

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Thank you for your interest in the Mother of Divine Providence (MDP) CYO sports program.

Please review the current guidelines set forth by the Archdiocese for athletes to participate in CYO sports:

Guidelines that allow CYO participation:

- Your child attends Mother Teresa Regional Catholic (MTC) School
- Your child does not attend MTC, but is a member of MDP parish, attends the MDP religious education prep program, and their sacraments are up to date.
- Your child is registered at an approved affiliated parish (such as St Teresa of Avila, Sacred Heart) and attends the affiliated parish's religious education prep program, and their sacraments are up to date.

Guidelines that DO NOT allow CYO participation:

- Your child does not attend MTC, is a member of the MDP parish, but is not enrolled in MDP's religious education prep program, and their sacraments are not up to date.
- Your child does not attend MTC, is registered at an approved affiliated parish but is not enrolled in the affiliated parish's religious education prep program, and their sacraments are not up to date.

Links to enroll in MDP religious education prep program or parish:

- To enroll in the MDP religious education program, <https://mdpparish.com/prep/>
- To enroll in MDP parish and become a parishioner <https://mdpparish.com/registration/>

Thank you very much for your interest in the MDP CYO program! If you have any questions or concerns, please email us: mdpathleticdirector@gmail.com

Respectfully,

The MDP CYO Board