DOONGRI HOUSE HOMESTAY

Doongri House is nestled in the UNESCO's World Heritage Site in Jaipur. Located just off the main road of Indira bazar, framed pink walled city bazar of Jaipur.

The minimalist yet luxurious home stay is tucked beautifully on the 3rd floor of the complex (lift & stairs both accessible) which's overhead all the city buzz and surrounded by jewellery shops, textile houses, and a marketplace bursting with colours.

Many heritage sites from our home stay are within a radius of 2km, whereby making it convenient for an everyday stroll, even the e-rickshaws, autos and cabs are easily accessible.

The intimate premises then opens up into a shaded corridor that is joined to the courtyard which overlooks the magnificent Parkota (walled City of Jaipur) that is adjoined to the Ajmeri Gate on the left and the Singh Pol on the right, all clearly visible from the outdoor seating space.

On the left side of the opening area lie our two kitchenettes for the guests personal use which make their long stays more homely.

The stairs then lead to the terrace right upstairs, which has an admirable view of the grand Nahargarh that has a divergent beauty after it glows up in the evening, the beautiful temple of Gadh Ganesh, Ishwari Lat (Sargasuli) and the glorious Moti Doongri are also visible on the other side.
