WELCOME TO THE PARASHA #15 OF LA TORAH: BO, WHAT DOES IT MEAN? COME

In this parasha we will know the last plagues with which the Eternal punished Mitzrayim. After the first seven plagues, Moses and Aaron presented themselves again before the Paroh, to warn him that if he did not let his people out, a plague of locusts would come upon them, but although the servants of the Paroh were afraid of those who were going to succeed them by the Paroh, he was still hardened and did not want to let the people. However, apparently he was letting men out alone and women and children to stay, but the Eternal did not allow it that way. YAHWEH gave instructions to Moses and Mitzrayim was filled with lobsters. Then a ninth plague of darkness fell, a darkness so terrifying that it lasted three days, they could not see each other; but in Gosen the Israelites did have light in their homes. The Paroh continued in his decision not to let the people out and a last scourge fell on the Mitzrayimin, which directly affected the Paroh, because all the first-born children of the Egyptians, their animals and the heir of the Paroh died.

But before this plague affected the Egyptians, the Eternal instructed Moses so that each family of the people of Yisrael would take the blood of a one-year-old lamb and mark with it within the framework of their doors so that death would not touch their homes. They should also eat the meat roasted on the fire; with matzah (unleavened bread) and marror (bitter herbs). These instructions correspond to the Moed Pesach which means Passing Over.

PESAJ / UNLEAVEN BREAD SHEMOT / EXODO 12: 1-28

- 1 And Yahweh spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,
- 2 This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you.
- 3 Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house:
- 4 And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take it according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb.
- 5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year: ye shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats:
- 6 And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it between the evenings.
- 7 And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.
- 8 And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread; and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.
- 9 Eat not of it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roast with fire; his head with his legs, and with the inner parts.
- 10 And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire.
- 11 And thus shall ye eat it; with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste: it is Yahweh's passover.
- 12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will slay all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am Yahweh.
- 13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I strike the land of Egypt.
- 14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to Yahweh throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.
- 15 Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the day before ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel.
- 16 And in the first day there shall be an holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you; no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every man must eat, that only may be done of you.
- 17 And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this selfsame day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever.
- 18 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.
- 19 Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land.
- 20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.
- 21 Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out and take you a lamb according to your families, and kill the passover.
- 22 And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the bason, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the bason; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning.
- 23 For Yahweh will pass through to strike down the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, Yahweh will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to strike you down.
- 24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever.
- 25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which Yahweh will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.
- 26 And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service?
- 27 That ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of Yahweh's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he struck down the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshipped.
- 28 And the children of Israel went away, and did as Yahweh had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

BRIT HADASHÁ

HILLEL (LUKE) 5:12 – 7:50

HILLEL / LUKE 2:25-33

One day, when Yeshua was teaching, some Perushim and masters of the Torah were present, who had come from various places of Galil and Yahudáh, and also from Yerushalayim; and the power of YAHWEH was with Him to heal the sick.

Some men carried a paralyzed man, who was lying on his stretcher. They wanted to introduce him and put him in front of Yeshua, but they didn't find a way to introduce him because of the crowd. So they went up to the roof, took him on his stretcher through the tiles and put him in the middle of the meeting in front of Yeshua. When Yeshua saw their trust, he said: 'Friend, your sins are forgiven to you.'
