

Just Be Yourself

Eat; you're too skinny.

Order a salad every once in a while.

Your skin is blemished; you should wear more makeup.

Your skin looks cakey; you shouldn't wear that much makeup.

You should talk to more boys; you're such a prude.

God, you talk to too many boys; you're such a slut.

You should share your opinions more often.

Looks like someone's on their period.

You wear such basic clothes.

Your clothes are weird.

Why don't you stick up for yourself?

You're being a bitch.

Show off your assets.

Leave something to the imagination.

Don't sleep with him on the first date.

Keep him satisfied.

Don't get married young.

You should've married young; your eggs are dying.

You should get plastic surgery; it will enhance your natural features.

Plastic surgery looks so unnatural.

All you are cut out for is being a mother.

Being a stay-at-home mom is shameful.

Just be yourself.

...Not like that.
