

WWW.SOCIALGROW.WORLD

Social Grow is dedicated to working directly with individuals with Autism and members of the IDD community to provide support in relationship building through focus on enhancement of social and communication skills by way of creative social peer clubs centered around music, theater, art, and interactive gaming.

Member Expectations

Gaming Club

- Use respectful indoor volume.
- Do not engage in throwing objects, balls, or items across the room outside of approved and organized game play.
- Respect the personal space, belongings, and boundaries of others at all times.
- The use of curse words, name calling and belittling comments will not be tolerated.
- Conversations should be kept free of inappropriate content related to sex, religion, politics, and drug use.
- Game must be approved by the lead organizers and deemed Club appropriate.
- Practice good sportsmanship. Allow others to take turns during game play.
- Do not monopolize gaming systems. Be open to trying new multi-player games.
- Maintain Cleanliness of your personal space by discarding trash, wrappers, plates, cups and water bottles.

Trivia Etiquette

- Have Fun
- Follow the Rules given by the Trivia Host
- Don't criticize or argue with the host over correct/incorrect responses.
- Maintain composure during Trivia. Excitement is understandable but, be mindful of others in the environment and maintain respectful interactions 100% of the time.

Social Grow 's Improv Theater and Music Performance workshop, ACT UP, is dedicated to working directly with individuals with Autism and members of the IDD community to provide support in relationship building through focus on enhancement of social and communication skills by way of creative social peer clubs centered around music, theater, art, and creative writing.

Member Expectations

Act Up

- Act Up seeks to create an inclusive environment at all times. Be accepting of others and their differences.
- Respect the perspectives of others, however different those perspectives may be from yours.
- Encourage each other. Celebrate with each other. Support each other.
- Conduct yourself with self-respect the moment you enter the doors to the club.
- Regard each other with kindness and respect at all times.
- Actively listen to each other and to your directors. Avoid the impulse to interrupt.
- Respect the personal space, belongings, and boundaries of others.

Freedom of Self Expression and Creativity

MEMBER EXPECTATIONS AND GUIDELINES

- While freedom of Self-expression and creativity are encouraged; material, both written and performed, must be free of profanity, obscene language, or gestures.
- While freedom of Self-expression and creativity are encouraged; material, both written and performed, must be free of content of a sexually explicit nature and must not be offensive in nature as it relates to race, ethnicity, gender or body shaming of any kind.
- The use of curse words, name calling and belittling comments will not be tolerated.
- Conversations should be kept free of inappropriate content related to sex, religion, politics, and drug use.

These expectations are not an exhaustive list and must be adhered to for continued membership of the club. Violation of these written expectations may result in being removed as a member of the club.*

It is a primary function of Act UP Improv Music and Theater Performance workshop social club to promote healthy and productive social exchanges and relationship building among members while creating a fun and safe space to develop social skills.*

By signing, you agree to adhere to the expectations and guidelines listed above.

Signature of Club Member _____ Date Signed _____

Or

Legally Responsible Person _____ Title _____ Date Signed _____

MEMBER EXPECTATIONS AND GUIDELINES

These expectations are not an exhaustive list and must be adhered to for continued membership of the club. Violation of these written expectations may result in being removed as a member of the club.*

It is a primary function of Social Grow's Gaming Interactive social club to promote healthy and productive social exchanges and relationship building among members while creating a fun and safe space to develop social skills.*

By signing, you agree to adhere to the expectations and guidelines listed above.

Signature of Club Member _____ Date Signed _____

Or

Legally Responsible Person _____ Title _____ Date Signed _____