JUNE S.A.L.T. SKILLS MEETING HAS BEEN CANCELLED!

S.A.L.T. SKILLS MEETINGS AT PGM CANCELLED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE!

The Museum should be opening up again in the next couple of months? The date has yet to be determined...

Pueblo Grande Museum's outdoor interpretive trails remain open to the public free of charge Monday – Saturday from 9 am – 4:45pm.

We have two trails - the portal loop trail near the grand canal and our main interpretive trail that includes the platform mound, Hohokam House replicas, and ballcourt.

The indoor exhibits (including the restrooms) remain closed. Even though we are still only partially open, it is wonderful to see so many people enjoying the beautiful weather and outdoor interpretive trails.

Check our website and follow us on Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/PuebloGrandeMuseum>) and YouTube (<https://www.youtube.com/c/PuebloGrandeMuseumArchaeologicalPark/videos>).

Please let us know if you have any questions.
