

Privacy Policy

Heart of The Raven takes your privacy very seriously and we will always protect your personal data. We always comply with UK GDPR.

When you place an order, or contact us we will only use your personal information such as address, email address or phone number for business purposes. We do not store any personal data. This information is kept on our secure website order or contact section and is not made available to anyone else.

We do not have access to any payment details such as credit or debit cards. All payments are dealt with securely by Stipe, Sumup or Paypal.

We are obliged to keep business records such as orders for 7 years for tax purposes however this is kept securely at all times.

