TEA CHARACTERISTICS

WHITE TEA

• Delicate, airy, and lightly sweet with soft floral notes and a gentle finish.

GREEN TEA

• Fresh, bright, and vegetal. Grassy aromatics with a clean, lively character.

YELLOW TEA

• Rare, mellow, and silky. Smooth body with subtle sweetness and a rounded finish.

OOLONG TEA

• Complex and layered. Ranges from floral and creamy to roasted and toasty depending on oxidation.

BLACK TEA

• Bold, rich, and full-bodied. Notes of malt, honey, cocoa, or warm spice.

PUERH TEA

• Earthy, grounding, and deeply smooth. Aged character with a warming, mineral finish.

HERBAL INFUSIONS

• Caffeine-free blends crafted from botanicals, flowers, fruits, and spices. Flavor profiles range from soothing and floral to bright, fruity, or warmly spiced.
