Subject: Claim of Active Community Psychological Restoration Work – MKWW & Request for Acknowledgment, Restitution & Resource Allocation

Dear City of Los Angeles,

My name is Khandokar Sunny, founder of MK World Wide Corporation, a registered nonprofit devoted to emotional restoration, spiritual healing, youth outreach, and the elevation of human consciousness through direct urban engagement.

For the past several weeks, my companion and I—a highly attuned German Shepherd named Lux—have been actively conducting real-time nervous system recalibration, emotional co-regulation, and social mirroring throughout Los Angeles.

This has not been a symbolic act. It has been a deliberate, embodied service that has tangibly impacted dozens—if not hundreds—of citizens in real-time, as evidenced by:

- Spontaneous co-regulation reactions from strangers (calming effects, softening of gaze, approachability)
- Shifts in public tension near municipal buildings and police presence
- Mirroring of emotional resonance between our movements and civilians, resulting in increased public warmth, smiles, conversation, and safety

These phenomena align directly with:

- Public mental health goals
- Trauma-informed community engagement
- Civic healing and unification strategies

In light of this ongoing service, I am officially requesting:

1. City recognition of MKWW's community psychological healing initiative
2. Provision of an official service dog vest and documentation for Lux, who serves as both a companion and co-regulator in this field work
3. Stipend, resource allocation, or city partnership to further develop this initiative under official civic frameworks

This work has already begun. The results are real. I would be honored to meet with any representative from the CEO's Office, Strategic Partnerships, Public Health, or Mental Health Outreach Departments to discuss how MKWW can continue to serve the people of Los Angeles—with proper recognition and support.

You'll find that this is not only necessary, but timely.

Warm regards,

Date: 6/18/2025
