15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 12, 2026

DEACON STEVE GETS A COLLAR!

Permanent deacons will be permitted to wear clerical attire starting on July 15, 2026 that includes a collar.

Bishop William Wack: "Willed by Christ and established by the Apostles, the diaconate is a vital part of the Church's mission and "a proper and permanent rank of the hierarchy."

Permanent deacons in the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee are permitted to wear clerical attire while engaged in diaconal ministry. This includes ministry to the sick and homebound, correctional institutions, Catholic schools, nursing homes, hospitals, work with the poor or homeless, all parish ministry, all liturgical ministry, and any time a deacon represents the Catholic Church in an official capacity. Permanent deacons shall wear secular attire when not engaged in ministry.

BIRTHDAYS THIS WEEK

7/14: Bobby King
7/15: Valentina Deque-Castano
Mason Hubbard
7/16: Maureen Leccese
Augustine Morales
Cheryl Kelley
Chris Damore
Meghan Doyle
7/17: Chris Springer
7/18: Gregory Curran

The proper form of clerical attire for permanent deacons in the Diocese of Pensacola - Tallahassee is a gray, button-up, clerical dress shirt with a white roman collar, black dress pants, and black shoes. The use of a black or gray suit jacket is at the discretion of the deacon. Deacons should ensure their attire is clean and well fitting. Deacons are not to wear a cross around the neck while in clerical attire, as the pectoral cross is proper to a bishop and other religious superiors.

The Catholic collar (often called a Roman collar) is a vital symbol of a priest's vocation. It serves as a visual identifier that makes the priest instantly approachable to those in need of spiritual guidance, sacraments, or pastoral care in public settings. Additionally, it acts as a constant, outward reminder to the priest of his lifelong dedication and service to God.
