Rules of Decorum for Council Meetings

Rules of Decorum for the Governing Body

1. Members of the governing body will conduct themselves in a civil and courteous manner and tone.
2. Members of the governing body shall only speak to the matter currently under consideration by the Mayor and Council.
3. During presentations, discussion or debate, members of the governing body shall refrain from communicating among each other, giving attention and due respect for the speaker or council member addressing the body.
4. While a member of the governing body has the floor, members of council and members of the public shall not interrupt the speaker unless the speaker is ruled out of order.

Members violating any rules of decorum may be ruled out of order by the Mayor. An individual violating the rules of decorum may be removed from the meeting in accordance with Roberts Rules of Order.

Rules of Decorum for the Public

1. Each speaker will be allotted 3 minutes to speak during the public comment period.
2. Each speaker will direct his or her comments to the members of the governing body and not to any individual member or other individual present unless a question is directed to him or her by a member of the governing body.
3. Each speaker will refrain from personal attacks, foul or abusive language and will maintain a civil and courteous manner and tone.
4. Members of the public will respect the rights of others and will not create noise or other disturbances that will disrupt or disturb the meeting.

Individuals violating any of the rules of decorum may be ruled out of order by the Mayor. An individual violating the rules of decorum may be removed from the meeting at the direction of the Mayor.
