- B. The term “Disciplinary Action” is substituted for and replaces the term “Court Martial” wherever that term appears in the Bylaws or any other official documents of this organization.

Section 802. Offenses.

Members who commit offenses recognized by the Military Order of the Cootie of the United States shall be subject to disciplinary action and may be assessed the penalties provided in this Article. Offenses recognized by the Military Order of the Cootie of the United States are:

- A. Disloyalty to the United States of America.
- B. Failure to fulfill the obligations taken at time of application and admission or the obligations taken upon installation to any office.
- C. False representation or deliberate concealment concerning eligibility to membership or office or knowingly acquiescing in or permitting ineligible persons to become members.
- D. Disobedience or disregard of the provisions of the Congressional Charter, Bylaws (at all levels), Manual of Procedure, Ritual, General Orders or any other laws and usages of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States or any order of the Commander-in-Chief or Military Order of the Cootie of the United States or any order of the Supreme Commander.
- E. Conviction of or entering a guilty or no contest plea to a felony or to a misdemeanor or ordinance involving moral turpitude in any court in the United States.

When charges and specifications have been preferred against a member holding office, the Grand Commander or Supreme Commander may suspend the accused member from office pending a final decision on a disciplinary action. Suspensions require notifying the member in writing at his/her last known address. The Supreme Commander or Grand Commander are not required to suspend the accused member in every instance but may use their discretion in determining whether or not such suspension is necessary and appropriate.

Section 805. Prima Facie Case.

The term "prima facie" is a legal term to describe something that is legally sufficient to establish a fact or a case unless disproved. Oftentimes, if an accused member has been convicted by a court of law of a felony, misdemeanor or even an ordinance violation, that member will not be available for or amenable to a disciplinary action. Nonetheless, a disciplinary action would be appropriate. Under this section, it would not be necessary for the prosecutor to prove again what the civil authorities have already proven and established in the criminal trial. To establish guilt at the Disciplinary Hearing, all the prosecutor needs to do is present a certified copy of the court record of conviction. The burden then shifts to the accused to show that the record is not a true and correct record.

Section 806. Penalties.

Penalties for offenses recognized by the Military Order of the Cootie of the United States shall be:

- A. Termination of membership in the Military Order of the Cootie of the United States.
- B. Suspension from membership for a specified period of time.
- C. Suspension of certain rights or privileges of membership for a specified period of time.
- D. Remove from office.
- E. Reprimand.

If no Disciplinary Hearing is requested, such penalties shall be imposed in the manner prescribed in Section 803 of these Bylaws. If a Disciplinary Hearing is held, the Disciplinary Hearing Panel shall impose such penalties. Penalties imposed shall be subject to review on appeal.

ARTICLE IX

All amendments adopted at any Supreme Scratch according to the provisions of this section, shall take effect and supersede all previous amendments, programs and policies, upon approval by the parent organization, the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. PREFACE

There is need to increase the membership in the Military Order of the Cootie --

There is a hesitancy on the part of many good Veteran of Foreign War members to subject themselves to strenuous initiations carried on by some Pup Tents ---

It is believed that greater emphasis should be placed on the humanitarian principles of the Organization rather than upon the humiliating aspects of the Third Degree work ---

THEREFORE, it is in this spirit that:

- (1) Except for the obligations, signs and passwords portions of this Ritual, its application to individual persons is optional with the Supreme Commander, Grand Commanders, Pup Tent Seam Squirrels, Installing or Instituting Officers concerned, based on the best interest of the individuals and/or the Military Order of the Cootie, and
- (2) Except for the INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS, no portion of this Ritual, including any initiation or degree work, shall be conducted in public.

FOREWARD

The Military Order of the Cootie of the United States was primarily organized as a fun organization, with no valid reason to duplicate the solemn work of our parent organization.

Our objectives --- Clean fun, harmless frolic, good comradeship and a desire to increase our circle of friends in the VFW and the M.O.C., services to the VFW, the widows and orphans in our National Home, the hospital program of "Keep 'Em Smilin' in Beds of White." At all times, neat appearance, conduct becoming a Cootie and gentleperson, while in public and at VFW and M.O.C. activities.

Stay on the beam, heed good advice, keep our organization clean.

To help gain this goal is the purpose of this Ritual. Read and follow it carefully.

Our motto: "Honor – Loyalty – Perseverance – and Industry."
"The Honor Degree of the Veterans of Foreign Wars"

INSTRUCTIONS TO SEAM SQUIRRELS FOR CONDUCTING

THE BUSINESS OF OPENING AND CLOSING SCRATCHES

1. The Ritual should be followed as closely as possible. All Pup Tent Shavetails should familiarize themselves with their parts so they do not have to read it, but commit part to memory.
2. Each Shavetail should be so familiar with the part of the initiation work to not have to read it but simply use the Ritual as a guide.
3. Rules of order for the VFW should be reversed. To vote in the affirmative a Cootie should say “no”, to vote in the negative a Cootie should say “yes”. Instead of making a motion, they should rise and say, “I second the motion...” A Cootie who intends to second the motion should rise and say, “I make that motion.” To grant a member the privilege of the floor, the Seam Squirrel should declare a member out of order, and tell them to shoot. To make a member sit down and take the floor away from them, the Seam Squirrel should declare them in order and tell them to sit down. For a member to receive the privilege of the floor, they should rise, standing upright with their left hand behind their back, right forearm horizontal, the height of their chin, and give the Cootie Salute by scratching their chin while saying, “Cootie No. So and So is speaking.” The Seam Squirrel should say, “Cootie No. So and So is out of order. Shoot.”
4. On opening the Scratch, after the giving of the sign and password of the First Degree, all dues cards shall be verified by the Hide Gimlet and Blanket Bum. Third Degree members only should be entitled to the Third Degree password.
5. Pup Tent Shavetails shall hold a Scratch once every month and plan the Pup Tent activities for the next month or specified period; and give this information to all members of the Pup Tent. This will build up membership and keep the members active in the Pup Tent.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR

CUSTODIANS OF THE CRUMMY DUFFEL BAG (C.C.D.B.)

1. Receive all funds for the Pup Tent and enter the correct amount in the CCDB’s ledger, giving a Dues Card to members as a receipt for dues paid. Insist upon seeing a VFW Dues Card paid to date before accepting Cootie dues.
2. Pay all bills approved by the membership and with the signature of the Seam Squirrel.
3. To make monthly report of Per Capita Tax on all members who have paid dues for the full year.
4. Immediately after an Atom receives their First Degree, the CCDB shall forward the initiation fee in accordance with the provisions of Article I, Section 108, Supreme

- By-Laws. The CCDBs shall discharge their duties in accordance with the provisions of Article III, Section 314, Supreme By-Laws. Pup Tents under the jurisdiction of a Grand Pup Tent will forward an additional fifty (50) cents to the Grand Pup Tent as the Grand Pup Tent initiation fee. Upon receipt of the initiation fee, the Supreme Quartermaster will forward one Cootie hat with the State name only on it, one pair of Tassels and one Lapel Insignia, to the Pup Tent CCDB, to be delivered to each new member, only when they have received their Cootie Degree (or the Third Degree). The Pup Tent CCDB shall issue only a Dues Card to the new members on the date of their initiation.
5. Any time when any questions pertaining to the CCDB's work or duties are not thoroughly clear, Pup Tent CCDBs are admonished to get the information by writing directly to the Supreme Quartermaster.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE HUNGRY COOTIE

1. The Hungry Cootie of the Pup Tent shall keep the books and files properly prepared.
2. The Hungry Cootie should have at all times:
 - a. The By-Laws and Ritual, and all Rules and Regulations of the M.O.C.
 - b. A file of the original applications of every member of the Pup Tent
 - c. The Minutes of all Scratches in a proper manner, noting that same have been approved, corrected, etc.
 - d. A file of all orders of the Pup Tent Seam Squirrel, Bulletins and Special Notices as well as meeting notices. All lawful orders and bulletins as issued by the Grand and Supreme Commanders shall be kept in proper order for reference.
 - e. A letter file for all communications and orders.
 - f. A roll of deceased members of the Pup Tent with the date of death and location of burial plot.
 - g. A book wherein shall be listed the names of those who have been rejected for membership, reason for same and the date.
3. They shall sign all vouchers for expenditures, presenting same to the Seam Squirrel and Tight Wads for signature before turning them over to the CCDB for payment.
4. They shall notify all applications in writing to appear for initiation.
5. They shall prepare all reports and returns as may be required by the Seam Squirrel of the Pup Tent, Grand and Supreme Commander, and seeing that a copy is forwarded to the proper persons. These reports must be made out and properly signed and forwarded with a check for per capita tax from the CCDB on the first day of the quarters beginning January, April, July and October.
6. The Hungry Cootie should, when any questions arise pertaining to the office or the duties, contact the superior officers as to routine to follow.
7. The Hungry Cootie shall keep all bits of news information and see that they are forwarded to the Historians of the Grand and Supreme Pup Tents, thus aiding the Keepers of the Lousy Records to carry out their duties.
8. All records will be turned over to the next appointed Hungry Cootie.

OPENING OF THE SCRATCH INCUBATION

S.S.: Nits will seek their seams and give their attention to the business of the evening. Nits will display the sign of incubation. (Sign of Incubation – One pant leg rolled up.)

S.S.: (When Ready) Blanket Bum, what are the first symptoms of an Atom?

B.B.: (rising) An Itching to become a Nit.

S.S.: Hide Gimlet, what is a Nit?

H.G.: (rising) A Comrade who is closer than a Brother.

S.S.: Provost Marshal, what steps must be taken by an Atom before one becomes a Nit?

P.M.: (rising) Backward steps.

S.S.: Jimmy Legs, what is the first great duty of all true Nits?

J.L.: (rising) To increase and Multiply.

S.S.: Nits, let us all attend to that important duty and cause some Atom to take these backward steps at our next Scratch. Nits will prepare to prove they are entitled to be present at this Scratch.

(Nits will form in double rank, or fours if necessary, in the center of the room, facing away from the S.S., forming on B.B. and H.G., who will station themselves six feet in front of and facing away from S.S. When all are in line...)

S.S.: Show me!

(B.B. and H.G. face about and give the Nit sign after which they cause the rest of the column to face about by twos, give the Nit sign and password and showing a current dues card, after which they take their seats. When a have been seated....)

(B.B. and H.G. advance to the front of the S. S station and Salute.)

B.B.: We find all Cooties present lousy and therefore entitled to remain.

S.S.: That is lousy. Resume your stations.

S.S. : Being satisfied that all present are crummy, and that we are all therefore on an equal footing, I, the most crummy of all for the time being, do declare this Scratch open for business, and each and every Nit who has anything to offer for the good of the order or the members thereof shall be duly bound to present it for consideration. We will now proceed with the regular order of business. (Two raps of the gavel – All rise.)

S.S.: Provost Marshal, you will retire with the Delousing Crew and advance the Colors.

(Colors are placed.)

OPENING PRAYER

S.P.: O Thou Great and Eternal God, We are reminded there are times of sorrow and of joy, times when we should be quiet and times we should be heard. We would pray Thy blessing on our beloved military order.

In these days of great concern, help us to assert ourselves when we should and to accomplish our purposes without offense to our fellow veterans. Give us the insight we pray Thee to have all concern for sick comrades not only by material giving but also showing concern by praying for them and their dependents.

As we look to the days ahead, may we by our faithfulness to the VFW advance its cause and programs and by so doing also advance our cause. May we serve our beloved order and our comrades in such a way that we will receive eternal life as our reward, so help me God.

Amen.

S.S.: Cooties, Attention! Salute the Colors----Present Arms (pause)
Order, Arms!

S.S.: Cooties, you will join me in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America. Present Arms!

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

S.S.: Order Arms! (One rap of the gavel – All but S.S. may be seated.)

S.S.: Hungry Cootie, you will call the roll of Shavetails. (H.C. rises, P.M. rises, both give the Cootie Salute; H.C. calls the roll; P.M. answers present for those absent and absent for those present; when through the H.C. sits down.)

P.M.: Seam Squirrel, the roll has been called, absentees have been noted. (P.M. remains standing.)

S.S.: That is lousy. You will now direct to my station visitors of note. (Visitors are conducted to and seated to right of S.S. station.)

S.S.: Hungry Cootie, are there any applications for membership to this Crummy Fraternity?

(Reading of Applications for Membership.)

(If no Atoms) H.C.: Seam Squirrel, there are no Atoms wailing at the outer seams; we can proceed with our regular Scratch.

(If there are Atoms) H.C.: Seam Squirrel, there are _____ Atom(s) wailing at our outer seams, seeking admission and a right to partake of our miseries and pleasures.

S.S.: Hungry Cootie, that is lousy, you will read the pleas of those who desire to join our Crummy Fraternity.

(Applications are read, and when through):

S.S.: Cooties, you have heard the pleas. Will those who are willing to vouch for these Atoms now report?

(Investigating Committee reports. When through):

S.S.: That is lousy. Cooties, you will now express your desires in secret. (Refer to Balloting, Article I, Section 105, Supreme By-Laws.)

S.S.: Provost Marshal, you will prepare the Crummy Duffel Cage (ballot box) and place it in the proper location. (Ballot box is placed on S.S. station.)

S.S.: Cooties, you will now vote on the Atoms' pleas for admission to the crummy seams of this Pup Tent, remembering that the white elects and black rejects. Vote for the best interest of this Pup Tent. Line up and do your duty.

(When the voting is complete):

S.S.: Provost Marshal, you will convey this Crummy Cage to the B.B. for inspection. (B.B. glances at the coins. If too many copper, reports the Atoms are innocent and rejected. Voting is then repeated. If silver is the majority, B.B. reports:)

B.B.: Seam Squirrel, I find the Atoms lousy. Provost Marshal, you will return the Crummy Cage to the Custodian of the Crummy Duffel Bag for safe keeping.

S.S.: Cooties, by your actions you have expressed a desire to have the following Atoms (names) join our ranks.

S.S.: Custodian of the Crummy Duffel Bag, have the Atoms parted with enough duffel to your satisfaction? (all fees paid)

C.C.D.B.: Seam Squirrel, that has been fully taken care of. They are welcome.

S.S.: Hungry Cootie, you will place the names of these Atoms on our Honor Roll (records) and notify them to present themselves at the proper time to receive the applications of Sulphur Ointment of Happiness.

S.S.: Before we go into the Degree Work, all members should understand that this Ritual is a combination of the former Long and Short Form Rituals. The Degrees given by the Pup Tents are at the discretion of the Pup Tents.

INITIATION – FIRST DEGREE

INCUBATION

S.S.: (Raps for order) Inconsequential Nits, we are about to have the supreme pleasure of conferring the Nit degree on such innocent Atoms as are now wailing at the outer seams of this Pup Tent.

(Note: The P.M. is to remain in the room to preserve the order.)

S.S.: Shirt Reader, you will obtain from the Hungry Cootie the names of the Atoms who have been duly qualified by the membership of this Pup Tent for admission to these seams. Retire to the outer seams. Assemble and escort to the Sky Pilot's station the Atoms-in-waiting so that they may receive his wise counsel.

S.S.: Prepare the Atoms to receive the Short-Form First Degree initiation.

(Note: The Shirt Reader will blindfold the Atoms and line them up facing away from the door. When ready, knocks loudly.)

J.L.: Who knocks there?

S.R.: Shirt Reader with innocent Atoms who have been accepted for membership in this Crummy Fraternity.

J.L.: Enter Shirt Reader and proceed to our wise counselor, the Sky Pilot.

(Shirt Reader backward marches the Atoms to the Sky Pilot's station and halts.)

S.R.: Oh mighty Sky Pilot, I bring before you these innocent Atoms who are on their first journey through the seams of this Pup Tent. They humbly plea for wisdom.

S.P.: Most innocent Atoms, the time is rapidly approaching when you will be transformed from an Atom to a Nit. I hope the transformation will be of benefit to you by increasing your circle of friends and teaching you that a smile and pleasant word is always worthwhile. We seek to teach you industry and perserverance, to show you that there are others less fortunate than you, those that lay in beds of white and those that have lost their loved ones and are not in our National Home. We seek to remind you that HONOR and LOYALTY will remove many obstacles from your path in your pursuit of happiness and peace. I urge you to be guided by our namesake, the Cootie. He is never known to start something he did not finish. He is a hound for punishment and never knows when he is licked. He is never alone, but always surrounded by friends. Misfortune never daunts him and while he may think the world owes him a living, he knows that the surest way to get it is to go out and hustle for himself.

S.P.: Shirt Reader, you will guide the Atoms to the Hide Gimlet. They have proven themselves lousy.

(Shirt Reader backward marches them to the H.G., faces them away from the H.G. station, removes blindfolds, and when ready):

S.R.: Hide Gimlet, before you stand innocent Atoms who have received instruction from the Sky Pilot. They are here for further instructions.

H.G.: Innocent Atoms, you have been blessed with wise counsel from the Sky Pilot. It is now my duty to inform you that we are not going to have a lots of fun with you. We do not intend to heap all sorts of indignities upon you to make you look as ridiculous as we possibly can before all those assembled here,

H.G.: Shirt Reader, you will guide these innocent Atoms to the Seam Squirrel for advice as to what is expected of the inhabitants of the seams of this Pup Tent.

(Atoms a backward marched to the S.S. Station.)

S.R.: Seam Squirrel, these innocent Atoms have backed into this Scratch according to custom. They have been counseled by the Sky Pilot. They have also been advised by the H.G. They are ready to receive the pledge of secrecy.

S.S.: Shirt Reader, that is lousy. You may resume your station.

S.S.: Innocent Atoms, before proceeding further along the seams of this Pup Tent it will be necessary for you to take an obligation of secrecy which, I admonish you, is not to be taken frivolously. If you feel you cannot take such an obligation that will bind your tongue in silence forever, let it be known now. Hearing no objections, you will raise your right hand and repeat after me. Pronounce you name when I pronounce mine.

I _____(NAME)_____ in the presence of the officers – and members of this Pup Tent do sincerely promise – upon my honor as a comrade – and a Veteran of Foreign Wars – that I will forever keep secret – any and all the events – that transpire in any Pup Tent – of the Military Order of the Cootie – that I will not make known – to anyone outside the confines of a Pup Tent of this Order – any secret work oral or written. I furthermore promise – that I will not pollute the seams – of this Pup Tent – by inviting for membership – any Atom whom I know is unworthy. All this I promise to uphold as a comrade – and should my affiliations with this Order – cease at any time – I will keep inviolate this obligation – as though I had remained a member thereof – I hope to be despised – as a loathsome, crawling reptile – among my fellow beings.

(Lower hands)

S.S.: Provost Marshal, you will now instruct these Atoms in the full work unwritten and the signs and password of this degree.

(Note: Atoms a given all the signs and password of this degree, also the following):

(1) Sign of Incubation – One pant leg rolled up

(2) Nit Sign – Stand erect, scratch groin with both hands

(3) Nit Password – S.O.L.

(4) Nit at play – Lay on the floor, face down, hands over head, one leg erect

1. Rules of the order for the VFW will be reversed. To vote in the affirmative a Cootie should say “no”, to vote in the negative a Cootie should say “yes”. Instead of making a motion, they should rise and say, “I second the motion...” A Cootie who intends to second the motion should rise and say. “I make that motion.” To grant a member the privilege of the floor, the Seam Squirrel should declare a member out of order, and tell them to shoot. To make a member sit down and take the floor away from them, the Seam Squirrel should declare them in order and tell them to sit down. For a member to receive the privilege of the floor, they should rise, standing upright with their left hand behind their back, right forearm horizontal, the height of their chin, and give the Cootie Salute by scratching their chin while saying, “Cootie No. So and So is speaking.” The Seam Squirrel should say, “Cootie No. So and So is out of order. Shoot.”
2. On opening the Scratch, after the giving of the sign and password of the First Degree, all dues cards shall be verified by the Hide Gimlet and Blanket Bum. Third Degree members only shall be entitled to the Third Degree password.
3. Pup Tent Shavetails shall hold a Scratch once every month and plan the Pup Tent activities for the next month or specified period; and give this information to all members of the Pup Tent. This will build up membership and keep the members active in the Pup Tent.

P.M.: Seam Squirrel, the Atoms are now ready to be called Nits.

S.S.: Provost Marshal, that is lousy. You may resume your station.

S.S.: Inconsequential Nits, you have this day been transformed from an Atom to a Nit, which is the first step in your journey to that sublime position enjoyed by a Cootie. There are two more degrees that you must take before becoming a full-fledged Cootie, with it the age of peace and happiness. As soon as you have made suitable progress in conducting yourselves as a Nit, you will be entitled to make application to the next higher section of this Order, the degree of Grayback. You must remember that your membership in this Order depends upon your active membership in our parent organization. Reinstatement in the VFW does not necessarily mean your reinstatement in the M.O.C. You must present a paid-up receipt card in the VFW with a card in the Nit degree before you can gain admission to a Scratch of this Order. It is with my best wishes that you may become a real member of this great fun loving Order, that you will be an asset rather than a liability. I now declare a recess of five minutes to that you may be properly welcomed to the seams of this Pup Tent.

(After Recess)

(Proceed with regular order of business.)

INITIATION – SECOND DEGREE

TRANSFORMATION

S.S.: (When Ready) We are about to enjoy the supreme pleasure of the evening, the conferring of the second degree, or Transformation, upon such unsuspecting Nits as may be outside our door. Provost Marshal, ascertain if there are any Nits scratching at the seams of this Pup Tent.

(Provost Marshal advances to the center of the floor, salutes the Seam Squirrel and retires to perform their duties.)

S.S.: The Blanket Bum will display the proper regalia. Graybacks will display the sign of Transformation.

P.M.: Seam Squirrel, I find ___ Nits waiting to be transformed from a Nit to a Grayback. (Retires to P.M. station after saluting the Seam Squirrel.)

S.S.: Hungry Cootie, have these pests received the degree of Nit in true form?

H.C.: Seam Squirrel, they have.

S.S.: Custodian of the Crummy Duffel Bag, have you frisked them for the needful francs and pesos?

C.C.D.B.: Seam Squirrel, I have.

S.S.: Shirt Reader, you will retire and prepare the Nits in waiting for the degree of Grayback.

(Shirt reader advances to the center of floor, salutes and retires.)

S.R.: (In the anteroom) Inconsequential Nits, you seek advancement to our hunting grounds. If you are willing to proceed, okay, but if not, withdraw. The lessons and knowledge that await you are many. Are you willing to proceed?

Nits: We are.

(Shirt Reader knocks at the door.)

J.L.: Who scratches there?

S.R.: The Shirt Reader of this Pup Tent with _____ inconsequential Nits who wish to learn the information given in this 2nd Degree of Transformation.

J.L.: (to Shirt Reader) Do they know what awaits them?

S.R.: They do not. They will learn as they advance.

J.L.: Good, advance them.

(Shirt Reader enters with the Nits, marching around the hall, lights dimmed. Reaching the station of the Provost Marshal, the Provost Marshal will halt them.)

P.M.: Nits, halt!

S.R.: (to Nits) Nits, halt!

P.M.: Shirt Reader, who are these insignificant beings you have in charge?

S.R.: They are Nits from the outside who desire admission to our seams, there to be deloused and cleansed so that they may walk upright on bended knees through the fertile hunting grounds that have been prepared for all deserving Species Peduculi.

P.M.: Proceed, watch well your charge, that none may fall by the wayside and thereby throw discord in our ranks through their unworthiness. Take these Nits to the station of the Hide Gimlet who will examine them as to their fitness as members of this Pup Tent.

S.R.: (to Nits) Forward, March.

S.R.: Hide Gimlet, I present to you these Nits found loitering in the pastures about our feeding grounds. Their life has been one of pleasure seeking while we are devoting our time to work.

H.G.: Inconsequential Nits, you have been found loitering while our Brothers and Sisters are hard at labor. Your life has been filled only with a desire for pleasure while ours is one of sacrifice. You will soon be transformed from a Nit to a Grayback and your lives from one of pleasure seeking to one of labor, and I trust that the Transformation may be complete. Shirt Reader, conduct these Nits to the Blanket Bum for further examination.

S.R.: (to Nits) Forward, March.

(Shirt Reader marches Nits to the station of the Blanket Bum.)

S.R.: Blanket Bum, by direction of the Hide Gimlet, I present these Nits to you for your examination.

B.B.: Inconsequential Nits, the time is rapidly approaching when these pleasures you have been seeking will be no more. It is well that as youths you should spend your time in play that your minds and your bodies might become better fitted for your future work. Just as the Atom by nature's process blossoms forth into a Nit, so will you Nits take another step toward maturity by being transformed into a Grayback. The process is slow, the better to fit you for the succeeding degree and to maintain that only the fittest survive to reach that sublime degree of a Cootie.

B.B.: Shirt Reader, guard well these Nits as they enter the portals of our sublime order. You will escort these Nits to the station of the Seam Squirrel.

(Shirt Reader marches Nits to the station of the Seam Squirrel.)

S.R.: Seam Squirrel, these Nits who appear before you ask for knowledge as they journey through this life to the happy hunting grounds of all Cooties.

S.S.: Inconsequential Nits, the hour of your transformation has come. Your days of pleasure are no more. You are about to reach another milestone of that journey upon which you are all bound. Many times you will be called upon for the last ounce of strength and who knows, but even that may fail as many of our namesakes have failed in the past. It is fitting that I should remind you at this time of some of the things that will be expected of you when you approach the altar of Hi Highness, the Great Blue Louse. Let me caution you that this order has no room for parasites. Every member to enjoy the freedom of our seams must produce something worthwhile, otherwise you will find yourselves wandering alone without friends or hopes. If you are unable to do your bit, we do not want you, and the sooner you make yourself scarce, the better we will like it. But if your purposes are noble, you will find willing hands and hearts ready to assist you. It will be necessary before you are advised of the secrets of our labors that you will assume an obligation of secrecy. Are you willing to assume such an obligation?

Nits: We are.

S.S.: Shirt Reader, form the Nits in a semicircle in front of this station.

S.S.: (when ready) You will each raise your right hand and repeat after me. I (your name) – in the presence of the members of this Pup Tent – and upon my honor as a comrade – hereby solemnly promise – that I will not make known – any of the secrets of this degree – to any person or persons – whomsoever – who is not a member – in good standing – of a Pup Tent – and not entitled to the same. I furthermore promise – that I will not repeat – any of the vents – that transpire – in a Pup Tent – to any person whomsoever – not entitled to the same – under no less penalty – than that of being degraded – and expelled from this degree – and deprived of the associations – of my loyal comrades.

(Down hands.)

S.S.: Shirt Reader, you will conduct these Nits to the station of the Hide Gimlet.

(Shirt Reader marches Nits to the station of the Hide Gimlet.)

H.G.: (to Shirt Reader) Listen Grayback.

S.R.: Nits, halt!

H.G.: Inconsequential Nits, you did good work as Nits and as a result you seek advancement to the rank of Grayback. Shirt Reader, you will conduct these Nits to the station of the Blanket Bum for further instruction.

(Shirt Reader marches Nits to the station of the Blanket Bum.)

B.B.: (to Shirt Reader) Listen Grayback.

S.R.: Nits, halt!

B.B.: What seekest thou?

One Nit: A shortcut to more fertile hunting grounds.

B.B.: Inconsequential Nits, think not to escape the road from a Nit to that of Grayback. The degree of Grayback is not so easily attained, nor its hunting grounds so easily found. The Grayback has a mighty work to perform in the world, a task that requires courage, perseverance and strength. A Nit must stick to the hardest seams for a Nit is closer than a Brother. He knows no relaxation for a Nit is busier than a bee. We hope that you will have all these qualities so necessary to attain this degree. Shirt Reader, you will conduct these Nits to the anteroom to await further work of this degree.

(Shirt Reader and Provost Marshal take the Nits to the anteroom.)

Hall now will be prepared for the Second Section of this Degree. All necessary equipment for this ritualistic degree will be set up at once. Remote control of the microphone will be adjusted to the speakers' voices. Cooties to be stationed in places to avoid and chance of getting wire pulled from outlets. One to be at the amplifier to see that it does not distort and proper tone is assured.

(Shirt Reader and Provost Marshal with Nits in the anteroom.)

- (1) Sign of transformation – Both pant legs rolled up.
- (2) Grayback sign – Stand erect, both hands scratching breasts.
- (3) Grayback password – A.W.O.L.
- (4) Grayback at play – Lie on floor, face down, hands over head, both legs erect.

INITIATION – THIRD DEGREE

AGGRAVATION

S.S.: (Raps for order and when ready) We are about to enjoy the Supreme Pleasure of the day, the conferring of the HONOR DEGREE of Cootie upon such unsuspecting Graybacks, who attend this scratch.

(Note: No regalia is displayed as all room available is needed for the movement of the Delousing Crew.)

S.S.: All Graybacks who have not received the Supreme Ointment of Happiness will now retire to the outer seams of this Pup Tent. Shirt Reader, you will obtain from the Hungry Nit the names of the Graybacks who are qualified to receive the COOTIE Degree and retire with the Graybacks and perform the duties of your office.

(Note: The Provost Marshal is to remain in the room to help preserve order.)

S.S.: (when ready) All true Graybacks will not display the sign of Aggravation, line up in columns of fours facing the B.B. station, and when called on, prove by this sign and password your right to roam the seams of this Pup Tent as a Cootie. (B.B. and H.G. take of password.)

S.S.: (when ready) First four, show me.

(Note: Small fine for those who do not properly execute the sign or fail to give the password properly.)

S.S.: (when through) Being satisfied that all are lousy and crummy, we will now proceed with the application of the Supreme Ointment of Happiness.

S.S.: Provost Marshal, you will notify the Shirt Reader to conduct the Graybacks, by way of the Hide Gimlet's station, to my station for the Cootie Cuss.

P.M.: Shirt Reader, by order of the Seam Squirrel, you are to conduct the Graybacks to his station for the solemn Cootie Cuss.

(Shirt Reader knocks on door.)

J.L.: Who knocks there?

S.R.: Shirt Reader with Graybacks.

J.L.: That is lousy. Proceed.

S.R.: Graybacks, forward march.

(Shirt Reader marches Graybacks past the Sky Pilot's and Seam Squirrel stations on their way to the Hide Gimlet and halts. All remain still and quiet in the ranks and sidelines.)

H.G.: Graybacks, you are nearing your journey's end.

(Shirt Reader marches Graybacks to the B.B. station, halts and remains quiet.)

B.B.: Graybacks, you have traveled another milestone. Before you there lie Fertile Hunting Grounds. Do not despair, industry and perseverance have brought you closer to your goal. Proceed cautiously.

(Shirt Reader marches Graybacks to the Sky Pilot's station, halts and remains quiet.)

S.P.: Graybacks, you are another step closer to your goal. Oh, mighty

Great Blue Louse, grant that these defenseless vermin be spared for a lousy and useful life, so that they may bring before us more of the Specie Pediculi. Proceed with courage.

(Shirt Reader marches Graybacks to S.S. station and halts.)

S.R.: By your instructions I bring before you these Graybacks.

S.S.: Shirt Reader, that is lousy. Remain close by.

S.S.: Graybacks, you are about to receive the Supreme Sulphur Ointment of Happiness. Before proceeding further, you are required to take a solemn Cootie Cuss. Are you willing to abide by it?

Graybacks: I am.

S.S.: You will raise your left hand and repeat after me. Having made application for membership – in this Crummy Fraternity – and believing myself to be – dizzy enough to feel at home among these vermin – imbecile enough to be lonesome away from them – and insignificant enough so that no one cares – if I am clean or crummy – I do truthfully – oathfully – absolutely – and outrageously – promise and agree – to love and obey – any and all Specie Pediculi – who may hereafter – from any cause whatsoever – attach themselves to me – or my possessions. I will not use – nor allow others to use – more than two hands – at any time – for the purpose of annoying – irritating – or turning over – said affectionate Pediculi.

I furthermore promise – by the fangs and claws – of the Great Blue Louse – that I will set up a wail – unto high heaven – should I find any person – using hammer – hatchets – ice tongs – crowbars – can openers – marlin spikes – fish hooks – TNT or gas – upon the inhabitants of any Shirt Seam – unless the person using such toys – shall have been a member – of the Armed Forces of the United States – and of a lower rank – than a General.

And I furthermore promise – agree and bind myself – not to divulge – divest – repeat – shout – or sing – nor allow to leak – evaporate or spill – any of the signs – passwords – grips – creeps – shimmies – shakes or wiggles – of this Order – nor will I allow anyone – not a member of the Military Order of the Cootie – to partake of the Sulphur Ointment of Happiness – except in self defense.

And I do solemnly – and sincerely promise – to extend the hand of fellowship – to any and all comrades – whom I may meet and I will if possible – aid and assist – any such comrade – who may be in need of aid – and I shall regard it – as a privilege – rather than a duty – to be able to aid – Comrades less fortunate than I.

And may the seams of my shirt – be as barren – as the inside of a Shavetail’s head – and may the Sulphur Ointment of Happiness – which I am about to receive – shrivel up and disappear – like a month’s pay in a crap game – and may the maledictions – of the Great Blue Louse – descend upon me and cover me – as did the 62nd Article of War cover the soldier from the Cradle to the Grave – should I ever violate – shatter – bend – or break – this solemn Cuss – of the Cootie. Hands Down.

S.R.: (to S.S.) The Graybacks are now ready to receive the unwritten work of this Order.

S.S.: That is lousy. You and your assistant(s) may now resume your station.

S.S.: (to P.M.) You will instruct these would-be Cooties in the secret signs of this, the Third Degree.

SECRET SIGNS THIRD DEGREE

- (1) Sign of aggravation – Both pant legs rolled up, halfway to knees.
- (2) Cootie sign – Body erect, head bowed, both hands scratching in the hair of your head.
- (3) Cootie password – Given out annually by the Supreme Commander.
- (4) Cootie at play – Right arm up the back as far as possible and left arm down the back as far as possible, scratching vigorously with both hands.
- (5) Distress Signal – the words “Give me a dollar’s worth of blue ointment.”
- (6) Cootie Salute – Right forearm extended horizontally, the fingers scratching at chin.

(When Through)

P.M.: (to S.S.) I am happy to present to you these newly obligated Cooties.

S.S.: That is lousy. You may resume your station.

(The new Cooties are given a good cheer.)

SECRET WORK OF THE MILITARY ORDER OF THE COOTIE

S.S.: The Military Order of the Cootie is one of the most mysterious organizations ever produced and has many secret signs that mean much to its members but pass entirely unnoticed by the average person. The common salute of Cooties in public may be given in many ways by scratching various parts of the body, but the Cootie Salute as given in the Scratch is given in this manner: The right forearm extended horizontal and the fingertips scratching at the chin. In case you are in doubt as to whether a person is a Cootie or not, walk up to them and do this: Crack the fingernails of the right thumb and the second finger of the right hand in the hair of their head, and if they don't knock you down, they are a Cootie.

The signal of distress is given by word of mouth only and when you hear it given you may know instant relief is needed. The words are, "Give me a dollar's worth of blue ointment", and when you hear them spoken, you must extend your sympathy. The permanent password of the Cootie is a word with which you are all familiar and was chosen because it is impossible for you to forget it. Suppose you start to attend a Scratch and upon arriving at the door you cannot remember the password. What is the first thing that enters your mind? You say to yourself, "I'm S.O.L.", and that is the password.

There is one sign that is used only at the opening of the Scratch and is a most important one to remember, because should you attend a strange Pup Tent and not be able to give it you would be promptly thrown out on your ear. At the opening of the Scratch all present are formed in a line in the center of the room, facing the rear in columns of twos, and at the command “SHOW ME” , given by the Seam Squirrel, the rear two face about scratching the groin vigorously with both hands. You will approach the Hide Gimlet or Blanket Bum and communicate the password to them after which time you will be seated.

(Note for Seam Squirrel – The groin: where the thighs join the abdomen – the lowest part of the abdominal wall, near its junction with the thigh – NOT the reproductive organs.)

Cooties writing to another Cootie begin with “:Listen Cootie” and sign off “Your in L.O.T.C.S.” meaning “Love of the Crummy Shirt.”

You will now form the openings of the Scratch and show that you are able to give the sign of the Nit.

(B.B. and H.G. take their stations at the rear of the column.)

S.S.: SHOW ME!

The password will be changed annually and published in the program manual, in code, to be deciphered from the code of the M.O.C. Caution is urged to compel every Cootie to show their receipt card in the Pup Tent and the Veterans of Foreign Wars before giving them the password and none without a paid-up receipt card shall be admitted to any scratch.

You will be required to show a paid-up dues card in the VFW before the C.C.D.B. can receive your dues in this Pup Tent or the M.O.C.

CEREMONIAL

During the Ceremonial, an Altar shall be placed in the center of the room with the Flag and Bible on same in front of Seam Squirrel station.

First Degree – Display Old Shoe on Chair

Second Degree – Shoe and Shirt on Chair

Third Degree – Shoe, Shirt, and Cap on Chair

(After recess Seam Squirrel shall call meeting to order and conduct the scratch following the regular order of business.)

OPTIONAL RITUAL FOR THE SECOND DEGREE

P.M.: Listen, Nits, you are now about to face the ordeals of the second degree. What will take place is serious and to make any break in this section will result in tortures of many forms known only to the Cooties. It will be well to consider all things first and save all laughs for the end.

(Provost marshal knocking on the door.)

P.M.: (to Jimmy Legs) The Provost Marshal and the Shirt Reader with Nits who are ready to assume the obligation of this degree and desire admittance.

J.L.: Seam Squirrel, the Provost Marshal and Shirt Reader with Nits who are ready to receive the obligation of this degree.

S.S.: Jimmy Legs, have they a password?

J.L.: They have not, but are vouched for by the Provost Marshal and Shirt reader of this Pup Tent.

S.S.: Admit them, but instruct the Provost Marshal and Shirt Reader to admonish them that silence is demanded.

J.L.: Provost Marshal, the Seam Squirrel demands that silence be maintained by these Nits. Have they been so instructed?

P.M.: They have.

J.L.: You may enter with the Nits.

P.M.: Forward march to the station of the Sky Pilot. Nits, halt! Right/Left face.

P.M.: Listen Nits. You will listen to the words as spoken by this former comrade of ours, who has gone before, even as you and I shall go some day. Heed the words and remember that many are called, but few are chosen.

(Skull and crossed bones are resting on top of an amplifier or the station of the Sky Pilot and speaker concealed so as to not be visible. Skull and bones are painted with luminous paint.)

(Voice from Skull – remote control. The Poem of the Unknown Soldier is recited and emphasized.)

We are the Unknown Soldiers, Comrades,
And think we've got a right,
To ask some questions, man to man
Are the Comrades taken care of?
 Was their victory so sweet?
Is the big reward they promised
 Selling pencils on the street?
Did they really win the freedom
 The battled to achieve?
Do they still respect the Battle Stars
 Above an empty sleeve?
Does the Gold Star in the window
 Now mean anything at all?
We wonder how our old girl feels
 When they hear a bugle call?
And remember the little kiddies
 Whose Dads fell in the fray?
Do they have a helping hand
 To guide them on their way?
We wonder if the profiteers
 Have satisfied their greed?
We wonder if the soldier's mother
 Ever is in need?
We wonder if the Kings
 Who planned it all are satisfied?
They played their game of checkers
 And countless millions died.
Oh, we'd like to see their faces
 When they reach the devil's door,
But even down in hell,
 There is no torture such as war.
We are the Unknown Soldiers,
 And maybe we died in vain.
But if we were alive and our country called,
 We'd do it all over again.

(Silence)

P.M.: Nits, left/right face, forward march, slow.

(Reply to the Unknown Soldier's voice by remote control through another hidden speaker in another section of the hall. The poem, A Comrade Speaks to the Unknown Soldiers ".)

Listen, Buddies.

(At this part the Provost Marshall will halt the Nits): Nits, halt!

Listen, Buddies.

You've been over there a long while on the green slopes of Arlington.

What do you think of it all?

I remember the day they carried you, in a pageant of glory, to your final resting place.

Just as you came out of the Capitol, down the east steps,

A streak of red light broke through the clouds.

Old Glory covering you became an emblazoned emblem. Soldiers stood at attention. Bayonets glistened. Statesmen followed in your wake. A military band, forgetting the martial music that marched you off to war, now played a dirge.

From the Capitol to the amphitheater throngs lined the way. The President, his Cabinet, the Supreme Court, Senators and Representatives and Governors came to honor you.

Countrymen of every color and creed at the end of your journey,
Knelt in the purple hued soil. There were orations, and eulogies for you, Known so well, but still unknown. You dead, but yet living. America stood still. Foreign nations bestowed medals upon you.

Your mother was there, I saw her weeping. She thought of you as a little fellow, running around with a paper hat and wooden sword playing soldier. Your father was proud of the boy Who made the supreme sacrifice. Your sister's eyes filled with tears.

Your

brother stood beside me. That day will never be forgotten.

Many years have passed, and some of your Comrades with them –
Out on the hillside plots – row on row.
Autumn is in the air, your anniversary, we will get to thinking about
You and what happened since we parted at the portals.
Even though your war was meant to end wars – younger generations have since marched forth to battle – and become our comrades in arms – on the land – on the sea – in the air.
In your bivouac, you know better than I, a mere mortal stumbling around, what it's all about.
I have hope that in the whispering winds coming over the Potomac lush lands, there may be the sweet sound of your voices.
My buddies. If there's a message for me boys, send it through.
They are doing guard duty over you.

(A bugler will sound Taps in a low muffled tone, if possible, in an outside room.) I just heard Taps.

(The above is optional and may be used as desired.)

P.M.: Nits, forward march to the station of the Seam Squirrel.

(March to station of the S.S. forming the Nits in a semicircle facing the Altar with the Provost Marshal on one end and the Shirt Reader on the other. The Altar has the Flag and Bible, and is flanked on sides by two lighted candle sticks with colors of the Post or Pup Tent. The National Colors are posted in a stand to the right of the Altar.)

P.M.: Seam Squirrel, the Nits are ready.

(Seam Squirrel advances to the Altar.)

S.S.: Nits, you have done well so far, but there is one with more power than I who will judge if you are worthy or not. You are required to pledge yourself to the COOTIE CREED. Are you willing to accept this creed?

Nits: We are.

S.S.: It is well.

(S.S. steps to the right of the Altar.)

S.S.: Nits, you are in the presence of the Great Blue Louse.

(The Great Blue Louse will arise in position in the rear of the Seam Squirrel station and three flash bulbs will be set off one at a time, these to be one at each side and one in the center. The G.B.L. will advance to the Altar facing the Nits.)

G.B.L.: Nits, before you are advanced to the Grayback Degree, it is necessary that you pledge yourself to the Cootie Creed. AS a VFW Comrade it is assumed that you will. Are you ready to take this pledge?

Nits: We are.

(All present in the hall will rise.)

G.B.L.: Nits, behold the Starry Banner, emblem of the Nation you have served so well. Listen to the words as spoken by the Flag. (This is optional and may be used if desired maintaining strict silence. Voice by remote control speaks the following:)

THE FLAG SPEAKS

Born during the Nation's infancy, I have grown with it, my stars increasing in number as the country has grown in size; the domain over which I wave expanding until the sun on my flying folds now never sets.

Filled with significance are my colors of red, white and blue into which have been woven the strength and courage of American manhood, the love and loyalty of American womanhood.

Stirring are the stories of my Stars and Stripes.

I represent the Declaration of Independence.

I stand for the Constitution of the United States.

I reflect the wealth and grandeur of this great land of opportunity.

I signify the Law of the Land.

I tell the achievements and progress of the American people in arts and science, culture and literature, invention and commerce, transportation and industry.

I stand for peace and goodwill among the nations of the world.

I believe in tolerance.

I am the badge of the nation's greatness and the emblem of its destiny.

THREATEN ME AND MILLIONS WILL SPRING TO MY DEFENSE.

I AM THE AMERICAN FLAG.

(At these final words, all Cooties will raise their hands and point at the Flag. A pause of a few seconds will be effective.)

G.B.L.: You will raise your right hand in a horizontal position, place your left hand over your heart and repeat after me.

COOTIE CREED

I believe in the Flag of the United States of America,
Emblem of Trust, Equality and Freedom.
Born of loving hands in the Cradle of Liberty,
Baptized with the blood of our forefathers.
Consecrated to the cause of humanity.
And sustained by the mighty arms of her patriots.

G.B.L.: You may lower your hands.

G.B.L.: Seam Squirrel, you may proceed.

(G.B.L. retires to the station of the Seam Squirrel. Seam Squirrel takes a position in front of the Altar facing the Nits.)

S.S.: Provost Marshal, you will place the Nits in the Proper position to take the great Oath of Comradeship.

P.M.: Nits, you will form a V formation with the tip starting at the Altar.

S.S.: Nits, you will raise your right hand, the comrade in front will place their left hand on the Flag of Our Country, the rest will place their left hand on the shoulder of the comrade in front of them. Pronounce your name when called upon to do so and repeat after me.

(The VFW Obligation is given now.)

S.S.: Nits, you will lower your hands and resume your former position.

(Nits again form a semicircle. The Provost Marshal closes the Bible.)

S.S.: Great Blue Louse, do you think that these Nits are worthy to proceed?

G.B.L.: They are. Proceed. Provost Marshal, you will retire the colors.

(Provost Marshal takes the American standard to its former position to the right of the Seam Squirrel's station (if elevated) or to the S.S. left. He then resumes his former position.)

P.M.: Seam Squirrel, your orders have been obeyed.

S.S.: It is well.

S.S.: Nits, you will raise your right hands and repeat after me:

Having survived successfully – the ordeals of this crummy scratch – and fearing nothing – I cheerfully swear – that I will faithfully attend scratches – of this order – and that I will constantly seek out – those who can appreciate this degree – and I will invite them – into this crummy fraternity.

I furthermore willfully and oathfully swear – that I will myself – work industriously – busily – laboriously and relentlessly – every seam within sight – sound – touch – taste or smell.

I furthermore promise and swear – standing upright on bended knees – that I will never knowingly – tread upon the pastures – of any Grayback or in any way – unbeknown to him – attempt to deprive him – of his food or pleasures – that I might become fatter than he – thereby forcing him and his associates – to beg of his Brothers.

I furthermore promise – by the sincerity of a dog robber – that I will not borrow – beg – steal – swipe – cop or appropriate – any of the glory rightfully belonging – to a fellow member of this degree – thereby causing my popularity – to be increased – and additional laurels – placed upon my brow.

I furthermore promise and swear – never to reveal – to anyone – not entitled to receive it – any of the work – of this order – secret, written or oral – and may the seams of my shirt – be as barren as a church collection plate – should I ever whisper – elucidate or sound off – any of the work – of this Pup Tent – within or without.

And may my fangs – become as blunt as the back of a silver striped – Brazilian beetle – should I ever allow – any person – not a member of this degree – to obtain any secrets – of this – or any Pup Tent – through my own fault.

All this I promise and swear – as one true Grayback – can swear to another.

As you were.

S.S.: I now declare and proclaim each and every one of you a Grayback of this Pup Tent, and we shall have engrossed upon the seams of this Pup Tent your names in crimson hue.

S.S.: Shirt Reader, you will now instruct these newly made Graybacks in the secret work of this degree.

S.R.: Sign of transformation – Both pant legs rolled up.

Grayback sign – Stand erect, both hands scratching breasts.

Grayback password – A.W.O.L.

Grayback at play – Lie on floor, face down, hands over head, both legs erect.

S.R.: Seam Squirrel, your order have been obeyed and the Graybacks instructed.

(Seam Squirrel now resumes his station and declares a recess of five minutes to welcome the newly made Graybacks into the degree. The ritual will now be followed and all paraphernalia removed from the hall.)

INSTRUCTIONS

The equipment to be used is as follows. Some can be eliminated, but if used will be much more effective on the new candidates. Please note that it is possible for the Sky Pilot to take the part of the Unknown Soldier in this. The effect of the remote control has been noticed to produce many favorable comments.

One amplifier (power optional)

One microphone

Three speakers (two large, one small) of a magnetic type or that will work with the unit being used. One speaker is to be used at a time. If placed in unexpected locations, the effect is very noticeable.

Skull and Crossed Bones

Flag

Bible

Altar Cloth (optional)

Candle sticks for all nations

Two large candle holders (on the altar)

Candles for all holders

One flash bulb outfit of three positions

A pup tent at the station of the Seam Squirrel is very effective too and should have the name of the Pup Tent painted on its sides.

The grave form as used in the VFW Ritual could be used, but it is desirable to get away from any copying of the parent order. The replica of the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in plyboard with a speaker unit inside will be effective too.

There are at least seven important parts in this set up. A bugler can be very effective if used. It is up to the degree teams to work this any number of times, and it will prove to be greatly educational and interesting to all. The remote control is what has proved to be most interesting in this entire degree and can be directed by one person with all maintaining silence; P.M. and Jimmy Legs only speaking at the entry.

I.O.: Adjutant, have you satisfied yourself that all present are eligible according to the laws?

ADJ: I have.

I.O.: Comrades, you have expressed a desire to be enrolled in our ranks, but to be admitted to membership you will be required to take an obligation – one which will not interfere or conflict with any duty you owe your country, your family, or yourself. Are you willing to assume it?

COMRADES: We are.

I.O.: Hearing no objections, we will proceed. Comrades, will retire to the anteroom to await the conferring of the First Section of Incubation.

(Comrades are escorted out by the Officer of the Day.)

I.O.: Nits will display the sign of Incubation, line up in proper formation, and prove you are entitled to be present by giving the First Degree Password and Sign.

I.O.: Shirt Reader, accompanied by your assistants, will retire to the anteroom.

(Shirt Reader and Delousing Crew depart. Shirt Reader prepares and assembles the Atoms. Atoms are blindfolded, placed in double rank if there are more than eight, otherwise form a single rank.)

S.R.: Atoms, About Face! Place your hands on the shoulders of the Comrade in front of you and hold fast. (Shirt Reader knocks loudly at door.)

J.L.: Who scratches there?

S.R.: Shirt Reader with innocent Atoms who have been accepted for membership in this Crummy Fraternity.

J.L.: Enter Shirt Reader and proceed to our wise counselor, the Sky Pilot.

(Shirt Reader backward marches the Atoms to the Sky Pilot's station and halts.)

S.R.: Oh mighty Sky Pilot, I bring before you these innocent Atoms who are on their first journey through the seams of this Pup Tent. They humbly plea for wisdom.

S.P.: Most innocent Atoms, the time is rapidly approaching when you will be transformed from an Atom to a Nit. I hope the transformation will be of benefit to you by increasing your circle of friends and teaching you that a smile and pleasant word is always worthwhile. We seek to teach you industry and perserverance, to show you that there are others less fortunate than you, those that lay in beds of white and those that have lost their loved ones and are not in our National Home. We seek to remind you that HONOR and LOYALTY will remove many obstacles from your path in your pursuit of happiness and peace. I urge you to be guided by our namesake, the Cootie. He is never known to start something he did not finish. He is a hound for punishment and never knows when he is licked. He is never alone, but always surrounded by friends. Misfortune never daunts him and while he may think the world owes him a living, he knows that the surest way to get it is to go out and hustle for himself.

S.P.: Shirt Reader, you will guide the Atoms to the Hide Gimlet. They have proven themselves lousy.

S.R.: Atoms, Backwards March! (Shirt Reader backward marches them around the room to the H.G., faces them away from the H.G. station, removes blindfolds, and when ready):

H.G.: Innocent Atoms, you have been blessed with wise counsel from the Sky Pilot. It is now my duty to inform you that we are not going to have a lots of fun with you. We do not intend to heap all sorts of indignities upon you to make you look as ridiculous as we possibly can before all those assembled here,

H.G.: Shirt Reader, you will guide these innocent Atoms to the Blanket Bum.

S.R.: Atoms, Backwards March!. (Atoms are backward marched to the station of the B.B.)

B.B.: Most miserable Atoms. As ex-servicemen and women, you are familiar with the old Army game of reading your shirt, and in connection with this indoor sport, you have probably learned that it pays to be thorough in everything we may do.

B.B.: Shirt Reader, you will conduct the Atoms to the Instituting Officer.

S.R.: Atoms, Backwards March! (Atoms are marched back to the station of the Instituting Officer.)

I.O.: Most miserable Atoms! The time is almost at hand when you will be transformed from the Atom to a Nit. I hope the transformation will be of benefit to you by increasing your circle of friends and by teaching you that a smile and pleasant word is always worthwhile. We seek to teach you industry and perseverance, and surely no better example of these virtues may be found anywhere than shown by our universally known and respected namesake, the Cootie. Before proceeding further it will be necessary for you to take an obligation of secrecy. Are you willing to assume such an obligation? Hearing no objections, you will raise your right hand and repeat after me.

I (pronounce your name) in the presence of the officers --- and members of this organization --- do sincerely promise --- upon my honor as a comrade --- and a Veteran of Foreign Wars --- that I will forever keep secret --- any and all the events --- that transpire in any Pup Tent --- of the Military Order of the Cootie --- that I will not make known --- to anyone outside the confines of a Pup Tent of this Order --- any of the secret work oral or written --- of this organization. All this I promise --- and swear as a comrade --- and should my affiliations with this Order --- cease at any time --- I promise to keep inviolate this obligation --- as though I had remained a member thereof. (Lower hands)

I.O.: Miserable Atoms, you are now about to be offered the privilege of hearing and repeating the solemn oath of our creepy organization, the Cootie Cuss.

I.O.: Shirt Reader, in view of the excellent showing made by these Atoms, I direct you to place the sign of Incubation upon each and every one of them that they may be recognized wherever they may be.

S.R.: (When finished) Instituting Officer, your orders have been obeyed.

I.O.: You will repeat after me ----

Having made application for membership – in this Crummy Fraternity – I do hereby truthfully promise and agree – to love and obey – any and all Specie Pediculi – who may hereafter – from any cause whatsoever – attach themselves to me – and I do solemnly – and sincerely promise – to extend the hand of fellowship – to any and all comrades – whom I may meet and I will if possible – aid and assist – any such comrade – who may be in need of aid – and I shall regard it – as a privilege – rather than a duty – to be able to aid – Comrades less fortunate than I.

I.O.: Having survived the ordeal of the Cuss of the Cootie, you are now a Nit and entitled to the secret signs and password of our Crummy Order.

I.O.: Shirt Reader, you will now instruct the Nits in the signs and password of the First Section.

(Note: Atoms a given all the signs and password of this degree, also the following):

- (1) Sign of Incubation – One pant leg rolled up
- (2) Nit Sign – Stand erect, scratch groin with both hands
- (3) Nit Password – S.O.L.
- (4) Nit at play – Lay on the floor, face down, hands over head, one leg erect

S.R.: Instituting Officer, your orders have been obeyed

I.O.: I now declare a five minute recess.

I.O.: (Calls meeting to order.) Nits will retire to the anteroom to await the conferring of the Second Section of Transformation. (P.M. escorts Nits from room and returns.)

I.O.: Graybacks will display the sign of Transformation, line up in proper formation and prove they are entitled to be present by giving the Second Degree password and sign.

I.O.: Provost Marshal, you will retire to the anteroom, assemble the Nits and escort them to my station.

(When ready, the P.M. knocks loudly on the door.)

J.L.: Who scratches there?

P.M.: Nits in custody of the Provost Marshal.

P.M.: Nits, Backwards March! (Nits are marched to the station of the I.O.)

I.O.: Inconsequential Nits, by the signs on your trousers, you show preparedness to travel roads full of pitfalls. That is lousy. By being before me, you also show that you have disregarded all advice. It is truthfully said that he who does not heed advice is a fool, such we expect you to be. Before proceeding any further along the seams of this Pup Tent, it will be necessary to take a solemn oath. Not knowing what you are about to promise, are you willing to place your confidence in the Vermin of the Crummy Fraternity?

Nits: Yes.

I.O.: That is lousy. You will raise your right hands and repeat after me.

Having survived successfully – the ordeals of this crummy scratch – and fearing nothing – I cheerfully swear – that I will faithfully attend scratches – of this order – and that I will constantly seek out – those who can appreciate this degree – and I will invite them – into this crummy fraternity.

I furthermore willfully and oathfully swear – that I will myself – work industriously – busily – laboriously and relentlessly – every seam within sight – sound – touch – taste or smell.

I furthermore promise and swear – standing upright on bended knees – that I will never knowingly – tread upon the pastures – of any Grayback or in any way – unbeknown to him – attempt to deprive him – of his food or pleasures – that I might become fatter than he – thereby forcing him and his associates – to beg of his Brothers.

I furthermore promise – by the sincerity of a dog robber – that I will not borrow – beg – steal – swipe – cop or appropriate – any of the glory rightfully belonging – to a fellow member of this degree – thereby causing my popularity – to be increased – and additional laurels – placed upon my brow.

I furthermore promise and swear – never to reveal – to anyone – not entitled to receive it – any of the work – of this order – secret, written or oral – and may the seams of my shirt – be as barren as a church collection plate – should I ever whisper – elucidate or sound off – any of the work – of this Pup Tent – within or without.

And may my fangs – become as blunt as the back of a silver striped – Brazilian beetle – should I ever allow – any person – not a member of this degree – to obtain any secrets – of this – or any Pup Tent – through my own fault.

All this I promise and swear – as one true Grayback – can swear to another.

As you were.

I.O.: I now declare and proclaim each and everyone of you a Grayback.

I.O.: Provost Marshal, you will now instruct these newly made Graybacks in the secret work of this degree. (See secret instructions for this degree.)

I.O.: I now declare a recess of five minutes.

I.O.: (Calls meeting to order.) Graybacks will retire to the anteroom to await conferring of the Third Section of Aggravation. (P.M. escorts Graybacks from room and returns.)

I.O.: Cooties will display the sign of Aggravation, line up in proper formation and prove you are entitled to be present by giving the Third Degree password and sign.

I.O.: Provost Marshal, you will retire to the anteroom, assemble the Graybacks, and escort them to my station.

(At this time the Blanket Bum and Hide Gimlet leave their stations and follow the Provost Marshal. They pick out one or two of the newly made Graybacks who they think will make good subjects and obtain from them the current 1st and 2nd Degree passwords. After getting them, they return to their stations.)

(When ready, the Provost Marshal knocks loudly at the door.)

J.L.: Who scratches there?

P.M.: Graybacks in custody of the Provost Marshal.

J.L.: Provost Marshal, enter with the Graybacks.

P.M.: Graybacks, attention! Forward, march! (Graybacks are marched to the station of the Instituting Officer.)

P.M.: Instituting Officer, I present these Graybacks for your counsel and further allegiance to our Order.

I.O.: Graybacks, you are in this organization because of the fact that you are members in good standing in the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. You have, all of you, come through the successive stages of the Grayback. You have gained admission to the seams of this degree because we believe you to be a real Veteran of Foreign Wars, that you have performed the obligations of your membership in that order. Your membership in this order will be subject to your continued efforts and promulgation of ideas of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and active interest therein. Your membership in this Order will depend largely upon the fact that you must carry a paid-up receipt card in the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and should your affiliation or membership cease at any time in our parent order, your membership in the Military Order of the Cootie will automatically cease. Before entering further upon this degree, it will be necessary that you take upon yourself an obligation. You will raise your right hands and repeat after me, using your name where I use mine.

I, _____(name)_____, of my own free will and accord – in the presence of Almighty God – and the members here assembled – sincerely promise and pledge – that I will never reveal any of the secrets – of the Military Order of the Cootie – to any person or persons – except it be a true and lawful Cootie – of this degree – or within a regularly constituted Pup Tenet – until by due examination – I have found them entitled to the same. Should my membership – in the Military Order of the Cootie cease – I shall consider this pledge binding – outside the Order - as though I had remained a member of the same. So help me God – and keep me steadfast. (Hands down.)

I.O.: I now declare and proclaim each and every one of you a Cootie and entitled to the secret work of this degree.

I.O.: Provost Marshal, you will instruct these newly made Cooties in the secret signs and password of the Third Degree. (See secret instructions for the Third Degree.)

I.O.: (When the P.M. has finished.) Now that the degree work has been dispensed with, has anything of importance been overlooked? I shall be glad to answer any questions concerning the Military Order of the Cootie.

I.O.: Since you newly made Cooties are no members of our organization, it is only necessary for me to establish your Pup Tent.

By authority of the Supreme Commander, I now declare this to be a Pup Tent of the Military Order of the Cootie of the United States, henceforth known as _____ Pup Tent No. _____, Fertile Hunting Grounds of _____(Name of state), Military Order of the Cootie, and entitle to all privileges and rights of this organization so long as its members comply with our laws and those of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

I.O.: I now declare a recess of five minutes.

(After recess, the Scratch is called to order by the I.O. and the Pup Tent Shavetails are installed.)

INSTITUTION OF A GRAND PUP TENT

I.O.: (Calls meeting to Order.) Comrades, I have been authorized by the Supreme Commander to institute this Grand Pup Tent in accordance with the By-Laws of this organization. (Reads the warrant.)

I.O.: I invite Cootie _____ to be Acting Adjutant; Cootie _____ to be Acting Chaplain; and Cootie _____ to be Acting Provost Marshal.

I.O.: Cooties, I am present to institute the Grand Pup Tent of _____ (state) in accordance with the By-Laws of this organization and Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States.

I.O.: Acting Adjutant – you will call the names and numbers of each Pup Tent. As your Pup Tent name is called, the Seam Squirrel and Shavetails please rise, respond “Present”, and remain standing. The Acting Provost Marshal will escort each Seam Squirrel and Shavetails of the proposed Grand of _____ to the Altar.

I.O.: Acting Adjutant, have you satisfied yourself that all present are eligible according to the By-Laws?

Acting Adjutant: I have.

I.O.: Seam Squirrels, do you and your Pup Tent Shavetails pledge themselves to comply with all the rules and regulations governing this Grand Pup Tent as prescribed by the By-Laws of the Military Order of the Cootie and the Constitution and By-Laws of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States?

RESPONSE: I solemnly pledge.

I.O.: (Two raps of the gavel). Attention, Uncover, Parade Rest. The Acting Chaplain will offer the Prayer.

I.O.: As you were. (Raps the gavel once.) I declare the Grand of _____ duly instituted. There will now be a five minute recess. The Grand Officers will be installed following the recess.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Set up hall prior to the opening. Place the Flag, Bible and Altar at the station of the Seam Squirrel. Place a candle holder and candle at all officers’ stations to be lit during the service. All officers to be in following stations at the call to order:

Pup Tent and sentry in front of Hungry Cootie’s station.

Wreaths set at foot of the Altar in front of the S.S station.

Flags of the Cooties, Post(s) and American Standard in proper places.

(Grave and Cross at Sky Pilot’s station.)

S.S.: Listen Cooties, Comrades, Sisters and Friends of the VFW and Cooties. We are here to commemorate the memory of our departed Comrades and Cooties.

The Military Order of the Cootie is not solely a fun organization. Serious thoughts are given to our departed, and it is to these that we pay our respect at this time. I respectfully request that there be no smoking and talking during this ceremony. Silence is strictly essential while the service is being held.

S.S.: Provost Marshal, is all prepared to proceed with the ceremony?

P.M.: (The P.M. advances to the center of the floor and faces the S.S. station.) Seam Squirrel, all has been prepared.

S.S.: It is well. You will assume your station and remain standing and answer the roll call of the Pup Tent as called by the Hungry Cootie.

S.S.: Hungry Cootie, you will call the roll of the Pup Tent.

H.C.: (After the Roll Call) Seam Squirrel, the roll has been called and all accounted for except the following _____. (numbers only will be given)

S.S.: It is well. You may resume your duties.

S.S.: Sky Pilot, you will place the wreaths on the grave in memory of our departed Comrades and Cooties.

S.P.: (S.P. takes wreaths or flowers and places them on the grave.) To the memory of our departed. (Returns to their station for prayer.)

S.P.: When the call of our Country was heard, these Comrades answered. Self was forgotten in the cause of the greater good. As brave men and women, they marched away with an abiding faith in their God, their Country and their Flag. The red of our Country's Flag was made redder still by their heroism; the white more stainlessly pure by motives which impelled them; and in the starry field of our Nation's Glorious Banner, the blue has been glorified by the service they have given for American ideals. As Comrade after Comrade departs, we march on with ranks growing thinner. God of Battles, Father of all, Amidst this we see Thy hand. We beseech Thee, look in mercy upon all here assembled with Thine own tenderness. Heavenly Father, bless our Country with Freedom, Peace and Righteousness, and through Thy Sovereign and Holy Spirit's favor, may we all meet at last before Thy Throne of Grace in Heaven. And to Thy Great Name shall be praise forever and forever. Amen.

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER: (OPTIONAL)

BURIAL RITUAL

S.S.: Attention!

We are here assembled to pay our last tribute of respect to our departed Cootie. When the call of our country was heard, Cootie (name of deceased) answered. Self was forgotten in the cause of the greater good. As a brave man/woman they marched away with an abiding faith in their God, their country and their flag. The red of our Country's Flag was made redder still by their heroism; the white more stainlessly pure by motives which impelled them; and in the starry field of our Nation's Glorious Banner, the blue has been glorified by the service they have given for American ideals.

Uncover. Parade Rest.

The Sky Pilot will invoke the Divine blessing.

PRAYER

S.P.: Almighty and merciful God, Father of All, amidst these monuments of the dead we see Thy hand. In the depth of our sorrow we realize the truth of the inspired words: "I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live."

As Cootie after Cootie departs, we march on with the ranks growing thinner. Help us to be faithful unto Thee and to one another. We beseech Thee, look in mercy upon all of us here assembled, and with Thine own tenderness, console and comfort those bereaved by the hand of death. Give them the “oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness.” Heavenly Father, bless our country with freedom, peace and righteousness, and through Thy sovereign and Holy Spirit’s favor, may we all meet at last before Thy Throne of Grace in Heaven. And to Thy Great Name shall be praise forever and forever. Amen.

(All Cooties repeat Amen and replace their covers. Assume the position of At Ease. If a choir, quartet or soloist is present, an appropriate hymn may be sung, preferably Sleep Soldier Boy.)

S.S.: (Read the following or extemporize.) One by one, as the years roll on, we are called upon to fulfill these sad duties of respect to our departed Cooties. The present, full of the cares that best all nations, whether engaged in war or peace, fades away as we look back on the day this Cootie left home to defend their country. Imbued by a spirit of devotion and inspired by an undying love of their native land, they gladly went forth and joined with Cooties, both young and old, to preserve our heritage of freedom. We trust that the example set by our Cootie will prove a glorious beacon to the youth of our country, who may be called upon to uphold the honor of our flag.

As the years roll on, we too, shall have finished our flight, shall be laid to rest, and our souls follow the long column to the realms above, as all-enfolding death, hour by hour, shall mark his recruits. Cooties, let us so live that when the Keeper of the Eternal Records shall have called our names for the last time, those we leave behind may say of us, as we now say of this Cootie, “Here lies all that is mortal of a true-hearted Cootie, and a fearless defender of their country and flag.”

S.S.: Shavertails, you will now perform the last duties of your stations.

H.G.: (Places a sprig of evergreen upon the casket.) On behalf of _____ Pup Tent No. _____, Military Order of the Cootie, I present this tribute as a symbol of our undying love for our Cootie.

B.B.: (Places white flowers upon the casket.) I place this symbol of purity upon this casket, and may each future generation emulate the unselfish devotion to duty if the lowliest of our Cooties.

P.M.: (Places a laurel wreath upon the casket.) We place this last token of affection from the Cooties in arms upon the casket of our departed Cootie and crown their immortal dust with this symbol of victory.

S.S.: (Gently holds up one corner of the regulation flag covering the casket OR places a small American flag on the casket if none there.) On behalf of our glorious republic, for whose integrity our Cootie of the Military Order of the Cootie enlisted and served, we place upon their casket this emblem of our country, a country whose arms are always open to shelter the oppressed.

(If the casket is to be interred, the small flag, if used, will be placed at the head of the grave, never to be covered with earth.)

S.P.: (S.P. shall repeat the following or make an address of similar length.)

The march of our Cootie is over and he lieth down in he house appointed for all living. This grave reminds us of the frailty of human life and tenure by which we hold our own. In such an hours as we think not, the final summons may come which no one disobeys.

It seems fitting that we should leave our Cootie to rest under the arching sky, as they did when they pitched their tent or laid down in days gone by, weary and footsore by the roadside, or on the field of battle. Our departed Cooties of the Navy no longer hear the sound of the waves or float upon the bosom of the deep; no longer sail beneath peaceful skies, nor are driven before the angry storm.

May each of us, when our voyage and battles of life are over, find a welcome in that region of the blest where there is no more storm-tossed sea, nor scorching battlefield. Our Cootie is in the hands of our Heavenly Father, and “God giveth His beloved sleep.”

They will be laid to rest, but let us cherish their virtues and learn to imitate them, reminded by the place they fill no more, that our ranks are thinning. Let each one be so faithful in the remaining marches, that they will ne ready to fall out take their place in the great review hereafter; not in doubt, but with faith that the merciful Captain of our Salvation will call them to that fraternity which on earth and in heaven remains unbroken.

COMMITTAL

S.P.: (Or Minister) The Master saith, “Thou brother shall rise again. I am the resurrection and the life.”

(This paragraph to be used at the discretion of the Pup Tent.)

Dust shall be returned to dust and spirit to God who gave it. Earth to earth, ashes to ashes and spirit unto the Great Spirit that watcheth over the lives and souls of men. Amen.

ALL COOTIES: Amen.

BENEDICTION

S.P.: May the blessing and benediction of heaven be upon us and our Cooties wherever dispersed the world over. Amen.

(At the grave, the Seam Squirrel gives the signal to the firing squad, which fires three volleys.)

S.S.: Present Arms!

(The bugle sounds Taps. The Pup Tent colors only, drooping full, fly over the grave.)

S.S.: Order, Arms!

(War Department regulations governing the conduct of a military funeral provide that at the conclusion of Taps, the body bearers shall fold the internment flag and present it to the cemetery representative or funeral director for transmittal to the next of kin.)

When the grave side services are concluded, the Sky Pilot remains to render any assistance required by the family. All others may leave at this point.

CEREMONY FOR DRAPING THE CHARTER

S.S.: (After motion from floor or as requested) Provost Marshal, you will obtain drape in preparation for draping the charter. (P.M. obtains drape, proceeds to the Altar and salutes S.S.)

S.S.: (Raps gavel twice) Members rise and face the charter at attention. Provost Marshal, you will now drape our charter in memory of our beloved Cootie _____ who has passed on.

(P.M. proceeds to the charter and drapes it.)

S.S.: (While P.M. is draping the charter) By so doing, we as members of _____ Pup Tent _____ offer solemn tribute to our departed Cootie.

(P.M. returns to the Altar, salutes S.S. and returns to their station.)

S.S: Cooties, Present Arms! (Pause) Order Arms!

S.S.: Sky Pilot. Cooties, Uncover, Parade Rest.

S.P.: (Proceeds to the Altar) Our Heavenly Father, the march of our Cootie is over and they lieth down in the house appointed for all the living. The Master saith, "Thy brother shall rise again, for I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live." We beseech Thee to look in mercy on their bereaved family and to Thy name shall be praise forever and ever. Amen.

(Charters should be draped for thirty (30) days for all deceased Cooties.)
