

THE ROUNDUP

JUNE, 2000

BOOTS 'N' BUCKLES NEWSLETTER

Volume 10 Issue 6

It seems that each year, this month's message is one of the most difficult to write. The Roundup will not get to some of you until the June 3rd workshop and social is over, so I can't write to encourage you to attend. Because I'm writing this letter two weeks before the event, I can't write about how terrific it was!

I can tell you that I am very excited about the upcoming day as I see Boots 'n' Buckles annual event becoming one of the premier events in the Bay Area. I have had people from as far away as Australia sending me e-mails to say that they heard about it and are coming! Just this week, we received six US Mail requests for tickets and another via e-mail. It looks like we will have close to 110 tickets sold in advance, an eleven percent increase over last year's sales. The revenue from this event will help us overcome a couple of slim months of income and should carry us through to the end of the year.

As I sadly reported last month, Cowboy Country Club has closed. I don't like to see any Country-Western dance hall close, but it has benefited our club and Charlotte. We have seen an increase in attendance at Charlotte's Monday-Wednesday lessons and at our Friday night dances. I hope that the newcomers like what they see and continue to come each week.

If you missed the Cactus Corners All Club dance on May 13th, you missed a fantastic evening. There was more food than all of us could eat, the DJ's (Carmel and Hutch) were excellent, and the two dance lessons were super. The only down side of the evening is that I failed to win the weekend in Tahoe grand prize.

If you haven't been to one of our dances in a while, you might want to stop by some Friday night to enjoy some of the changes. The dance floor is no longer sticky; in fact it is a little too slick in some places. Our music format has changed slightly, too. Bob Hubbard, (the Bay Area's best DJ), is now calling more couples dances around the outside and we are including at least one mixer every Friday. The music is a nice blend of old and new line dances, too. We are trying to please all of the dancers, and I think we are the closest we have been in a long while.

Next month, we will have a list of the local business and individuals who donated door prizes to the workshop. We ask that you support these businesses and say thank you to the individual donators when you get a chance.

See you on Friday!

The Treasurer Sez . . .

Though there have been lots of dance activities that draw our club members out of town lately, April ended up being a pretty good month. While only one Friday night dance was profitable during April, the losses were minimal on the other dance nights, so we only lost $26 on the dances for the month. Our workshop ticket sales were quite strong however, bringing in an additional $770 for the month. As a result, we ended the month with a profit of $565.34.

As noted earlier, our workshop ticket sales have been progressing very well. As of the middle of May we have sold or put on will-call approximately 100 tickets, and that more than covers the expenses for the event. From this point on, each ticket we sell will result in a profit for the club, and that, after all, is the main purpose of hosting the workshop each year.

Thanks to all of you who regularly attend the Friday dances, and I look forward to seeing all of you at the June 3rd workshop.

Lynette Webber

Off A Restroom Wall --

I never get tired of reading the wisdom of Will Rogers. Unfortunately, I frequently seem to forget to take his advise. For instance, "Never miss a chance to shut up!" Yet, here I am, expounding away on much about nothing.

The point is, we really need articles to put in the 'Round-up'. All members have equal opportunity and really an obligation to help make our newsletter newsy. There must be a lot of frustrated journalists among you with something interesting to write. It can be anything -- a movie review, opinion, killer recipe, dissatisfaction with this article, a trip you have taken, whether you recommend it, politics, religion, or even poems or phone numbers off restroom walls! Give, fax or e-mail your articles and opinions to editor Judi (addresses in this issue) and see yourself in print. Now, another of Will's Wisdoms -- "When you find yourself in a hole, the first thing to do is stop diggin'" - and that is what I am going to do right now!

A BIG THANK YOU to Ruth Baratta for teaching a fun dance and donating her instructor fee back to Boots 'n' Buckles.

Dear Friends:

It is with the saddest heart that I have to pass on the following. Please join me in remembering a great icon.

Veteran Pillsbury spokesperson, The Pillsbury Doughboy, died yesterday of a severe yeast infection and complications from repeated pokes to the belly. He was 71. Doughboy was buried in a slightly greased coffin.

Dozens of celebrities turned out, including Mrs. Butterworth, the California Raisins, Hungry Jack, Betty Crocker, the Hostess Twinkies, Captain Crunch, and many others.

The gravesite was piled high with flours as longtime friend, Aunt Jemima, delivered the eulogy, describing Doughboy as a man who "never know how much he was kneaded." Doughboy rose quickly in show business, but his later life was filled with many turnovers. He was not considered a smart cookie, wasting much of his dough on half-baked schemes. Despite being a little flaky at times he even still, as a crusty old man, was considered a roll model for millions. Toward the end, it was thought he'd raise once again, but he was no tart.

Doughboy is survived by his second wife, Play Dough. They have two children and one in the oven. The funeral was held at 3:50 for about 20 minutes.
