

RED HOT CHOLO PEPPERS

NOT YOUR AVERAGE RHCP TRIBUTE

For over 30 years, the Red Hot Chili Peppers have captivated audiences with their high energy shows and special blend of funky rock n' roll. Being fans of fun, funk, and everything rock n roll, the Red Hot Cholo Peppers re-create the fan experience with a uniquely Southern California twist. They are most definitely not your average tribute band.

"It's this instant vibe you get when you hear the name, people know it's a party."

-David Strickland (Vocals, Guitar)

Clad in bandanas, flannels, and crashing parties with the same Cholo-style attitude you haven't seen since before your Tio got locked up, the Red Hot Cholo Peppers bring you all the hits of your favorite band with extra chili on top.

With decades of experience as professional musicians, this 4-piece band fully understands their role in providing fun and engaging entertainment wherever they play. They are professionals, who happen to love what they do and take pride in doing it well. Every show they play is carefully tailored to reach maximum audience engagement and their diversity as a band allows them to throw in some surprising non-RHCP covers that always get people dancing, singing along, and shouting "Órale" together.

When shared, music becomes an exhilarating experience. Every time they take the stage, the Red Hot Cholo Peppers want to bring you right along and share the fun that they have. Matt McKnight (Bass, Backing Vocals) says, "Our goal at every show is to make people sing along, laugh, dance, repeat."

You become a part of the show as we all remember the songs that sculpted us and our love of music.
