22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AUGUST 31, 2025

MEMORIAL OF ST. GREGORY THE GREAT, POPE

Gregory was the first monk to be elected pope, and he brought monastic principles into church administration.

He sent Augustine of Canterbury and other monks to England to convert the Anglo-Saxons, which led to widespread adoption of Christianity in the region.

Gregory standardized the Mass and other liturgical practices, contributing to the development of Gregorian Chant.

He implemented reforms in church finances, charitable works, and established guidelines to prevent abuses.

Gregory forged strategic alliances, strengthened the papacy, and even provided guidance to civil leaders.
Writings and Theological Influence:

Prolific Author: Gregory wrote extensively, including letters, theological treatises, and accounts of saints. His writings, particularly his commentary on the Book of Job and his articulation of the doctrine of Purgatory, shaped medieval theology and spirituality.

Carlo Acutis will become first millinieu Saint

Next Sunday, the young Italian teenager who died in 2006, will become a saint. He is credited with two miracles by the Catholic Church. The first, which led to his beatification in 2020, involved the healing of Matheus Vianna, a Brazilian boy with a pancreatic defect. The second, which paved the way for his canonization, involved the healing of a woman in Costa Rica who had suffered a brain hemorrhage.

The Basilica will host the Vatican International Exhibit "Eucharistic Miracles" on the same day Acutis receives sainthood. Carlos began posting the known miracles of the eucharist on several websites he created before his death. He received recognition from Pope Francis for those websites in promoting the power in the Body of Christ.

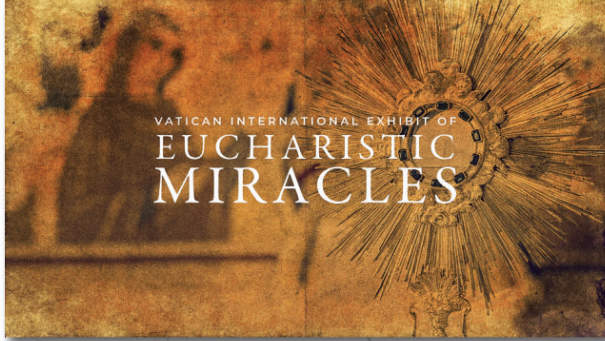

The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee is committed to healing the hurting hearts of sexual abuse victims and has established Victims Assistance Coordinators who are experienced and trained counselors and are available to help persons who have been sexually abused by a priest, deacon, or other church personnel in Northwest Florida. The Coordinator for the program in the Pensacola/Ft. Walton Beach area is Dr. Louis Makarowski; he may be reached at 850-477-7181.
