Event Description

Inner City Cycling Connection, Inc. (IC3), a 501 (C3) organization, (NJOF) National Juneteenth Observance Foundation, and the Barbara Morrison Performing Arts Academy are having a festival called Juneteenth Los Angeles 2020. This event will be a three day event held at Leimert Park in Los Angeles, June 19-21, 2020. Four themes are associated with this events:

- 1) Celebrating our culture, heroes, and health
- 2) Riding for health, justice, and equality
- 3) Exposing our community to the rewards and benefits of cycling
- 4) Honoring the life of Major Taylor, Colonel Young, a Buffalo Soldier from the 9th and 10th Calvary, and the US 25th Infantry Buffalo Soldier Cycling Regiment

OUR BELIEF

IC3, (N.J.O.F.), and the West East Community Access believe that this culture celebration will enlighten our community about legacy Juneteenth and its importance to American society. In addition to the cultural aspect, IC3 will incorporate cycling, health, and fitness into this event by having a community bicycle ride/walk, honoring Marshall W. Taylor (A.K.A.: Major Taylor), and paying tribute to the US Army 25th Infantry Regiment (A.K.A.: The Cycling Buffalo Soldiers). Both Major Taylor and the Cycling Buffalo Soldiers are African-American heroes that need their stories told. This Juneteenth Los Angeles 2020 event will assist in that endeavor.

Juneteenth Background

Juneteenth, also known as Freedom Day or Juneteenth Independence day, is an American holiday that commemorates the June 19, 1865, announcement of the abolition of slavery in Texas which was the last to end slavery, and more generally the emancipation of enslaved African Americans throughout the former Confederate States of America. Texas alone refused to acknowledge the freedom of its slaves at the end of the Civil War on April 9, 1865. Texas held on to its slaves all the way into June 19, 1865 when the Union Army arrived and told the Texas slaves they were free.

The name of the observance is a portmanteau of "June" and "nineteenth", the date of its celebration.

JUNETEENTH LOS ANGELES 2020 IS A CELEBRATION OF THIS AFRICAN LIBERATION DAY!!
