PYLO (Put Your Lights On) is my media-service-brand since 2019, delivering a lifetime of passion in communication; providing bilingual voiceover services (in Arabic & English) across commercials, corporate projects, narrations, sports, documentaries, character performances, and much more.

I also happen to deliver international VO training and coaching sessions, equipping aspiring talents worldwide with professional skills and market-ready delivery.

With over a decade of experience in media & events, I bring other services to the table such as MC-ing, hosting, presenting, in addition to sports commentary, basketball being the primary sport I indulge in both locally, and regionally.

A bilingual Bahraini VO Artist with a growing international footprint, delivering exclusive national projects, corporate partnerships, and global collabs. Also the first Bahraini and GCC national to coach voiceovers in English internationally, working alongside leading regional and global VO pioneers.

My work spans the GCC and international markets including the UK, USA, Canada, Spain, India, Mexico and beyond. I'm currently the official voice of Al Dana Amphitheatre, Al Salam Bank, and Mazad.

With over a decade of experience in media & events, I bring other services to the table such as MC-ing, hosting, presenting, in addition to sports commentary, basketball being the primary sport I indulge in both locally, and regionally.

I host start-up pitch sessions and moderate panels with clarity, pace, and structure. As an MC and presenter, I've led royal, corporate, commercial, social, cultural, and sporting events across Bahrain and the GCC. I'm also a basketball commentator, covering local leagues and the FIBA 3x3 World Tour, representing Bahrain locally, in Dubai and NEOM.

Whether on stage or on camera, I focus on creating a smooth, engaging experience that connects with both the room and the audience.
