

P.C. or J.C. ?

P.C.= political correctness

J.C.= Jesus Christ

Ever since Lucifer rebelled against God's authority to rule on the throne of the universe, there has been a battle for 'control'. We still see it today in all areas of society as various persons and groups seek to dominate or rule over others. Why is it that billionaires such as George Soros, Bill Gates, Jeff Bezos, Mark Zuckerberg and others are not content to live their lives of wealth and comfort but they have a compulsion to exert power and influence over others.

Soros funds numerous front groups that seek to tear down Western Civilization through open borders, anarchy, corrupt judges, pornography, gender confusion etc. Gates wants the whole world to be vaccinated and marked with a digital tattoo. Media moguls Bezos and Zuckerberg and others regularly suppress Christian and conservative viewpoints through social media and Facebook. There are others who have sought to change the shape of countries and cultures.

During the late 1700's, Robespierre founded the Jacobins, a hateful group which fomented violence during the French Revolution, which led to 40,000 people losing their heads via the guillotine. (Today radical leftists in America, who have lost their minds, recently wheeled out a guillotine in Portland, Oregon in front of the police bureau where they proceeded to burn the American flag.)

On May 1, 1776, Adam Weishaupt founded the Secret Order of the Illuminati in Bavaria, Germany with just five members who each assumed secret names. Weishaupt took the name Spartacus, leader of an insurrection of slaves in the ancient Roman Empire. Weishaupt divided the Order into three separate classes: Novice, Minerval, Illuminated Minerval. Those trusted ones who secretly progressed to the highest class were privy to the ultimate secrets and plans of the Order.

Illuminati = Enlightened ones This originates from Lucifer (Bearer of Light) who turned evil when he sought to overthrow God. He became the Adversary, otherwise known as Satan, who sometimes appears as an 'angel of light'. In the garden of Eden he offered enlightenment to Adam and Eve. Their fall brought darkness to the world as the glory of God departed from them. Throughout history, Satan has seduced groups of persons to seek special knowledge, secrets and enlightenment apart from God and his ways.

* Ultimate Aims of the Illuminati: (my comments in the parenthesis)

1. Abolition of all ordered government

(their Order seeks to create chaos and disorder)

2. Abolition of private property

(property ownership, a good way to create wealth assets for individuals so they do not need to rely on the state, the Illuminati sought to destroy the middle class and create a poor, dependent feudal class that they can more easily manipulate and control.

3. Abolition of inheritance

(Small business owners such as farmers and others work hard their whole life to build up businesses and equity only to see it confiscated by greedy politicians who do not respect others private property.)

4. Abolition of patriotism

(Nationalism is God's protection against globalism which is goal #7. see Genesis 11. Today there is a growing populist movement in many countries by those who are tired of being dictated to by globalist bureaucrats and socialists in their own countries. Global citizenship sounds good, but concentrated power is dangerous,)

5. Abolition of all religion

(Instead of looking to God, they want people to see the State as god)

6. Abolition of the family

(family is the source of stability in society, so it must be degraded, which we now see with all this gender confusion etc.)

7. Creation of a World Government

(Only Jesus Christ is fit to lead the whole world, and He will one day, but before that, Satan will have a short reign of terror through despots like those in the French Revolution. The United Nations is based on the last part of Isaiah 11:4 "They will beat their swords into plowshares....etc.". But they ignore the HE in verse 3 and 4 that will bring this to pass. The He is JESUS!)

Weishaupt infiltrated the Freemasons in 1782, but in 1785 the Bavarian government banned both the Illuminati and the Freemasons after four members of the Illuminati testified in court of the subversive satanic plans of the Order. The lower levels of these groups are unaware of the Luciferian agenda which is only revealed to those at the highest levels. We will not elaborate on the 7 goals above, but take note that in order to form a world government the 6 listed areas above must first be removed. Do you see the parallel with how the Marxists/Communists take over a country? We even see evidence of it happening now in America through those on the far left, who have taken over one party. It's platform is similar to some of the above agenda and also like the last part of Romans chapter one in the Bible. In that passage God turns them over to a reprobate mind.

After Weishaupt died, Giuseppe Mazzini, an Italian revolutionary leader, took over as director of the Illuminati in 1834. Soon after, an intellectual university student in Germany joined a branch group of the Illuminati known as the League of the Just. Although his Jewish parents had become Christians, he embraced atheism and decided to become a professor of history and philosophy. He was an extravagant spender, womanizer, suffered with syphilis, drank expensive wines, chain smoked cigars, lived off of his wife's money from her father who was an entrepreneur capitalist and also lived off the money of his friend Engels, whose father was a textile factory owner. He co-authored a book with Engels called Das Kapital. Who was this once obscure student whose name is often mentioned in revolution movements? Karl Marx. His legacy lived on through his Communist Manifesto which inspired Communist dictators who were responsible for 100 million deaths in 100 years under their godless regimes.

In the early 20th century, the Marxists began to realize that in order to overthrow the governments of the western world, they would have to use a more subtle approach rather than the direct revolution method. Some of it came from the ideas of the German philosopher Hegel (early 1800's) who spoke of the thesis, antithesis and synthesis, which became known as the Hegelian dialectic. (which we won't explain now). Hegel deified the government and said:

'The state is the Divine idea as it exists on earth' - Hegel

An Italian socialist Gramsci offered a more stealth approach to changing society..... through gradualism. His idea was to infiltrate the institutions of society (the 7 mountains, which we will discuss in another message) with ideological consensus and revolutionary ideas. A group of Marxists established an Institute in the early 1920's in Germany which became the Frankfurt school. Here the ideas of Marx and Freud were merged. The early focus of Marx was economic but this new approach was also cultural. It was cultural Marxism, otherwise known as political correctness. It was a heavy emphasis on being 'correct' in political, theoretical and ideological issues, since open debate and discussion would hinder their revolutionary goals to uproot the culture and social order. These ideas were brought to America at Columbia University in the 1930's. Columbia was a key teacher training place which led to the spread of these ideas into the universities across America. They would become like N. Korea, where free speech is stifled.

Now we see this taking place throughout the media, in sports broadcasting etc. I just read where the NBA (professional basketball league) has donated 300 million dollars to the BLM (Black Lives Matter) group. BLM is a Marxist anarchist group which is anti-Christian, anti-family, anti-American etc. based on the beliefs listed on their website. BLM does not care about black lives but is only a front group to bring revolution. (A few years ago I decided to research the origin of political correctness and discovered a lecture by Bill Lind that included the contrast listed below)

Similarities Between Economic Marxism and Cultural Marxism

1. Totalitarian - First seen on college campus, 'small ivy covered N. Koreas. Don't cross this line set up by feminists, homosexuals and minority groups

podcaster mel k. on rumble.com rightly calls them 'Poison Ivy' League Schools

2. Single Factor Explanation of History

Economic Marxism is about money and the ownership of production

Cultural Marxism, all history is determined by power, one group over another

3. One group is a Victim They are good, regardless of what they do.
The other group is automatically evil.

4. Both Rely on Expropriation

Economic Marxism = Take away the property of the rich

Cultural Marxism = Take away the rights of the majority / affirmative action

5. Rewrite History - Deconstruction

(Marxists seek to destroy the identity of a nation and people. Our history books leave out the Christian movements that preceded and continued after our founding.

David Barton and William Federer are outstanding historians who have written many great books that give America's true history.

The Power of Hate

A 16 year old named Vladamir Ulynov saw soldiers hang his brother for treason and made up his mind to change the world. Because of that decision, nearly half of the world entered into bondage and slavery under totalitarian regimes. As he stood there in hurt, anger and grief, he bitterly said: 'I will make them pay for it. I swear I will make them pay.' A contemptuous adult beside him with a sneer, 'You will make who pay?' The boy said: 'Never mind, I know.'

A few years later that young man changed his name. They called him Lenin, man of steel. A compatriot said to a friend on seeing this committed young man. 'I am afraid of that young man'. His friend asked, 'Why are you afraid?'. He said, 'Because he is the only man I know who thinks and dreams of nothing but revolution 24 hours a day'. And that young man made the world pay for his brother's death.

Under his discipline and genius, the ideas of Karl Marx and Engels were forged into a military, militant machine that changed the face of the world in the communist revolution. It continues today in the form of cultural Marxism fueled by that same hatred, which comes from the original radical we have come to know as Satan.

Satan's rule will be short lived in history. There is one greater than he, it is the man from Galilee, who gave his life for mankind on a tree at Calvary. It was known as the place of the skull. He has crushed the serpent's head and all the enemies of God will be crushed as Jesus will reign over all. Jesus Christ is the way of love and truth. We may dismay as we see the effects of political correctness, but let us never forget.....

TRUTH IS GREATER THAN LIES
LOVE IS STRONGER THAN HATE
JESUS CHRIST IS MORE POWERFUL THAN SATAN.

J. C. WINS OVER P.C.

Jesus Wins Over Karl Marx
