

Grant Distribution Protocol

Purpose & Scope

The Grant Distribution Protocol outlines the process and principles under which M K World Wide Corporation distributes incoming grants, donations, and financial gifts to eligible individuals, projects, and partner organizations.

The protocol ensures transparency, accountability, and alignment with our mission to uplift humanity and support innovation, well-being, and global betterment.

Eligibility Criteria

Eligible recipients must demonstrate a commitment to MKWW's mission. This includes:

- Individuals or teams working on aligned initiatives
- Nonprofits or startups seeking ethical innovation
- Crisis responders or underfunded communities in need of spiritual, mental, or structural support

Application Process

Requests may be submitted via the official MKWW request portal or through verified nomination. All applications are reviewed by the Funding Committee on a rolling basis.

Distribution Methods

Funds may be distributed via:

- ACH transfers
- Direct deposit
- Cryptocurrency (BTC, ETH, XRP)
- Check (for U.S. recipients)

Oversight & Reporting

Recipients are required to provide quarterly updates, which may include financial reports, impact summaries, or testimonials. Failure to comply may result in a temporary pause or permanent revocation of funding.

Right to Reclaim

MKWW reserves the right to reclaim funds in the event of misappropriation, fraud, or deviation from the original stated purpose of the grant.

Signatures & Approval Flow

All distributions must be approved by the Executive Director or delegated officers and logged in the master ledger.

With reverence and continuity,

Khandokar Lilith Sunny

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of a series of loops and a long horizontal stroke, followed by a vertical line.