom Horn country of Bosler, WY. Tom Horn Days has been gaining interest through our social media platforms and website. Attendance at our 2nd annual event doubled from the first year with attendees from 20 states and continued to grow last year with additional attendance and interest from national and international magazine and media outlets. We expect attendance this year will surpass the approximately 1100 attendees of last year. Our Facebook page alone has over 5400 followers and #TomHornDays on TikTok has over 1.1 million views. Social media platforms, along with a website, continue to grow our exposure so we'd encourage you to join us there as well. This event looks forward to benefiting the surrounding communities with revenue generated from attendees.

Our unique Tom Horn Days Cowboy Rendezvous is a celebration of the cowboy way of life and rich heritage of the Laramie Plains. This three-day event will kick off on Friday with a Ranch Rodeo followed by a concert featuring amazing western singers under the spacious Wyoming sky and a second concert on Saturday evening. Saturday and Sunday are filled with competitions where contestants from around the region compete in old time events such as pasture bronc riding, pasture team roping, muley roping and stray gathering which we refer to as "Real Working Cowboy/Cowgirl" contests. A Sunday morning Cowboy Church service revives our spiritual meaning of a western way of life. Tom Horn Days allows our ranching families, residents of Wyoming along with spectators from across the United States to UNITE and enjoy our western ranching traditions. It truly feels like a "Rendezvous" of the old west!!

We understand you strive to maintain good business relations with local consumers and giving back to these communities. We sincerely believe that our attendance during this event will bring significant revenue into our economy and would like to share that with your business. We feel with our advertising options, you may find a level that best fits your needs this year.

In closing, please find our attached sponsorship options for your business. We look forward to earning your trust and confidence with our event. We'd cherish the opportunity for you and your business to grow with us and look forward to hearing from you.

Please visit our website at www.tomhorndays.com, Facebook page www.facebook.com/TomHornDays or feel free to call with any questions you may have.

Kind Regards,
Rand Selle
