The Frisson Trio d'arches

Frisson Trio d'Anches is a reed trio featuring the oboe, clarinet, and bassoon. The Trio d'Anches is a unique chamber ensemble and the trio's sound is characterized by the interplay of the oboe's bright, penetrating voice, the clarinet's smooth and flexible tone, and the bassoon's warm, resonant depth. The Frisson Trio d'Anches members are clarinetist Bixby Kennedy, bassoonist Remy Taghavi and oboist Tom Gallant.

The Dolphins Quartet

The Dolphins Quartet is a string quartet and composer collective dedicated to uniting spirits through musical interpretation, innovation, and improvisation. Based in New York City and formed at The Juilliard School, the Dolphins strive to make chamber music vibrant, relevant, personal, and reflective of our time. Their programs regularly feature works from the classical canon alongside under-appreciated gems and original compositions.
