WELCOME TO PARASHA #3 OF THE TORAH
LEJ LEJÁ WHICH MEANS: GO TO YOURSELF

In this parsha we will learn the story of Avram, a man who trusted and obeyed the Eternal by leaving his father's house in the company of his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, his father and the people who accompanied him from Haran. On that journey they walked for a long time and came to a place where the Eternal made another promise, saying that "All this land that you see will belong to your children and your grandchildren. He was very happy and thanked the Eternal. They kept walking and walking through many places.

During this time walking there was a famine in the land and then Avram went to look for food in a distant country called Mitzrayim (Egypt), he and all his people stayed to live in that country because there was plenty of food there; When they left, Pharaoh gave Avram sheep, cattle, male and female slaves, donkeys and donkeys, and camels.

Then they went up to the Negev with his wife, all that he owned, and Lot. He was very rich in cattle, silver and gold. His nephew Lot also had herds of animals, there were so many animals of Lot and his uncle, that the grass and water were not enough for everyone; Uncle and nephew made a deal: they decided to separate to look for food for their animals, Lot went to a very good place, where there was plenty of pasture and water for his animals: a valley near the city of Sodom and the people there were wicked. Avram stayed to live in the land of Canaan.

Time passed and Avram left that place and went to live somewhere else; Some years later there was a war between several kings and his nephew was taken prisoner of war, along with the people of the place where he lived; When Avram heard what had happened to his nephew, he went away with 318 men, confronted the kings and pursued them, thus recovering his nephew, all his possessions and the people taken prisoner with him.

- 3 I will bless those who bless you, but I will curse anyone who curses you; and through you all the tribes of the earth will be blessed.'
- 4 So Avram went out, as Yahweh had told him, and Lot went with him. Avram was 75 years old when he left Haran.

- 8 Avram said to Lot, 'Please, let's not have quarrels between you and me, or between my shepherds and yours, since we are relatives.
- 9 Is not the whole earth before you? Please separate yourself from me - if you go to the left, I will go to the right; If you go to the right, I'll go to the left.'
- 10 Lot looked up and saw that the whole plain of the Yarden was well watered on all sides, before Yahweh destroyed Sodom and Amora, as the paradise of Yahweh, as the land of Mitzrayim in the direction of Tzoar.

MORDEKHAI (MARK) 3:1 – 4:20

MORDEKHAI (MARK) 4:1-8

Again Yahshua began to teach by the lake, but the crowd that had gathered around Him was so great that He got into the boat on the lake and sat there, while the crowd stayed on land at the water's edge. He taught them many things in parables. In the course of his teachings, he said to them, 'Listen! A farmer went out to sow his seeds.

While planting, some fell on the side of the road; and the birds came and ate them; others fell into rocky spaces, where there wasn't much land. She sprouted quickly; But when the sun came up, the young plants were scorched with the scorching heat, and because their roots were not deep, they withered. Other seeds fell among thorns, and these grew and choked them; therefore, they did not produce any grain. But another seed fell on rich soil and produced grain; it sprouted and grew, and yielded a harvest of thirty, sixty, and even a hundred times what had been sown.
