

George Washington

arr. by Brandon Stewart

George Washington was a very good man, a very good man indeed.
He could've told a lie but he said, "Uh uh, the truth is what we need."
An honorable man for his word was sure
A man of great faith, for his heart was pure
He was a very good, very good, very good, very good man indeed.

George Washington was a very brave man, a very brave man indeed.
He could've stayed at home but he said, "Uh uh, a general's what we need."
He wouldn't give in to adversity. His strength led his men on to victory.
He was a very brave, very brave, very brave, very brave man indeed.

George Washington was a very wise man, a very wise man indeed.
He could've been the king but he said, "Uh uh, a king's not what we need."
He wouldn't be treated like royalty
He wouldn't be called Your MAJESTY.
He was a very wise, very wise, very wise, very wise man indeed.
