NATIONAL UPDATES

Journal of EMERGENCY NURSING

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE EMERGENCY NURSES ASSOCIATION

For more than 50 years, the Journal of Emergency Nursing has served as ENA's official, peer-reviewed publication delivering high-quality, evidence-based research and clinical guidance designed to improve emergency nursing practice and support optimal patient outcomes.

To continue the Journal's growth and impact, and to meet the evolving needs of emergency nurses, ENA and Elsevier – the Journal's long-time publisher – have announced the Journal of Emergency Nursing will transition to a fully digital publication in 2027.

What to expect:

- The final printed issue of JEN will be published in November.
- The first digital-only issue will launch in January.
- ENA members still receive complimentary access to JEN online.

What this means for you:

- Same trusted quality: JEN will continue to publish highly impactful articles which are relevant to emergency nursing practice.
- More content: A fully digital format allows for expanded article volume and greater variety of topics.
- Enhanced experience: Ongoing improvements to jenonline.org will make it easier to access articles, collections and educational resources along with new multimedia content such as webinars and infographics.

Recommendations

Membership Growth

Increasing membership directly impacts revenue and strengthens our organization. TCENA membership provides valuable networking, education, advocacy, and resources for emergency department nurses across Tarrant County.

- Develop strategies to increase visibility within Tarrant County emergency departments, including promotion of ENA meeting dates and times.
- Share information regarding in-person and virtual meeting options to improve accessibility and engagement.
- Encourage ED nurses to participate actively in ENA to have a voice in their practice, influence the direction of emergency nursing, support educational development, and help shape the foundation of emergency nursing practice.
- Continue offering educational opportunities and pathways that support ED nurses in achieving and maintaining professional certifications.

Educational Offerings

- Continue providing TNCC, ENPC, BLS, ACLS, and PALS courses.
- Continue offering CEN, CPEN, and TCRN review courses to support certification success among ED nurses.

Tarrant County Chapter

Fundraising

- Continue Barry's Golf Challenge.
- Continue craft sales at ENA meetings (request / plan ahead of time).
- Explore and implement additional fundraising opportunities to support organizational and educational initiatives.

FUNDRAISING BARRY HUDSON

Fundraising Activities:

1. Golf Challenge will resume this quarter; the first quarter weather did not permit this activity during the first quarter. Plan to have at least one Golf Challenge each quarter throughout the year. There is a good possibility that there will be more dependence on golf course accessibility.
2. There is a TCRN review course scheduled for May 26 and 27th Registration is open.
3. Nancy McEntire, Kris Powell, and others will have items for sale at each meeting.
4. Nancy McEntire has brought the idea of T-shirt sales.
5. We could consider the sale of bandanas as well.
6. I would like to set up Zoom Fundraising meetings for the week prior to each meeting. Suggestions for which day?
