

Tim's background is in public service and Vermont-specific legal work, with deep personal roots in Addison County. His current post is as a Deputy State's Attorney in Washington County where he is handling roughly 300 cases at present. Tim attended Lincoln Community School, Mount Abraham Union High School.

Tim is proud of his decade of public service and government experience in Vermont, having worked for the Democratic Party, Congressman Peter Welch, and as Policy Director for State Treasurer Beth Pearce before attending the University of Maine School of Law. In addition to his service as a Deputy State's Attorney in Washington County, Tim has worked in the Office of the Vermont Attorney General where he was assigned to the General Counsel and Administrative Law Division, as a law clerk in the Office of the Chittenden County State's Attorney and in the Office of the Ulster County District Attorney in New York while serving as a Law Fellow with Fair and Just Prosecution. Prior to becoming a Deputy State's Attorney, Tim served as a Judicial Extern in the chambers of the Honorable Chief Judge Geoffrey W. Crawford in the Federal District Court of Vermont in both Burlington and Rutland.

VT Primary Election—August 9th

Tim has a decade of Vermont-specific government and legal experience including as a Deputy State's Attorney. He is an empathetic and outcome-based prosecutor with a focus on community justice, harm reduction and accountability—a proactive approach to public safety.

“Prosecuting crime is one part of the work, but truly believing in the best outcomes requires achieving a special working trust with people, and knowledge of the justice system. I know Tim has the correct approach and seeks to obtain the best possible outcomes for individuals and our community.” —Rep. Diane Lanpher, Addison-3

Tim's Priorities for the State's Attorney's Office:

- Standing up a drug treatment court where some cases can be adjudicated with rehabilitation, treatment, and counseling.
- Writing a strategic plan detailing the State's Attorney's Office policies with input from community and county-wide service partners.
- Creating a mental health training program for the various stakeholders in the legal process.
- Implementing an Addison-specific Fair and Impartial Policing policy for use county-wide.
- A proactive and holistic approach to community justice and public safety with support for restorative programming including diversion and community justice referrals.
