

BOOKS AND RESOURCES

The books in the picture are many that are listed below. Enjoy.

These recommendations are not a total agreement of everything these books, websites or Christians leaders share, but they have valuable information for a believer in Jesus. - John G. Lake - His Life, His Sermons, His Boldness of Faith

Lake was successful in real estate in the early 1900's and had amassed $250,000 in only two years. A few years later in 1907, he disposed of all his wealth and possessions to seek God's purposes. He and his wife decided never to disclose their personal needs to anyone - but instead, trust God as never before. By 1908, at the age of 38, Lake and his wife Jennie with their 7 children boarded a ship to S. Africa with only $1.25. In addition, once they arrived there they had no clue about where to live. After two weeks there they had been given $200 plus a fully furnished house in Johannesburg. Within a year Jennie died of a stroke. Lake was grieved but pressed on. By 1913, Lake's ministry totaled 1250 preachers, 625 congregations, 100,000 converts and countless miracles. Lake described the presence of the Spirit in his life was like having 'liquid fire in his veins. God gave Lake a powerful healing ministry which had been birthed years before, as Lake had grown up in a family plagued by much disease, therefore Lake had developed a strong hatred for disease. Jesus himself always treated sickness as an enemy to be dealt with. Jesus walked in dominion over sin and disease. John Lake sought to do the same.

'Showing how to think, not what to think - about the Bible'

'Education not indoctrination'

Steve covers a wide variety of topics and usually explains the pros and cons of them. eg. He wrote a book on the book of Revelation that covers all four different views of interpretation. Before doing so he read about 50 commentaries which included about a dozen commentaries for each of the four views.

He has detailed expositional teachings of the Bible given in a classroom setting and has taught Youth With a Mission through the whole Bible. Unlike most media preachers, he teaches about what being a disciple of Jesus is all about.

He lives a simple and humble lifestyle as his focus is on God's kingdom, not his.

He is not obliged to any particular denominational emphasis but seeks to follow the truth wherever it may lead. God has led me to a similar lifestyle and approach.
