Two experienced lawyer residents, too bad the AOAO will not listen. I gave up trying years ago.

The basis for recovery from Mr. Kim, as I understand it, is that he agreed in the mortgage to assume responsibility for the property. Simple as that. You are right, it ultimately is Stark, but Stark transferred his liabilities to Kim in their sale transaction, so we had to recover from Mr. Kim and Mr. Kim can (and is) seek "contribution and indemnity" from Stark.

No disagreement - assignment of the note seems a pretty obvious pathway, at least to me.

I am still missing the factual or legal basis seeking recovery for what appears to be preexisting damage to the garage before Mr. Kim purchased and started construction. The prior owner may have been negligent or worse. Mr. Kim seems to have merely discovered the garage damage. The target should have been Stark, with the obvious solution assignment of the Stark note to the AOAO in settlement. Sounds like the AOAO shot at the wrong target and missed.

Aloha fellow Canterbury Owner,

Following up on my belief that the owners need to know more about what is going on with Canterbury Place, because it has such a big impact on our financial situation I thought it would be helpful for the owners to know more about the lawsuits that the AAO is in with the owner of the commercial units. I have put together a short summary of that (those) lawsuits based on my 25+ years as a trial attorney and my reading of the complaints that have been filed I try to explain what the dispute is about, what the sides are arguing, and how it is likely to play out.

You can read the summary here: <http://cp-owner.com/wordpress/index.php/litigation/> or you can link to it from <http://www.cp-owner.com> in the upper right-hand menu.

If it asks for a password, that password is "1910".

The link to the Unofficial Blog opens a password request prompt. Please provide the password.

I am also concerned about the apparent decision to make repairs first and then ask the commercial tenant for a million dollars. Surprise, now we go to more litigation? May have something to do with the shortages perhaps? I would rather have an audit of the books to find out what went where by an independent auditor with a clear explanation, sources and uses of funds, etc., before we start trying to fire people.

Mahalo!

Aloha fellow Canterbury Place owner,

I am writing to you about matters that impact all of us at Canterbury Place. Please take a few minutes to read the attached PDF document. There are two versions, one in English and one that was very kindly translated for me into Japanese.

I also ask that you take a few minutes and go to the website below that I created and read what I've posted there. This single page website provides more information and detail than the attached letter. (You may have to click through a security warning; don't worry, the website does not ask for anything from you or collect any information about you. It is just information from me to you about Canterbury Place.)

This information is important for us to all know and understand. I look forward to hearing back from you. If you are a real estate agent or property manager receiving this email please forward the email and the attachments to the owners you represent, as they should also have this information.

Mahalo,

Craig
