Preamble

We believe that it is the express purpose of God, our Heavenly Father, to call out of the world a people who shall constitute the Body, the Church of Jesus Christ, built and established upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the Chief Cornerstone.

We further believe that members of the Body, the Church, are enjoined to assemble themselves together for worship, fellowship and instruction in the Word of God, the work of its ministry, and for the exercise of those spiritual gifts and offices provided for in the New Testament; and according to God's Word, the early Christians came together in such fellowship as a representative Body of blood-washed and Spirit-filled believers, who cooperated with, and sent out, evangelists and missionaries and, under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, set over the churches, apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, teachers, deacons and helpers.

Therefore, we recognize ourselves as a cooperative Fellowship of Christians, endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, till we all come in the unity of the faith and the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ (Ephesians 4:3-13).

ARTICLE I

Name

SECTION 1 The name of this body shall be the "Pentecostal Church of God, Central California District, Inc.," hereinafter designated as the "District."

SECTION 2 The Central California District shall encompass that portion of the states of California and Nevada lying south of the following described line:

Beginning at the western terminus of U.S. Highway 40, thence continuing easterly along said U.S. Highway 40 to its intersection with U.S. Highway 50, to its intersection with California State Highway 120, thence continuing easterly along said California State Highway 120 to its intersection with U.S. Highway 6, to its intersection with the eastern boundary of the state of Nevada; and lying northerly of the following described line:

Beginning at Conception, California, thence continuing easterly in a direct line with Grapevine, California, to the west boundary of Kern County, thence north along said county line to intersection with south line of San Benito and Kings Counties, thence easterly along south line of Kings, Tulare and Inyo Counties to the east line of California, and bounded on the west by the western boundary line of the state of California and on the east by the eastern boundary line of the state of Nevada, and the state of Hawaii. The city of Delano is included in the Central California District.

This District shall, as nearly as possible, represent in all detail THE BODY OF CHRIST as described in the New Testament, recognizing the principles inherent in that Body as also inherent in this fellowship, particularly the principles of Christian unity, cooperation and equality. ARTICLE V

Faith and Doctrine

Pentecostal Church of God, Inc.

Doctrinal Statement

As a covenant community comprised of followers of Jesus Christ devoted to the Word of God, the Pentecostal Church of God adheres to the following essential values as foundational doctrines and those things which we hold as absolute beliefs (Luke 1:1); seeking always the global advancement of the Kingdom of God (Acts 1:8); endeavoring to be connected and serve with a Christ-honoring approach that there be no divisive disturbance of the peace and harmony within the Body of Christ (Mark 10:45, 1 Corinthians 1:10) in order that we will be a relevant voice to reach the unreached peoples of our generation and send the reached into the harvest (Acts 13:36).

1. The Scriptures

The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the inspired Word of God (2 Timothy 3:16) presenting to us the complete revelation of His will for the salvation of men and constituting the Divine and only rule of Christian faith and practice (2 Peter 1:21).

2. The Godhead

We believe there is but one true and living God, who is everlasting, infinite in power, wisdom and goodness; that He is the Creator of all things, visible and invisible, and preserver of all things (Romans 1:20; Colossians 1:16). In the unity of this Godhead, there are three Persons of one individual essence, who are co-equal, co-existent and co-eternal; namely, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost (Matthew 3:16, 17; Matthew 28:18, 19; 2 Corinthians 13:14; John 1:1, 2, 18; Philippians 2:6; Hebrews 9:14; John 14:26; 15:26; John 10:33).

The Son is the eternally begotten of the Father, and accepted earthly limitations for the purpose of incarnation, being true God and true man; conceived by the Holy Ghost and born of the Virgin Mary. He died upon the cross, the just for the unjust as substitutionary sacrifice, and all who believe in Him are justified on the grounds of His shed blood. He arose from the dead according to the Scriptures. He is now at the right hand of the Majesty on High as our great High Priest, and He will return again to establish His kingdom of righteousness and justice.

The Holy Spirit is a Divine person, Executive of the Godhead on earth, the Comforter sent by the Lord Jesus Christ to indwell, to guide and to teach the believer, and to convince the world of sin, of righteousness and of judgment.

3. Man: His Fall and Redemption

Man is a created being, made in the likeness and the image of God, but through Adam's transgression and fall, sin came into the world (Romans 5:12). "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23). "As it is written, there is none righteous, no, not one" (Romans 3:10). Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was manifested to undo the work of the devil, and gave His life and shed His blood to redeem and restore man back to God (1 John 3:8).

4. Salvation

Salvation is made possible through the meritorious work of Jesus Christ on the cross and through the Holy Spirit conviction. Godly sorrow works repentance and makes possible the experience of the new birth, and Christ formed within us is the gift of eternal life (Titus 2:11; Romans 10:13-15; Luke 24:47; Titus 3:5-7).

Salvation is the gift of God to man, separate from works and the Law, and is made operative by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, producing works acceptable to God (Ephesians 2:8).

Man is a free moral agent and can at any time after the new birth experience turn away from God and die in a state of sin facing the consequences of Hell (II Peter 2:20-22).

5. The Church

The true Church built upon the Foundation of Jesus Christ (1 Corinthians 3:11; Ephesians 2:20), is the Body of our Lord (Romans 12:5; 1 Corinthians 12:27), Christ being the Head (Ephesians 1:22; Colossians 1:18). Its earthly constituents are all true believers, born again of the Spirit (John 3:6) and of the Word (1 Peter 1:23), who are living an overcoming Christian life (Ephesians 5:27; Revelation 21:27).

To the Church, through its members, is delegated the various gifts and offices of the Holy Ghost (1 Corinthians 12:7-11, 27, 28) which are necessary for the successful evangelization of the world and the perfecting of the Body of Christ (1 Corinthians 12:7; Ephesians 4:11,12).

This universal, invisible sanctified Church is the chaste virgin Bride of Christ (2 Corinthians 11:2; Ephesians 5:26, 27; Revelation 21:9b, 27) and it is this Bride for whom Jesus Christ returns, just prior to the Great Tribulation, to catch her away and take her to heaven (John 14:23; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18).

6. Ministry

God, through the Holy Spirit, definitely calls such as He desires to serve as evangelist, pastors and teachers, and specifically endues the one called with the talents and gifts peculiar to that office or offices (Ephesians 4:11-13). Under no circumstances should anyone be ordained or set apart to any such office unless the calling is distinct and evident.

7. Water Baptism

Baptism in water is by immersion and is a direct commandment of our Lord (Matthew 28:19) and is for believers only. The ordinance is a symbol of the Christian's identification with Christ in His death, burial and resurrection (Romans 6:4; Colossians 2:12; Acts 8:36-39).

The following recommendation regarding the water baptism formula is adopted, to wit: "On the confession of your faith in the Lord Jesus Christ the Son of God, and by His authority, I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

8. Baptism of the Holy Ghost

The baptism of the Holy Ghost and fire (Matthew 3:11), is a Gift from God, as promised by the Lord Jesus Christ to all believers in this dispensation, and is received subsequent to the new birth (John 14:16, 17; Acts 1:8; 2:4, 38, 39; 10:44-48). The baptism of the Holy Ghost is accompanied by the speaking in other tongues as the Holy Spirit Himself gives utterance as the initial physical sign and evidence (Acts 2:4).

9. Sanctification

The Bible teaches that without holiness no man can see the Lord (Hebrews 12:14). We believe in the doctrine of sanctification as a definite, yet progressive, work of grace, commencing at the time of regeneration and continuing until the consummation of salvation (Hebrews 13:12; 2 Thessalonians 2:13; 1 Peter 1:2; Ephesians 5:26; 1 Corinthians 6:11; John 17:17; 1 Thessalonians 5:23).

10. Lord's Supper

The ordinance of the Lord's Supper is a commandment of our Savior; and being a memorial to His death and resurrection, is strictly limited to Christian believers (1 Corinthians 11:27). The time and frequency of its observance is left to the discretion of each congregation (1 Corinthians 11:26).

Only unfermented grape juice, the fruit of the vine, as recommended by our Lord (Matthew 26:29; Mark 14:25; Luke 22:18) shall be used in connection therewith.

11. Foot Washing

Foot washing is recognized among many believers as a Christian practice, and the time, manner and frequency of its observance is left to the discretion of each local congregation (John 13).

12. Divine Healing

Healing is for the physical ills of the human body and is wrought by the power of God, through the prayer of faith, and by the laying on of hands (Mark 16:18; James 5:14, 15); it is provided for in the atonement of Christ, and is available to all who truly believe.

13. The Resurrection of the Just

The Bible promises, “This same Jesus shall so come in like manner” (Acts 1:11). His coming is imminent; when He comes, “The dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air” (1 Thessalonians 4:16, 17). Following the tribulation, He shall return to earth, as King of kings, and Lord of lords, and together with His saints, who shall be kings and priests, He shall reign a thousand years (Revelation 20:6).

14. Setting a Time for the Lord’s Return

It is unwise to teach that the Lord will come at some specified time, thereby setting a date for His appearing, and it is also unwise to teach, preach or publish visions of numbers and dates which would tend to fix the time of the second coming of the Lord (Mark 13:32,33).

15. The Coming of the Lord

We believe the Bible presents the coming of Christ as personal, imminent, pre-tribulation and pre-millennial. We further contend that this position alone admonishes watchfulness, incites holy living, prevents spiritual declension and provides maximum incentive and motive for urgency and zeal in evangelizing the unsaved. As demonic deception and Satanic darkness deepens, we urge our ministers to maintain and proclaim this doctrinal viewpoint as the “blessed hope” of the Church.

Furthermore, we recommend that should any of our preachers hold to the mid- or post-tribulation doctrine, they refrain from preaching and teaching it. Should they persist in emphasizing this doctrine to the point of making it an issue, their standing in the fellowship will be seriously affected.

16. Hell and Eternal Retribution

The one who physically dies in his sins without Christ is hopelessly and eternally lost in the lake of fire, and therefore has no further opportunity of hearing the gospel or of repentance (Hebrews 9:27). The lake of fire is literal (Revelation 19:20). The terms “eternal” and “everlasting” used in describing the duration of the punishment of the damned (Matthew 24:41-46) in the lake of fire, carry the same thought and meaning of endless existence, as used in denoting the duration of joy and ecstasy of saints in the presence of God.

17. Tithes

We recognize the Scriptural duty of all our people, as well as ministers, to pay tithes as unto the Lord (Hebrews 7:8).

Tithes should be used for the support of the active ministry and for the propagation of the gospel and work of the Lord in general and not given to charity or used for other purposes (Malachi 3:7-11; Hebrews 7:2; 1 Corinthians 9:7-11; 16:2).

ARTICLE VI Relationship

SECTION 1 The Central California District is a part of, and in fellowship with the Pentecostal Church of God, an incorporated body with headquarters at Bedford, Texas, and shall be entitled to representation at the general convention as outlined in the PCG general bylaws.

SECTION 2 The District shall assist the General Office in furthering the mission’s work of the church. Its ministers are encouraged to contribute to the support of the General Office, and to take an active interest in our official publication, The Pentecostal Messenger.

SECTION 3 Any minister moving from one district to another shall, upon arrival, notify the officials of the district into which they have relocated. After residing in the district for thirty (30) days, the minister shall be required to transfer except as permitted by the district board in which the minister now resides.

No district may refuse the transfer of a minister, who is in good standing with another district, without bringing charges against the minister being transferred. When a minister is transferred from one district to another, a copy of the said transfer should be mailed or given to the minister being transferred. No district may refuse to transfer a minister who is in good standing without just cause. Good standing shall mean that the one being transferred has not violated any general or district bylaws, has no written accusations or pending charges and has paid all fees and met their obligations. Just cause is to be determined by the district executive committee. In the holding up of a transfer, proper notice is to be given to the minister who is seeking to be transferred.

SECTION 4 We believe that our government is ordained of God; and We are thankful to the government of the United States of America for the freedom to worship God according to the dictates of conscience; There are those within our church organization who conscientiously object to the bearing of arms in the time of war; We, as a church organization, affirm their respective right to this conviction as they offer their respective services to our government in any way consistent with non-combative service.

SECTION 6 Seating the Constituency

The voting constituency shall be properly seated and counted (other than hearing some reports) before the business session begins and shall occupy those seat rows designated by the chairman.

SECTION 7 Parliamentarians and Timekeeper

The chair shall appoint a committee of three (3) members who shall serve as parliamentarians. This committee shall decide any question that arises relative to parliamentary procedure. A Timekeeper, or keepers, shall be appointed by the chair. Their responsibility shall be to accurately call time when the limits of discussion have been reached.

SECTION 8 Nominations and Elections

All candidates for Bishop and/or District Presbyter shall be nominated by written ballot. All names thus presented shall be balloted upon unless a candidate shall have received a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the votes cast. If no majority has been reached when the convention has balloted three (3) times, then the two (2) candidates having the highest number of votes in the third ballot shall be the only nominees further voted upon. A two-thirds (2/3) majority shall be required to elect.

The District Secretary-Treasurer shall be elected by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the District Convention. The District Board shall present not less than three (3) names to be voted upon for said office except when there is an incumbent. In the event a vacancy should occur for any reason, the District Board is empowered to appoint a suitable candidate to fill the unexpired term.

Sectional Presbyters shall be elected by the pastors of the section, their companions, one (1) full-time associate or assistant pastor, and one (1) delegate from each church in the section. This election shall be ratified by the District Convention. A two-thirds (2/3) majority shall be required to elect. In the case of a vacancy, the section shall be empowered to elect a successor for the un-expired term, subject to the approval of the District Board. The term of office shall be for two (2) years after serving an initial one (1) year term.

Absentee ballots presented by duly registered constituents for district convention and /or sectional elections must be accepted by the constituency present at said meeting. Absentee ballots shall be counted in the voting tally during the nominating ballots, and for electoral ballots in which that name applies to one of the two highest names from the third nominating ballot

SECTION 9 Resolutions

All resolutions shall be processed by the Resolutions Committee before presentation to the convention. All resolutions shall be sent to the District Office at least 30 days prior to convention. One week prior, all ministers should receive a copy of the resolutions.

All resolutions that seek to change the Bylaws, affecting an elected office, shall be automatically voted on by secret ballot.

All District Convention resolutions and/or motions dealing with finance, submitted by any entities other than standing committees, shall be given to a committee appointed by the District Bishop for research as to proper procedure prior to coming to the convention floor. Said resolutions must be submitted to the District Office no later than January 1st and are to be presented to and reviewed by the District Board at their February meeting.

No resolution will be presented to the District Convention, unless the author of said resolution is registered and present on the convention floor.

SECTION 10 Discussion

Persons desiring to speak shall first rise, address the chair and wait to be recognized. No person shall speak more than three (3) times on any given item of business and shall speak only on the subject under discussion. The speaker shall be limited to three (3) minutes the first time; two (2) minutes the second and one (1) minute the third time. In case of two or more persons desiring recognition at the same time, the chair shall recognize first the one farthest from the chair. No one is entitled to the floor a second time in debate on the same motion so long as there are other members who have not spoken on the subject and desire the floor.

Debate on any one specific item shall be limited to one (1) hour, and the chair shall call for the question at the end of the allotted time.

Recognizing the rights of others to their opinions, we request that no personalities be indulged in from the floor. The chairman shall enforce the ruling, which states that speakers shall speak only on the subject under discussion.

Because adequate time is allotted to those desiring to speak, we request that no audible expression such as “Amen, that’s right,” etc., be permitted while another is speaking. And no person shall request the floor while another is speaking, except to raise a privileged question.

Each speaker shall, when discussing any subject, state whether he/she is for or against the issue being presented. When three people have spoken in succession on the same side of the question being debated, the fourth person must speak on the other side of the question. If there is no speaker on the other side, the chair shall call for the question.

The chairman shall extend an opportunity to the author of any resolution or recommendation to speak first in explanation of the intent of his/her legislation. The allotted time shall be three (3) minutes.

The chair shall determine when discussion is adequate, and the question is to be entertained.

SECTION 11 Voting

All officers shall be elected by two-thirds (2/3) of the votes cast. All officers shall be voted upon by secret ballot.

Any issue other than balloting for the election of officers may be voted upon by secret ballot at the request of any member of the voting constituency.

In the election of officers, not more than ten (10) ballots (including the nominating ballots) shall be cast upon any group of nominees. If the tenth ballot has reached no election, the nominations shall be renewed, and new ballots cast.

The first three (3) ballots shall be nominating ballots. After three ballots have been cast and no election reached, only the two (2) highest names shall be voted upon. Any votes for those other than the two (2) highest shall not be counted in the total votes cast.

No office shall be filled by a vote of acclamation.

In case one (1) nominee of the two (2) highest being considered should withdraw his name after the first electoral ballot, leaving one (1) nominee for consideration, he shall be accorded a yes or no ballot. Otherwise, no office shall be filled by a yes or no vote. Blank ballots shall not be recognized in computing any totals.

To conserve time and furnish a more orderly process, the chairman of the convention shall use tellers and ushers to count the ballots secretly and quickly in an adjoining area, then report their findings to the chairman and he to the convention.

All matters coming before the District Convention shall be decided by a majority vote, except those requiring a two-thirds (2/3) vote as set forth in the District Bylaws.

The convention in session reserves the right to suspend the bylaws when necessary, provided such action is by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote.

Amendments to the bylaws may be made at any convention of the District by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of all members present.

ARTICLE VIII

Ministerial Relations

SECTION 1 PCG churches are privileged to use the ministers of other churches of like faith, as evangelists only. Any pastor or evangelist is privileged to labor in other churches where he deems it wise to do so for the up building of the cause of his or her district, providing he or she does not lend his or her efforts to a neighboring antagonistic assembly or church, thereby injuring the Pentecostal Church of God congregation in the community.

SECTION 2 Our ministers shall cultivate a mutual fellowship and work in harmony. In towns of 10,000 population or less, it shall be deemed inadvisable for any of our ministers to start a new assembly where a Pentecostal Church of God congregation already exists, unless sanctioned by the District Bishop and the pastor of the local church. Neither shall our pastors or evangelists lend themselves to any disgruntled element in any of our churches for the purpose of deposing the current pastor or causing dissension and strife. Persons doing such things are subject to drastic discipline.

No new church shall be started within two (2) miles of an existing Pentecostal Church of God without the approval of the District Board.

SECTION 3 Ministers shall not interfere with others who may have charge of a mission or church, whether it is by going in without the consent of the one in charge or by corresponding with the members of the church, to affect the influence of the leader. All inquiries or correspondence which concerns the church, such as visiting the field, conducting meetings, etc., should be addressed to the pastor, or where there is no pastor, such correspondence should be addressed to the church secretary.

SECTION 4 Any Pastor, Minister, church officer or any other entity found to be conspiring or part of filing a lawsuit jeopardizing the interest or assets of the CCPCG will forfeit their credential and/or position in the local church, at the discretion of the District Board.

ARTICLE IX

Ministerial Discipline and Restoration

SECTION 1 Biblical Authority.

The Pentecostal Church of God recognizes the responsibility to exercise Biblical authority in the form of discipline. Disciplinary action should always honor God, follow Scriptural truth, maintain purity of intention, seek reconciliation and restoration, and safeguard the integrity and purity of ministry.

SECTION 2 Accountability of Ministers.

All ministers are accountable to their respective district board in every matter of conduct and doctrine. No accusations or charges against any credentialed minister shall be considered, unless all the procedure outlined within the Addendum to the General Bylaws shall be adhered to. Violations resulting in disciplinary action include lack of compliance of the Biblical Standards of Ministry (Article II of General Bylaws).

Procedure:

1. When an accusation is correctly filed with the District Bishop, the district executive committee shall meet with:
 - (a) The accuser
 - (b) The accused
 - (c) Both parties
2. After the three meetings, the district executive committee shall determine if the accusation shall be made a formal charge.
3. If a formal charge is made, the investigation team shall be formed, and the remaining procedures remain in place.
4. Central California district shall adhere to all current General Bylaws and policies of the General Board in the processing of an accusation against one of our credentialed ministers.

SECTION 3 Development and Approval of Policy.

- (a) The General Board shall be assigned the functional role of developing the policies and procedures for accusations, discipline and restoration of ministers.
- (b) The General Convention shall adopt the policies and procedures on accusations, discipline and restoration, which may be amended by a majority vote.
- (c) These procedures shall be printed as a separate policy and included in the General Handbook along with the Bylaws of the Pentecostal Church of God.

SECTION 4 Accusations against a District Executive Officer

If the accusation is against a district executive officer, the accuser shall immediately notify the assistant General Bishop.

ARTICLE X

Biblical Standards for Ministry

SECTION 1 Christian Affirmations.

As Christians, the members of the Pentecostal Church of God:

- (a) We faithfully pledge our loyalty to Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.
- (b) We affirm complete confidence in the infallible Word of God.
- (c) We affirm our commitment to the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19, 20; Mark 16:15, 16) and we declare our willingness to go anywhere, do anything and sacrifice everything God requires of us in the fulfillment of that commission.
- (d) We accept God's call to preach and teach the Word to all people as God gives opportunity, and we do this because of God's love for every human being who, apart from faith in Christ, is judgment bound and destined for hell.

(e) We endorse the Gospel message of salvation by grace alone through faith in the risen Lord Jesus Christ and His atoning death on the cross for our sins.

(f) The proclamation of the Gospel must include a thoughtful call of every person to repent, to commit to Jesus Christ and to follow Him as Lord and Savior, and to do all these lovingly and without coercion or manipulation.

(g) We will stay prayerfully led and controlled by the Holy Spirit for a deeply spiritual Christ-centered ministry.

(h) We will lead lives of holiness and moral purity, appropriately representing Christian ministry to the Church and the world.

(i) We will practice a life of regular Bible study and pray for personal spiritual growth and anointed ministry.

(j) We will be faithful stewards of all personal and church ordinances and we will be accountable to all concerned in the ordinance of our ministry and will be honest in reporting our statistics. We will keep personal and church ordinance activities separate and inviolate. Following these standards, we will faithfully promote our ministry in the community, “providing things honest in the sight of all men.”

(k) We believe our family is a sacred trust and our responsibility to each family member is to be kept as faithfully as our call to minister to others.

(l) We are responsible to the local church and we will conduct our ministry to build up the local body of believers in the larger interest of the Church universal. We are responsible to faithfully discipline all who come to faith under our ministry, to encourage every person to identify with the local church, to work faithfully at evangelism, Christian education and Christian discipleship, and endeavor to train every believer in personal witnessing.

(m) We will share the cross of Christ by relieving both the social and spiritual sufferings of humanity, whether rich or poor, healthy or infirmed; we will do our utmost to alleviate human need, following Christ as our example.

(n) We will give ourselves to prayer, to evangelism, to revival, to Bible-based counseling, to Christian education, to peacemaking and to our particular office, ministry and calling until Christ returns for His own. We do solemnly affirm these biblical principles for Christian ministry.

(o) We will be subject to those who God has placed in authority over us.

(p) We believe that homosexuality is incompatible with Christian ministry and practicing homosexuals may not be credentialed within the Pentecostal Church of God.

(q) We only recognize the Biblical definition of the marriage union as follows:

A marital union is only a monogamous marriage between a natural born man and a natural born woman. Based on the principle of covenant initiated by God, marriage is the relationship through which sexuality can fulfill its potential to bless human lives. The covenant of marriage stresses fidelity to one's spouse. It promotes love, respect, trust, companionship, intimacy, spirituality, and peace. (Ephesians 5:21-33)"

ARTICLE XI Sexual Ethics

SECTION 1 Principles of Moral Behavior.

The following principles of moral behavior and relationships are foundational for sexual ethics throughout the Pentecostal Church of God. These principles arise from our understanding of God's Word as revealed by the Holy Spirit in Scripture, creation, and the tradition of the Church.

CCPCG adheres to all current PCG general bylaws concerning sexual ethics.

- (a) The love of God revealed in Jesus Christ is central to our approach in ethics.
- (b) The worth of persons is understood by God's eternal love.
- (c) Scripture assigns to the Church the responsibility to protect the vulnerable.
- (d) Personal responsibility for behavior is paramount.
- (e) Freedom for the oppressed and for the captive is essential (Luke 4:18, 19).
- (f) The marriage covenant between a natural born man and a natural born woman is foundational (Genesis 2:24; Malachi 2:13-16).
- (g) Faithfulness to our covenants is vital (Ecclesiastes 5:5).

SECTION 2 Affirmations Regarding Sexuality.

We affirm the following statements about human sexuality:

- (a) Sexuality is a good and holy gift of God to humanity bestowed in original creation (Genesis 1:27; 2:25). At the same time, we recognize that our sexuality has been affected by the fall of humanity in the Garden of Eden making necessary these statements about God's original and redeemed design for human sexuality.
- (b) Monogamous marriage between a natural born man and a natural born woman, based on the principle of covenant initiated by God, is the relationship through which sexuality can fulfill its potential to bless human lives. The covenant of marriage stresses sexual fidelity to one's spouse. It promotes love, trust, companionship, intimacy, spirituality, and peace (Ephesians 5:31).
- (c) Biblical sexual relationships demonstrate and are guided by the principles of Christ's love, mutual respect, responsibility, justice, covenant, and faithfulness (1 Corinthians 7:3-5).
- (d) Sexual ethics should be the same for all persons without discrimination.
- (e) People can lead fulfilling lives in harmony with God's will without being sexually active (1 Corinthians 7:17).

SECTION 3 Personal Action.

Based on these principles and affirmations, we believe God calls the Church and all persons to

(a) Exemplify the morality of sexual ethics as expressed through Christ's love, justice, and faithfulness in the marriage covenant.

(b) Stress that sexual desire itself does not morally justify sexual activity.

(c) Renounce as immoral sexual activities that are selfish, irresponsible, promiscuous, degrading, or abusive.

(d) Denounce all forms of exploitation, abuse, and sexual violence. Sexual acts that degrade or dehumanize are contrary to God's will. These include, but are not limited to sexual harassment, pornography, genital mutilation, child abuse, incest, rape, prostitution, and human sex trafficking. No physical, emotional, or spiritual abuse is acceptable.

(e) Offer safety and healing ministry as a natural function of the Body of Christ to those who have been broken.

ARTICLE XII

Divorce and Remarriage

SECTION 1 Affirmation of Marriage.

The Pentecostal Church of God affirms that marriage is between one man and one woman. Homosexuality is not compatible with Christian ministry.

SECTION 2 Designed by God. Marriage is a covenant designed by God and is a sacred covenant relationship between husband and wife for a lifetime. The sanctity of marriage and family is upheld in Scripture. It is understood, therefore, that divorce is the breaking of the marriage covenant and represents less than the ideal. We further understand that sin has disrupted marriage and family relationships. Divorce is not encouraged in Scripture, for the grace of God encourages reconciliation. Yet because of the perversity and stubbornness the human heart, reconciliation is not always possible. The New Testament does reflect a higher standard for the ministry because of the responsibility of leadership in the Church and that the minister's life must model his/her message. We seek to comprehend and practice a balance between God's grace and holding the standard set forth in God's Word.

SECTION 3 Divorced and Remarried Ministers.

No divorced and remarried Christian shall be granted Credentials with the Pentecostal Church of God except in the following cases:

(a) The divorce occurred prior to the applicant's initial understanding and acceptance of salvation evidenced by faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and further the applicant did not demonstrate a lifestyle consistent with devotion to Biblical principles. We recognize annulment as a marriage that never legally occurred. (2 Corinthians 5:17).

(b) The divorce was for the cause of fornication or sexual immorality on the part of the applicant's former spouse (Matthew 5:32; 19:9), where the applicant was faithful to the marriage vows during the marriage.

(c) The divorce occurred when an unbeliever departs from a believer (1 Corinthians 7:15). It must be determined that every effort was made personally and legally to save the marriage, and said divorce occurred against the will of the applicant.
