DEVARIM (DEUTERONOMY) 11:26 - 16:17

LETS COLOR!

5 Rather, you will come to the place where YAHWEH your Elohim will put His Name. He will choose it out of all his tribes; and you will look for that place, which is where he will dwell, and you will go there.

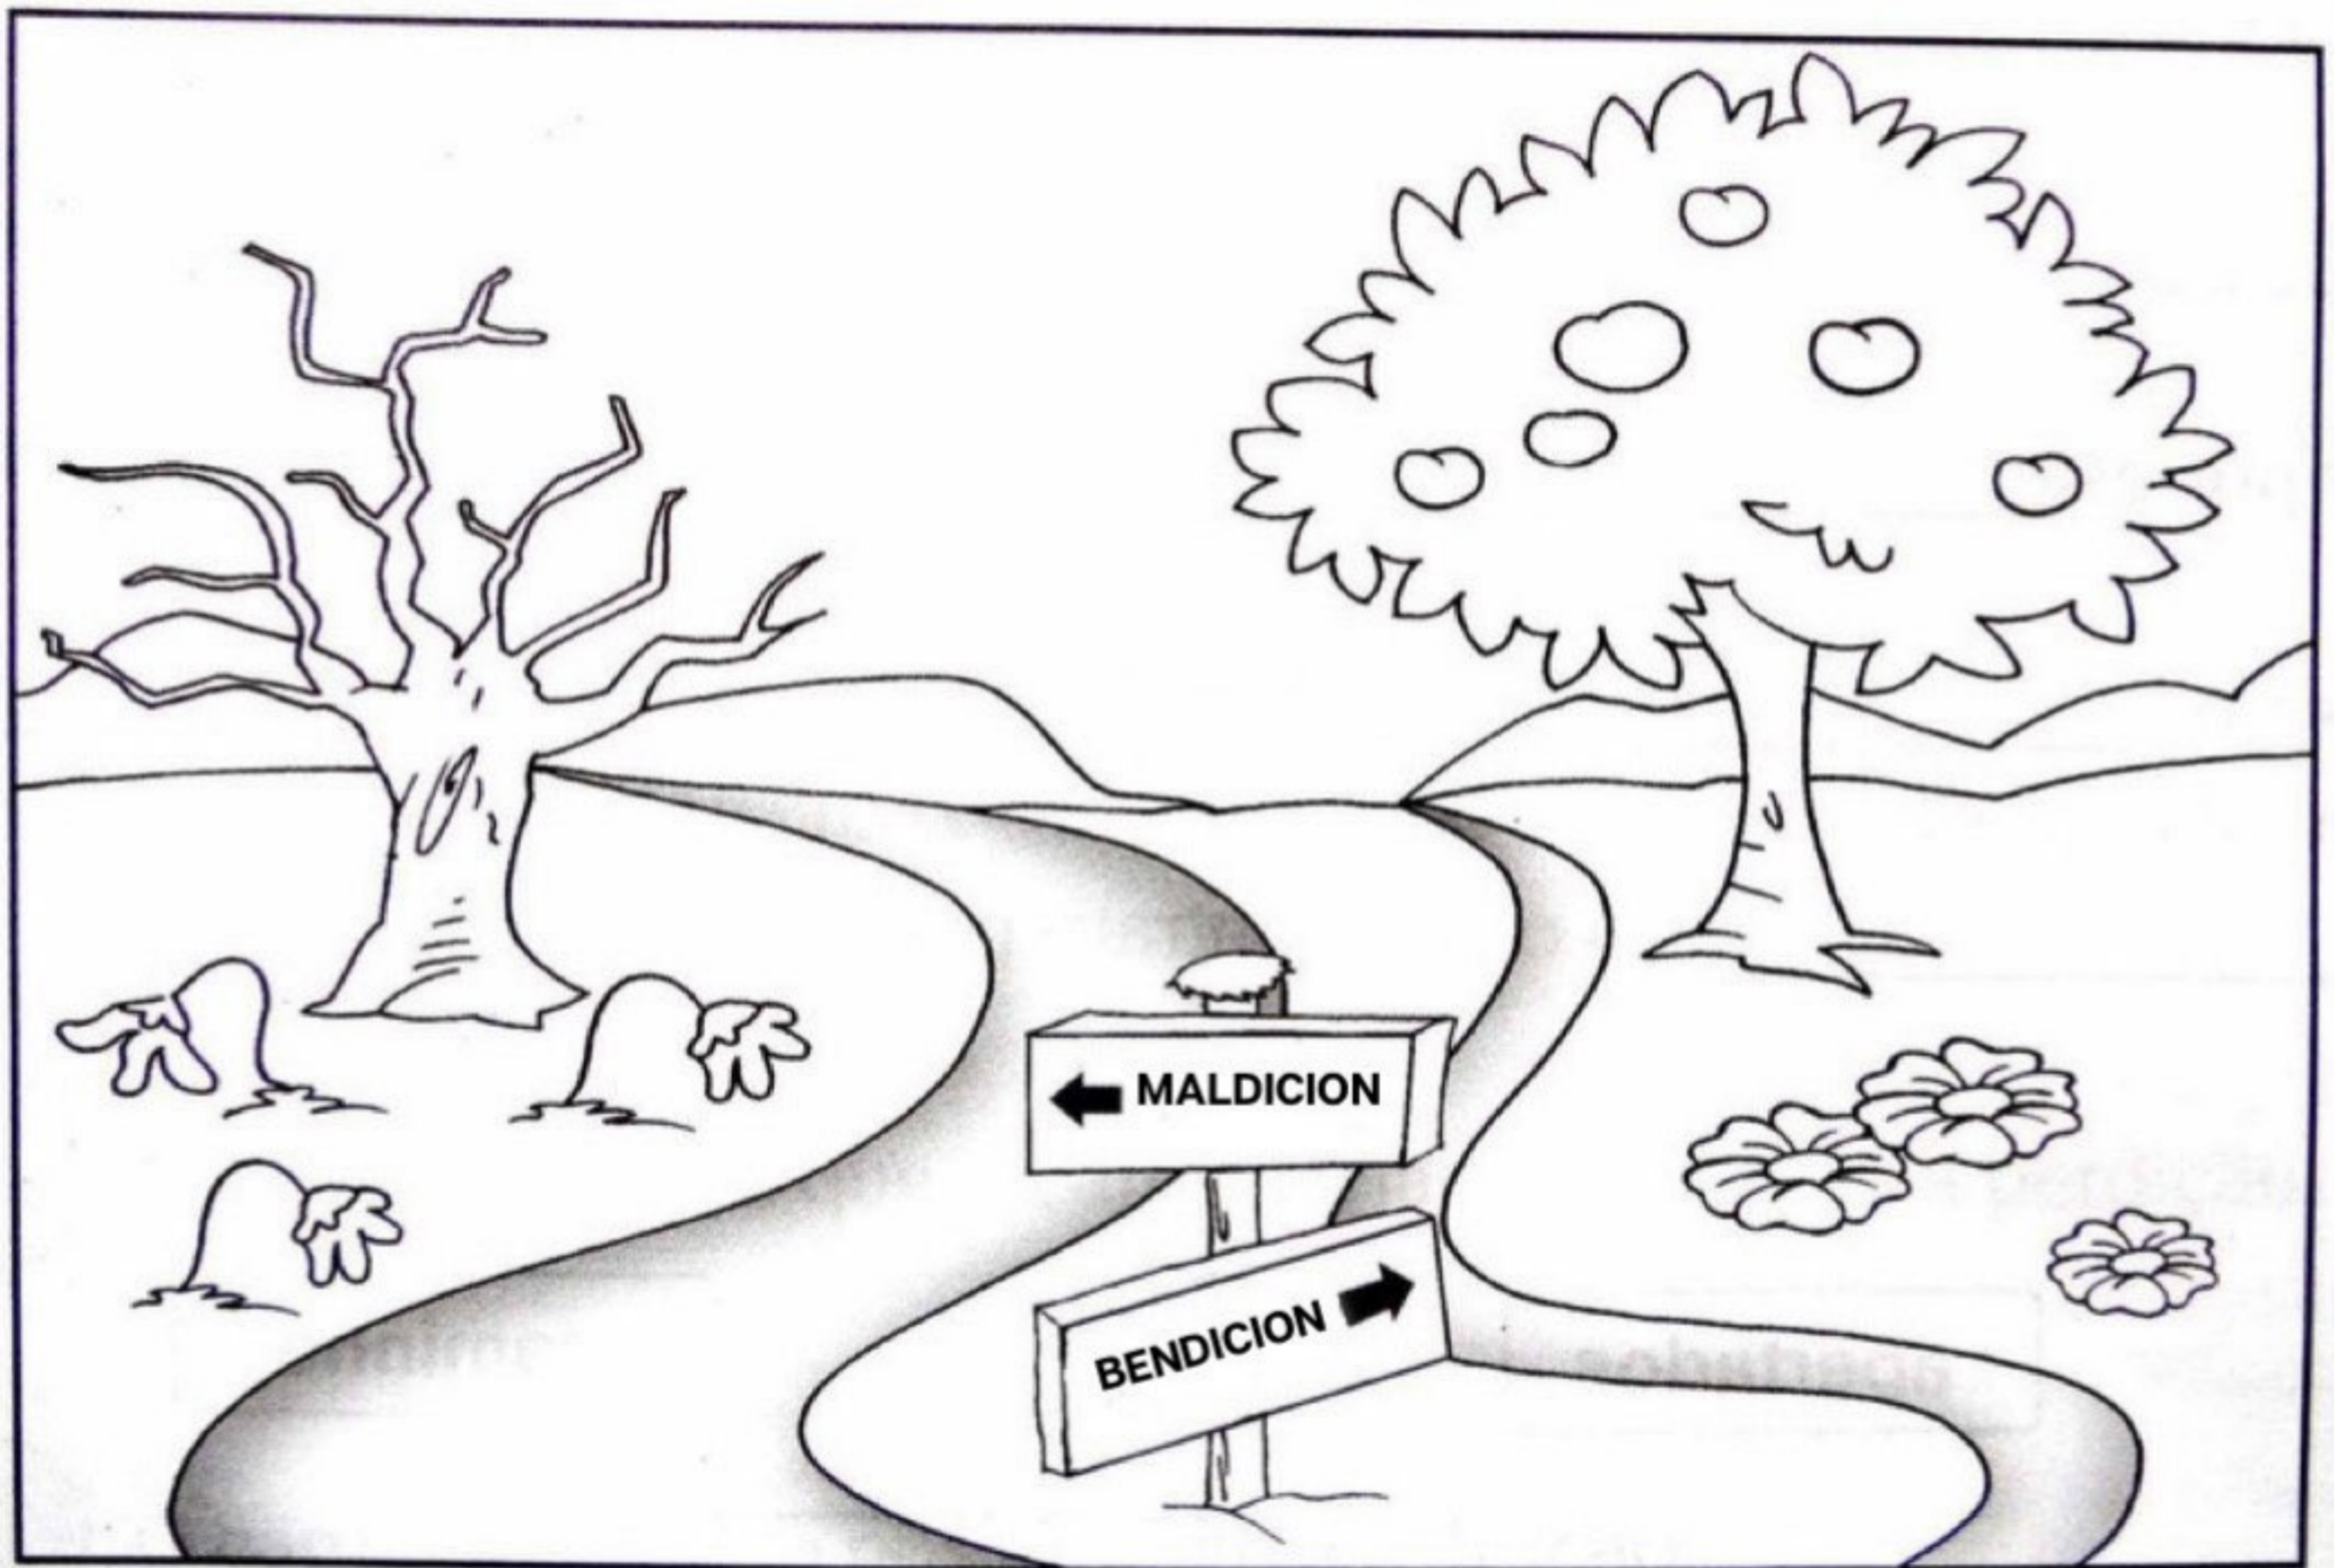

CHOOSE THE RIGHT PATH

The Eternal teaches us that we must choose the right path, the Torah shows us how to do it, therefore, it is important to properly follow the instructions of the Torah to make the right decision. With the help of your parents, meditate on the things that the Eternal teaches us to reach the BLESSING, and on the things that lead to the CURSE.

In the drawing, color the path of BLESSING with the most beautiful colors, and place a red X on the path that leads to the curse.

Devarim 11:26-28

26 'Look, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse –
27 the blessing, if you listen to the mitzvot of ADONAI your Elohim that I am giving you today;

28 and the curse, if you do not listen to the mitzvot of YAHWEH your Elohim, but turn aside from the path that I command you today and follow other gods that you have not known.
