

InnovationEd Foundation Privacy Policy

The InnovationEd Foundation has adopted this Privacy Statement in order to inform you of its policies with respect to information collected on this Website. Your use of this Website constitutes your acceptance of this Privacy Statement and your consent to the practices it describes.

YOUR PRIVACY

INNOVATIONED is committed to respecting your privacy and recognizing your need for appropriate protection and management of the personally identifiable information you share with us. The purpose of this Privacy Statement is to let you know what personally identifiable information we may collect from you when you visit our Website, how we use such information, and the choices you have regarding the use of, and your ability to review and correct your information. This Privacy Statement applies only to users accessing this Website.

HOW WE COLLECT YOUR INFORMATION

You can visit many of our Web pages without telling us who you are or revealing any personal information about yourself. When you visit our Website, we log general data, such as your domain name, the name of the Web page from which you entered our Website, which pages you visit on our Website, and how much time you spend on each page. Individual users will remain anonymous unless you voluntarily tell us who you are.

There may be places on our Website where we ask you to provide certain information about yourself, such as your name, address, telephone number, email address, and credit card information. We also maintain a record of your online transactions, donations, and/or purchases. Whether or not to provide such information is completely your own choice. But if you choose not to provide the information we request, you may be unable to give support or access certain services, offers, and content on our Website.

HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

We use the non-personally identifiable information that we collect to monitor the use of and improve our Website as well as for internal analysis. In particular, we use IP addresses to analyze trends and statistics, administer the Website, and gather information about the use of our Website. Your IP address is not linked to personally identifiable information.

We use the personally identifiable information you provide for internal purposes, such as confirming your transaction, subscription, or registration; analyzing non-personal information for analyzing trends and statistics informing you of events, initiatives, subscriptions, services, and giving opportunities; and providing you with other information that we believe would be interesting to you. Although unlikely, in certain instances we may disclose your personally identifiable information when we have reason to believe that it is necessary to identify, contact, or bring legal action against persons or entities who may be causing injury to you, the Center, or others. We do not rent, sell, or share personal information about you with third parties or nonaffiliated companies except as required by law or in response to a government investigation.

ACCESS TO PERSONAL INFORMATION

You can review, update, edit and delete the personal information you provided to us. Please contact us using the information below with your request to view, revise or remove such information.

OUR COMMITMENT TO DATA SECURITY

To prevent unauthorized access to your personal data, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place commercially reasonable physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect through this Website.

CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY STATEMENT

We will occasionally amend this Privacy Statement to reflect InnovationED Foundation and user feedback. We encourage you to periodically review this policy to be informed of how we are committed to protecting your information and providing you with improved content on our Website. By using this Website, you signify your agreement with the terms of this Privacy Statement.
