

THE ROUNDUP

Boots 'n' Buckles Newsletter NOVEMBER 2004 Volume 15 Issue 11

Brrr! The days and nights are getting much colder as we go into November. The leaves are turning colors and the days are much shorter. It will soon be turkey day and I would like to wish all of you a very Happy Thanksgiving. Remember we will be dancing the Friday after Thanksgiving, so come and dance off all the extra food that you will have consumed. Thanksgiving is a special time of the year for me, it means all the family is together and I make all my special pies.

In October about 143 line dancers went on a cruise to Mexico. Joanie Mack organized our trip and we all had a wonderful time. Thanks Joanie! John and Gina Bowen were there also and provided us with dancing three times a day. It was great! It was so nice of them to take time away from their cruise to be with us. Thanks a million guys!

In this issue of the Roundup you will get the 2005 Ballot for the new Board. Please take time to vote and give them to me (Helen) or mail them to the club. We can still use more volunteers for the 2005 Board. If you would like to be on the Board please put your name on the Ballot.

On December 17th we will have our Holiday Dinner Dance; you will find a registration form in the Roundup or on the back table on Friday nights. The price of $22.00 includes dancing and dinner, and if you have been coming to our Holiday dinner dances you know how good the food is. We will have the same menu as last year. So mark your calendars for December 17th. That will be my last night as President of Boots n Buckles. I will then turn the club over to the 2005 Board.

Have a Happy and Safe Holiday.

Helen Phillips

President,
Boots 'n' Buckles

THE KORRAL

WINDY CITY REPORT OCTOBER 7TH TO THE 10TH

Arrived in Chicago with Bob and Trish Boesel and Lynn Johnson. Then we met up with Doris Voltz, Carole Wiegand, Leslie Brazelton, Hong Ying Wang and Charlotte Skeeters. We were all ready to take on the Windy City Event. With 25 instructors and 126 dances to be taught, we had our work cut out for us! Five ballrooms were ready for us and we were ready for them.

We started Thursday night and the dance was held in one of the ballrooms. So many dancers arrived that the room was too crowded and it made it hard to dance. I hope next year they give us a bigger room. Saw a lot of dancers that I have not seen for awhile so that was the fun part.

Friday came and we had to choose which dances we wanted to learn. What a choice we had. Demos of the dances that were to be taught on Friday were done that morning. It makes it easier to choose. Sometimes you do pick the wrong ones to learn. A few of the dances I chose to learn were "A Deeper Love" by Yvonne Anderson, "Round, Round Baby" by Peter Metelnick, Funkalicious" by Rachael McEnaney. All were great dances.

That evening we had an open dance and were also shown demos for the Saturday classes. The dancers from our area helped Charlotte demo her new dance "Back to The Island". What a ball we had. She brought some palm trees for the decorations and leis for us to wear.

Saturday classes started at 9:00 am. I had to take a class with Judy McDonald because after I saw her do "Dip Stick" at the demos I had to learn it. Fun Clogging dance. Next class was Simon Ward teaching a Blast from the past "Larger Than Life" What a great dance that is. Then back to a class with Yvonne for "What I Like About You" and off to learn "All The Jazz" with Rachael. I ran from class to class to try to learn as many dances as I could. Busy, Busy Day. Dinner and the show went from 6:30 to 9:00. I did not go as I think these shows go on for too long. One thing I forgot to tell you is that both Friday and Saturday, a choreography competition was held and at the dinner show they got to see the top two finalists. They were 1st place "Mood Swing" and 2nd place went to Bracken Ellis with a dance we love to do "Under Your Spell". The dance on Saturday had us dancing "Destination Dance Floor" and I remember doing that before every dance in the Bay area. Also "Like It Or Lump It." Sunday came with re-teaches of some of the dances that were taught and then we had to say goodbye to Chicago. We were all danced out but ready to start dancing again. The problem with an event like this is that they keep you so busy that you do not take time to see the city.

BOOTS-N-BUCKLES DANCE CLUB

Treasurer's Report

Hi everyone. Hope you had a great HALLOWEEN. Another year has gone bye, and the holidays are just around the corner. Oh my goodness! It won't be long until tickets go on sale for the Holiday Dinner Dance.

This report is for the month of September. It was a good month for Boot "N" Buckles. Revenues totaled $3,148.00. Income came from the usual sources: dances, rent collected from instructors for classes taught & 50/50 raffles. A lot of dancers decided September was the month to renew their annual club membership, which brought in $540. Four dances were held and showed a profit after expenses were deducted.

Expenses incurred totaled $2,021.58. Rent paid to Swiss Park was the largest expense. Other expenses included music, 50/50 raffle, and a few miscellaneous items. The club netted a profit of $1,126.42 for the month. The checkbook has a balance of $9,654.31.

This concludes my report. Have a Happy Thanksgiving!

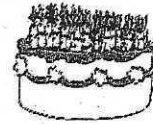

Respectfully,

Debbie Bloodworth
